Graduate Study

The department offers the Master of Science in HPER with concentrations available in Health, Physical Education, or Recreation and a Master of Science with a major in Exercise Science and Health Promotion. The Doctor of Arts degree is offered in Physical Education. Degree requirements and a list of courses offered for graduate credit are published in the Graduate Catalog.

Department of Human Sciences

Karla Hughes, Chair
Ellington Human Sciences 100

Belcher, Coleman, Colson, Davidson, Deveau, Emery, Estes, Harrison, Hull, Keeling, Kelley, McNaughton, Radford, Robinson, Sheehan-Smith, Simpson, Stogner, Walker

The programs offered by the Department of Human Sciences are accredited by the American Association of Family and Consumer Sciences and provide a broad liberal education along with a specialty to prepare students for a wide spectrum of professions. Career opportunities in human sciences include positions in social agencies, government agencies, community services, business, industry, health services, research laboratories, design, merchandising, teaching, and day care.

Programs leading to the Bachelor of Science degree are offered in five majors: Family and Consumer Studies with concentrations in Consumer Services, Family and Consumer Sciences Education, and Child Development and Family Studies; Interior Design; Nutrition and Food Science with concentrations in Dietetics and Food Technology; Textiles, Merchandising, and Design with concentrations in Apparel Design and Fashion Merchandising; and Early Childhood Education which licenses students to teach grades pre-kindergarten through third. The department also offers minors in Human Sciences, Nutrition and Food Science, and Textiles, Merchandising, and Design.

It is an institutional requirement that degree-seeking students complete the General Studies requirements. Consultation with the assigned advisor is necessary before each registration.

In all curricular listings, (Area __) refers to the General Studies requirements as outlined on pages 58-59.

Major in Family and Consumer Studies

The curriculum leading to a major in Family and Consumer Studies is designed primarily for preparation in broad areas of the field. Electives may be used to build strong combinations with other fields of interest. A major in Family and Consumer Studies requires the selection of one concentration from the three available plus one minor outside the field of human sciences.

Concentration: Consumer Services

Career opportunities in the consumer service field include working with businesses, industries, government agencies, and consumer protection agencies in the areas of consumer affairs; consumer information dissemination; product development, testing, and promotion; consumer protection; public relations; and communications.

Minor in Nutrition and Food Science

The minor in Nutrition and Food Science requires 18 semester hours to include N FS 124, 320, and 12 hours to be chosen from N FS 321, 326, 328, 420, 421, 422, 424, 425, 426, 427, and 428. Required prerequisites must be met for all courses.

Major in Interior Design

The Interior Design curriculum meets the requirements for allied membership in the American Society of Interior Designers and affiliate membership in the International Interior Design Association. Accredited by the Foundation for Interior Design Education Research, the professional level B.S. degree offers preparation for entry-level positions in residential and contract design firms, sales, design consulting, computer-aided design, and other related design areas. The program, with a major in Interior Design, a minor in Human Sciences, and a professional core in art and business, includes the following courses: H SC 101, 302, 441; H SC 443 or CDFS 333; IDES 270, 271, 360, 370, 371, 372, 373, 374, 375, 376, 470, 471, 473, 474, 475, 476, 477, 478, 479; N FS 124; CDFS 332 or 334; TXMD 310; MKT 382, 384; INFS 220; and 3 hours from ACTG 111, MGMT 361, BLAW 340; ART 162, 191, 192, and 3 hours from ART 164, 193, 213, 215, 355, 490, or PHOT 205; General Studies requirements.

Interior design majors must earn a grade of C or higher in all IDES courses. Students earning a D or F will be required to repeat the course before being allowed to advance in the program.

Students are strongly encouraged to participate in the internship or co-op programs.

Major in Early Childhood Education

The major in Early Childhood Education is offered by the Department of Human Sciences. The curriculum for the major in Early Childhood Education is designed to prepare teachers in the area of early childhood education and to meet the Tennessee requirements for licensure to teach pre-kindergarten, kindergarten, and first through third grades. Major emphasis is placed on development of the child during early childhood as well as the importance of high quality family life.* Following are the program requirements:

1. FOED 111, 211;
2. ELED 311A, 311D, 325, 411, 430; READ 425;
3. H SC 101, 161, 400; N FS 124, 425; CDFS 235, 331, 332, 430, 432, 433, 435, 436, 437, 438;
4. 12 hours of language arts including ENGL 111 and 112, ENGL 360 or L S 415, SPEE 220 or 400;
5. 10 hours of health and physical education including HLTH 310 and 437, PHED 350, and 2 activity courses;
6. 13 hours of humanities including ART 223, MUED 467, ENGL 211, 221 or 223 or 224 or HUM 261;
7. 9 hours of social studies to include HIST 201, 202, GEOG 200;
8. 8 hours of natural science to include BIOL 100, SCI 100, or GEOL 100;
9. MATH 110, 201; ELED 225;
10. SPED 301.

A grade of C or higher is required for all CDFS courses.*

Special comments:

1. Practica should be taken in this order: CDFS 433, 438, 430; ELED 430, 431, 411.
2. Method courses should be completed in the junior year: ELED 311A, 311D, READ 425.
3. Students interested in a program in Early Childhood that does not lead to licensure should contact an advisor for planning appropriate course substitutions.

Minor in Human Sciences

The minor in Human Sciences consists of a minimum of 18 semester hours of courses offered by the Department of Human Sciences elected to meet the concentration needs of the student.

Courses in Human Sciences [H SC]

General

101 Career Orientation. One credit. Development and scope of human sciences as a profession, its wide variety of career opportunities, with analysis of interests, aptitudes, proficiency, and education related to success in these areas. Two hours per week until mid-term.

161 Basic Design. Three credits. Experience in two-dimensional design. Analysis, experiments, and application of the elements and principles of design as they relate to the immediate environment. Not accepted for credit toward Interior Design major. Four hours per week.

302 Presentation Techniques. Three credits. Principles and techniques of effective presentations and demonstrations. Opportunities for experience in presenting demonstrations to the public through mass media. Three hours per week.

343 Housing. Three credits. Evaluation of housing and equipment in terms of family needs, economics, building codes, legislation, and technological developments. Housing alternatives presented and analyzed with emphasis on socio-psychological satisfaction with the residence. Offered once a year.

400 Senior Seminar. One credit. Prerequisites: H SC 101 and junior standing. Review of philosophy and professional ethics of human sciences. Preparation of reference files, letters, and resume. One hour per week.

404 Seminar in Human Sciences. Prerequisite: Permission of department chair. Individual research and/or analysis of contemporary problems and issues in a concentrated area of study. For advanced students.

A. Human Development-Family Life. Three credits.
B. Foods-Nutrition. Three credits.
C. Clothing-Textiles. Three credits.
D. Housing-Design. Three credits.

405 Advanced Problems in Human Sciences. Prerequisite: Permission of department chair. Provides an opportunity for advanced students to do independent study or conduct research in their areas of emphasis. One hour seminar per week plus independent study in

A. Human Development-Family Life. Three credits.
B. Foods-Nutrition. Three credits.
C. Clothing-Textiles. Three credits.
D. Housing-Design. Three credits.

406 Readings in Human Sciences. One to three credits. Prerequisite: Permission of department chair. Selected readings of current trends, developments, and research in human sciences of interest to teachers and students. One hour seminar per week and independent study.

410 Internship. Six credits. Prerequisites: Departmental approval and minimum 2.25 GPA. Directed and supervised experience designed to acclimate seniors in day-to-day demands, skills, and personal relationships in their major fields. Provides students with professional experiences. Includes a minimum of 300 hours at the worksite, plus scheduled seminars.

A. Human Development-Family Life (Prerequisites: CDFS 235, 331, 332, 333, 430, 434, 435, 436, and 439).
B. Consumer Services (Prerequisites: H SC 302, 441, 442, and 443).
C. Textiles, Merchandising, and Design (Prerequisites: retail-oriented: TXMD 310, 313, 315 or 319, 316, 317, and 415; design-oriented: TXMD 310, 313, 314, 317, and 319).
D. Interior Design (Prerequisites: IDES 373, 475).
E. Nutrition and Food Science (Prerequisites: N FS 320, H SC 443, and approval of advisor

441 Consumer Economics. Three credits. Consideration of theoretical economics as related to the family. Presents an overview of the choices available and the decision-making process confronting the family in the American economy.

442 Personal and Family Management. Three credits. Management theories applied to personal and family resources throughout the life cycle. Emphasis on the development of knowledge from which to draw conclusions about the financial elements of life. Offered once a year.

443 Resource Management. Three credits. Opportunity to coordinate the many areas of human sciences in the solution of individual and group management problems.

445 Professionalism in Consumer Services. Three credits. The role, functions, and responsibilities of consumer services professionals employed in business, government, and other organizations.

Courses in Textiles, Merchandising, and Design [TXMD]

110 Clothing I. Three credits. The fundamental clothing construction processes necessary for advanced work in clothing. Five hours per week. Offered fall only.

300 Computer-Aided Apparel Design. Three credits. Introduces computer basics and the windows operating environment; computer-aided design applications related to the apparel and textile industries, including fashion sketching with stylus and graphics tablet, design evolution and line development; current CAD software utilized. Five hours per week.

307 Fashion Promotion. Three credits. Prerequisite: H SC 161. An overview of the sales promotion process in relation to the fashion industry; emphasis on advertising, visual merchandising, special events, and fashion show production. Addresses newest techniques in fashion merchandising and promotion. Students directly involved in planning the production of a major fashion show within the community. Offered fall only.

310 Textiles I. Three credits. An overview of the textile industry including fibers, yarns, fabric construction, dyeing/printing techniques, and finishes. Emphasis placed on the selection of textile products in relation to end use. Includes labwork involving physical testing. Four hours per week.

312 Textiles II. Three credits. Prerequisite: TXMD 310. An overview of quality control using state-of-the-art textile testing equipment. Analysis of fibers and fabrics with emphasis on labwork involving microscopy and chemical and physical testing. Correlation of test results in predicting fabric performance in relation to end use. Four hours per week. Offered spring only.

313 Introduction to the Fashion Industry. Three credits. How the fashion world operates from planning stages to consumer. Emphasis on production and distribution of fashion goods, current trends, and technological developments.

314 Flat Pattern Design. Three credits. Prerequisite: TXMD 319. Adaptation of commercial sloper patterns to individual proportions, pattern designing and application of principles of design to apparel designing. Five hours per week. Offered once a year.

315 Apparel Selection and Evaluation. Three credits. Prerequisites: H SC 161 and TXMD 310. An overview of the apparel industry structure and the functions of each division. Emphasis on recognizing quality in relation to fabrication, construction, and design of garments. Clothing needs of special populations included. No construction involved. Offered once a year.

316 Fashion Fundamentals. Three credits. Prerequisite: TXMD 313. Principles underlying the fashion process and the study of fashion retailing. Special emphasis on the dissemination of fashion throughout the world market and to the fashion designers and business leaders in the fashion world today. Offered once a year.

317 TXMD Professional Seminar. One credit. Technological advances and current trends in the fashion industry are examined. Provides students with an opportunity to explore their own values, interests, and capabilities and to acquire in-depth knowledge of the fashion industry and potential career opportunities. Special emphasis placed on preparation for the TXMD internship. Offered fall only.

318 Apparel Manufacturing. Three credits. Prerequisites: TXMD 310 and 315. Analysis of apparel manufacturing processes related to specifications, costing, product development, sourcing, time and motion studies, production planning, resource utilization, and quality assurance. Field trips. Offered once per year.

319 Clothing II. Three credits. Prerequisite: TXMD 110 or permission of instructor. Advanced clothing construction techniques with emphasis on fitting and finishing. Practical application of acquired knowledge to creative wardrobe planning and selection. Five hours per week. Offered spring only.

411 Fashion Illustration. Three credits. Prerequisites: H SC 161; TXMD 310 and 315. An overview of fashion illustration techniques allowing skill development of the fashion croquis and garments various media techniques used to communicate fashion ideas, moods, and details. Offered once per year.

412 Advanced Computer-Aided Apparel Design. Three credits. Prerequisites: ETIS 131; TXMD 300, 314, and 411. Provides opportunity to develop advanced computer-aided apparel design skills while using state-of-the-art CAD software. Focuses on developing textile and apparel activities applicable within the industry today. Students will develop a portfolio containing design projects. Five hours per week. Offered once per year.

413 History of Costume. Three credits. Survey of clothing and design from ancient to modern periods; consideration given to social, economic, and cultural conditions reflected in dress. Offered once a year.

415 Fashion Merchandising. Three credits. Prerequisite: TXMD 316. Principles of marketing, retailing, and sales as they apply to the merchandising of fashion goods. Special emphasis on fashion buying, planning, control and computer applications for apparel businesses. Offered once a year.

416 Advanced Apparel Design. Three credits. Prerequisites: TXMD 314 and 319. Advanced apparel design techniques including patterning, draping, drafting, grading, and marker development. Includes computerized patternmaking. Offered once a year.

417 Social Aspects of Clothing. Three credits. Principles of sociology and psychology applied to the study of clothing and related behaviors. Research methods for studying socio-psychological aspects of clothing included. Offered once a year.

Courses in Nutrition and Food Sciences [N FS]

124 Principles of Nutrition. Three credits. Fundamentals of normal nutrition and its relationship to the health and physical fitness of individuals with emphasis on the scientific, psychological, sociological, and economic aspects of nutrition.

222 Nutrition for the Health Sciences. Three credits. Elements of scientific, psychological, sociological bases of nutrition and its relationship to prevention and treatment of degenerative diseases. Emphasis on fostering communication between health care practitioners in assessment and implementation of nutrition care.

320 Food Principles. Three credits. Basic physical and chemical principles, techniques, skills, sanitation, and economics involved in quality food selection, composition, and preparation. Five hours per week.

321 Meal Management. Three credits. Functions of management applied to serving nutritionally adequate and aesthetically satisfying meals. Management of human and non-human resources in group situations. Five hours per week.

326 Community Nutrition. Three credits. Prerequisite: N FS 124 or 222. Nutrition problems and practices in the community; nutrition programs of state and federal agencies; supervised field experiences; preparation of nutrition education materials.

328 Nutrition in Health Promotion. Three credits. Prerequisite: N FS 124 or 222. Nutrition education resources and skills for individuals working in health promotion and wellness areas including methods for weight management, evaluating popular nutrition fads, dietary assessment, sports nutrition, dietary fat, and cholesterol programs. Offered once a year.

409 Field Experience in Foods and Nutrition. Three credits. Prerequisites: N FS 124 or 222, 420, 422; permission of instructor; 2.25 GPA. Directed and supervised experience in a specialized area of dietetics or food management. Includes a minimum of 150 hours at the worksite.

420 Diet and Disease. Three credits. Prerequisites: BIOL 308; N FS 427. Dietary problems in disease and modifications of normal diet to meet dietary requirements of pathological and special conditions. Offered once a year.

421 Nutrition in Aging. Three credits. Prerequisite: N FS 124 or 222. Nutritional needs of elderly individuals and how these requirements are affected by physiological, pathological, and socioeconomic changes associated with aging. Emphasis placed on assessment, nutrition counseling skills, and resources to assist elderly individuals with adequate nutrient intake. Offered once a year.

422 Food Systems Management I. Three credits. Prerequisite: N FS 320 or 321 or permission of instructor. Principles and production of quantity foods. Emphasis on menu planning and evaluation, production planning, quality control, facilities and equipment, safety, and sanitation. Five hours per week.

424 Experimental Food Study. Three credits. Prerequisites: N FS 320 and CHEM 303 or permission of instructor. Chemical and physical factors affecting the flavor, texture, color, and appearance of food. Emphasis placed on evaluation of sensory qualities of food, using subjective and objective measurements and new food product development. Offered once a year.

425 Child Nutrition. Three credits. Prerequisite: N FS 124 or 222. Nutritional needs during pregnancy, infancy, and childhood related to physical and mental development. Emphasis on cultural, social, and psychological aspects of the development of food patterns and nutrition education resources.

426 Food Safety Issues from Production to Consumption. Three credits. Introduces issues impacting food production, food storage and transportation, food processing, and food consumption within food production facilities, the home, and food service facilities. Consumer concerns evaluated based on risk theory and scientific evaluation of safety, including decision-making through critical thinking. Food standards and regulations designed to improve safety of the food supply discussed.

427 Advanced Nutrition. Three credits. Prerequisite: N FS 124 or 222. Advanced study of nutrients, standards for determination of nutrient needs and metabolism of nutrients in the body. Offered once a year.

428 Food Systems Management II. Three credits. Designing and managing foodservice systems. Emphasis on procurement, delivery systems, layout and design, quality control, financial management, and marketing foodservice. Offered once a year.

429 Dietetic Practicum. Six credits. Prerequisites: N FS 420 and 422. Practical preparation in the field of clinical dietetics. Clinical experience provided with the cooperation of Middle Tennessee Medical Center and other facilities. For senior dietetics students only. Offered summer only.

480 Diet and Disease Seminar. One credit. To be taken concurrently with N FS 420 Diet and Disease. Nutrition and Food Science majors only. Practice in applying the knowledge base acquired in N FS 420 to structured case studies and development of the critical thinking skills needed to design accurate and systematic nutrition care plans in the clinical setting.

Courses in Child Development and Family Studies [CDFS]

235 Human Development I. Three credits. Total development of the child, conception to three years of age. Three hours plus one hour observation per week.

331 Human Development II. Three credits. Prerequisite: CDFS 235 or permission of instructor. In-depth study of physical, intellectual, social, and emotional factors influencing development preschool though middle childhood. Three hours plus one hour observation per week.

332 Family Relations. Three credits. Family systems, giving consideration to interpersonal relationships. The structure, function, and development of families in a changing society and in relation to other social institutions.

333 Dynamics of Interpersonal Relationships. Three credits. Skills and knowledge essential to the development and maintenance of interpersonal and work relationships analyzed. Topics focus on self-awareness, communication in various types of relationships, and managing feelings and conflict.

334 Life-span Human Development. Three credits. Emotional, social, physical, and intellectual growth and development of the individual over the life-span with a family-oriented emphasis. Not available to Early Childhood Education and/or Family and Consumer Studies: Child Development Family Studies majors.

339 Professional Seminar. Three credits. Prerequisites: Junior standing in the CDFS program and approval of the instructor. A prerequisite to H SC 410A Internship in CDFS. Professional issues of ethics, networking, social change and public policy relating to children and families to be covered in 50-hour seminar format. Also, a site-approved, 100-hour field placement to be completed.

414 Violence in the Family. Three credits. (Same as SOC 414.) The causes, dynamics, and consequences of violence in the family. Includes the discussion of violence toward children, spouses, dating partners, siblings, and elders. Emphasizes the social conditions which lead to these types of violence. Offered once a year.

430 Nursery School Practicum. Three credits. Prerequisites: CDFS 235, 331, 437 or permission of instructor. Advanced information and skills working with three- and four-year olds. Lab interaction with children; planning and implementation of curriculum. Three hours laboratory plus two-hour seminar per week.

431 Human Development III. Three credits. In-depth study of physical, intellectual, social, and emotional factors influencing development during adolescence and the reciprocal influences between adolescent development and the family system. Emphasis on the ecological perspective to include the relation between adolescent development, families, and society.

432 Evaluation Strategies and Multicultural Education. Three credits. Prerequisites: CDFS 235 and 331. Must be taken concurrently with CDFS 437 or with permission of instructor. A comprehensive examination of assessment and cultural, linguistic, and developmental diversity in young children for the purpose of meeting individual and group needs. Three hours plus one hour of observation and interaction with young children with diverse needs per week.

433 Primary Practicum. Three credits. Prerequisites: CDFS 430, 438; ELED 225, 325; admission to teacher education. Advanced information and skills in working with kindergarten and primary age students. Consists of field experiences in the appropriate development and implementation of curriculum in kindergarten and one other primary grade. Three hours laboratory and two hours seminar per week.

434 The Contemporary Family. Three credits. Prerequisite: CDFS 332 or permission of instructor. An ecological approach to the study of contemporary issues, problems, questions, and life styles as they relate to families and individuals. Offered fall only.

435 Parenting. Three credits. Developing knowledge and understanding of parenting and parent/child interaction theories. Examination and development of parent education programs.

436 Day Care Perspectives. Three credits. Prerequisite: CDFS 235 and 331 or permission of instructor. Examination of diverse day care settings and their influence on human development. Emphasis on the organization/administration of day care programs. Participation in day care center experiences required. Three hours plus one hour observation per week.

437 Effective Instruction (Birth-5). Three credits. Prerequisites: CDFS 235 and 331 or permission of instructor. A comprehensive exploration of the knowledge and skills necessary for designing and implementing curriculum appropriate for programs serving children birth to five years.

438 Infant/Toddler Practicum. Three credits. Prerequisites: CDFS 235, 331, and 437 or permission of instructor. Advanced knowledge and skills for working with infants and toddlers (birth-3). Lab participation involving interactions with children as well as planning and implementing curriculum required. A three-hour laboratory and a two-hour seminar per week.

439 Families in Later Life. Three credits. Prerequisites: Human Science majors - CDFS 332; Sociology majors - SOC 260 or permission of instructor. Examination of families in later life from an ecological approach with emphasis on family forms and relationships. Offered spring only.

Courses in Family and Consumer Sciences Education [FCSE]

251 Home Economics Vocational Education and Curriculum. Three credits. Orientation to vocational education and to teaching vocational home economics including attention to philosophy legislation, federal and state regulations and standards, curriculum and instruction in consumer-homemaking education, and occupational home economics education.

351 Methods and Materials for Teaching Vocational Home Economics. Three credits. Prerequisite: Admission to teacher education program. Philosophy of home economics education, principles of teaching, and curriculum construction applied to field. Study, evaluation, and organization of materials. Explanation of instructional materials.

450 Occupational Field Experience. Three credits each. Prerequisite: Permission of instructor. Directed participation in planned and supervised occupational experiences of 8 hours field experience per week. Must apply previous semester.
A. Care and Guidance of Children. Three credits.
B. Food Management, Production, and Services. Three credits.

454 A-Z Teaching Home Economics. One to six credits. Synthesis and application of relevant concepts relating to educational planning, changes and social changes to the development of effective home economics education programs. A maximum of 6 semester hours credit may be applied toward a degree.

455 Curriculum Development. Three credits. Review of recent advances in home economics education. Analysis and evaluation of selected topics, materials, and methods in terms of their appropriateness for teaching curriculum objectives in home economics.

456 Problems in Teaching Materials. One to three credits. Prerequisite: Permission of department chair. Application of principles and techniques involved in the selection and preparation of effective teaching materials and visual aids.

457 Occupational Home Economics Seminar. Three credits. Prerequisite: Consent of instructor. Examination and analysis of program development, execution, and evaluation in a selected occupational area.

Courses in Interior Design [IDES]

270 Interior Design Fundamentals. Four credits. IDES 270 and 271 should be taken during same semester. Exploration of elements and principles of design with emphasis on the impact on the built environment. Architectural lettering styles and techniques applied to interior design. Six hours per week.

271 Interior Design Graphics. Three credits. IDES 270 and 271 should be taken during same semester. Technical drawing techniques, lettering, and drawing media commonly used in interior design. Will include orthographic, isometric, axonometric, and oblique drawings, graphic symbols, and entourage. Five hours per week.

293, 294, 397, 398 Cooperative Education. Three credits. Experiential learning that occurs in real employment situations. Must be taken in sequence or approved by the director of Cooperative Education and IDES coop coordinator.

360 House Design. Three credits. Prerequisites: IDES 270 and 271. Human's shelter: the personal dwelling. Emphasis on the organization and documentation of interior space, light frame construction methods and materials, structure, and systems derived from human needs and activities. Five hours per week.

370 Interior Design Visual Presentations I. Three credits. Prerequisites: IDES 270 and 271 or permission of instructor. Interior rendering techniques, perspective drawing, sketching, and operation and care of equipment necessary in the effective communication of design solutions. Five hours per week.

371 Principles of Interior Design. Three credits. Prerequisite: IDES 370 or permission of instructor. An introduction to the basic principles, theories, and procedures involved in creative problem solving. Five hours per week. Offered once a year.

372 Interior Materials and Finishes. Three credits. Prerequisite: IDES 271 or permission of instructor. Materials and finishes used in the treatment of interior space to be examined in terms of properties, specifications, installation, and manufacturers. Four hours per week. Offered once a year.

373 Residential Design I. Three credits. Prerequisites: IDES 371 and 375. Analysis and organization of components, materials, and space relative to human scale and habitability. Influence factors of architecture, function, and economics on the design of interior environment. Emphasis on the data gathering and space planning. Five hours per week. Offered once a year.

374 Interior Design Business Practices. Three credits. Prerequisites: IDES 372 and 373; pass portfolio review. Business practices, ethics, Americans with Disabilities Act, building, fire, and life safety codes as applied to the interior design profession. Offered once a year.

375 Interior Design Visual Presentations II. Three credits. Prerequisites: IDES 360; INFS 220. Presentation techniques using computer-aided drafting as applied to the interior design profession. Emphasis on 2-dimensional drawings. Five hours per week.

376 Interior Design Visual Presentations III. Three credits. Prerequisite: IDES 375. Advanced computer applications in interior design presentation. Emphasis on 3-dimensional drawings, customizing techniques. Five hours per week.

462 House Furnishings. Three credits. Design principles; space planning; materials; furniture styles, selection, and buying. Four hours per week. Not accepted for credit toward Interior Design major.

478 Interior Design Portfolio. Three credits. Prerequisite: IDES 473. Preparation of interior design portfolio, including projects, resumes, and job search skills. Design of retail spaces. Review of NCIDQ exam. Five hours per week. Offered once a year.

479 Interior Construction Documents. Three credits. Prerequisites: IDES 475; must be enrolled in IDES 473 concurrently. Advanced studio experience addressing residential and commercial interior construction techniques, documentation, and project management. Four hours per week. Offered once per year.

Graduate Study

A Master of Science in Human Sciences with concentrations in Child Development and Family Studies or Nutrition and Food Science is offered. A Master of Vocational Technical Education degree is offered in cooperation with three other departments. A minor in Human Sciences is also available. Requirements and a list of the courses offered for graduate credit are published in the Graduate Catalog.

Schmidt, S. Schmidt, Slicker, Tate, Traughber, Ujcich, Van Hein, Vermillion, West, Whiteside

The Psychology major is designed for students with a variety of career goals and interests and leads to a Bachelor of Science degree. The Pre-Graduate School concentration is designed for students intending to apply for Ph.D. or masters programs. A minor in Psychology is also available. In addition, the Department of Psychology offers a major and a minor in Industrial/Organizational Psychology. The Industrial/Organizational Psychology major leads to a Bachelor of Science degree.

A student whose major(s) and/or minor(s) include both Psychology and Industrial/Organizational Psychology cannot use the same coursework for both programs. Some courses may be used in either program, but in no case can a single course be used to satisfy requirements in both programs.

Consultation with the assigned advisor is recommended before each registration.

Major in Psychology

A common set of core courses is required of all Psychology majors. The specific interests and career goals of each student determine the remainder of the program. The curriculum is arranged to provide familiarity with scientific bases of psychology for students preparing for careers in a variety of professions; the knowledge and skills necessary for graduate work in psychology; and the academic preparation and technical skills for students who plan to work in health-related, business and/or research settings after completing their undergraduate work.

The major in Psychology requires a minimum of 38 semester hours including a course in each of the nine following core areas (with a grade of C or above), plus 12 additional hours of psychology electives (at least 9 hours upper division). To meet the Mathematics General Studies requirement (Area IV-B), Psychology majors must take MATH 141 or 121.

Minor in Psychology

The minor in Psychology, except as required for the major in I/O Psychology, requires 18 semester hours including PSY 141; PSY 142 or a 200-level course; and four elective courses, at least two of which must be upper division.

Concentration: Pre-Graduate School

Students who select the Pre-Graduate School Concentration should be those who will be competitive applicants for Ph.D. or competitive masters programs. GPA is an important consideration for admission to these programs. A sub-committee of the Undergraduate Studies Committee will screen students applying for the concentration.

To graduate with this concentration, students must achieve an overall GPA of 3.25. It is recommended that students apply for this concentration between the completion of 45 and 60 hours.

The College of Liberal Arts, through its eleven academic departments, educates and serves all MTSU students in the University's general studies program; offers graduate and undergraduate majors, concentrations, minors, interdisciplinary programs, and teacher preparation programs; and provides a wide variety of co-curricular activities including lecture series, concerts, performances, and exhibitions. With diverse programs in the humanities, social and earth sciences, and visual, performing, and communication arts, the College brings together outstanding faculty and students to form a community devoted to life-long learning, scholarship, research and discovery, and public service. Through both curricular and co-curricular offerings, the College also seeks to enrich the university and regional community with scholarly and cultural activities designed to promote among all university citizens and patrons a broad knowledge of liberal arts disciplines, a commitment to continual intellectual growth, the ongoing improvement of skills that enhance communication, problem-solving, and creative and critical thinking, and a global perspective that supports an appreciation of the cultural diversity within our region and beyond.

Following are the curricula, courses, and specific requirements for majors, concentrations, minors, and interdisciplinary programs offered or coordinated by each of the eleven departments within the College.

Programs in the Department of Art lead to the Bachelor of Science or the Bachelor of Fine Arts degree. Persons pursuing the B.S. degree will major in Art Education; this program offers preparation for public school teaching at all grade levels and for graduate-level study in the field of art education.

In order to earn the B.F.A. degree, a student majors in Art and selects one of two concentrations—Graphic Design or Studio. These programs offer preparation for work as a commercial artist/designer and/or for advanced study in a studio area of interest.

Minors in Art, Art History, and Art Education also are available.

In addition, the student may elect to participate in a minor program of study which includes art therapy, art therapy/gerontology, and arts administration. Through these sequences, the department offers preparation for advanced study in a student's chosen field.

Students transferring into departmental programs may be required to submit a portfolio of work for review before transfer credits are approved.

Major in Art

The B.F.A. program is designed for those who wish to work professionally as artists, in art-related fields, and/or work toward a graduate degree (M.F.A.). All students pursuing a major in Art are required to complete the General Studies requirements as specified by the department. Students should consult with their advisors each semester in order to plan their schedule of courses.

Students electing the Studio concentration choose a studio emphasis from ceramics, metals, painting, printmaking, or sculpture. Students in the Studio concentration must take 3 to 6 hours in directed problems leading to a senior exhibit. This is listed in the course descriptions as level VI in each area.

Students in the Graphic Design concentration also take 3 to 6 hours of directed problems leading to a portfolio review at the end of level VI (ART 433).

Concentration: Studio

The Studio Art concentration requires the completion of 75 semester hours in Art Department credits plus additional required courses, including

1. ART 161, 162, 163, 164, 191, 192, 193, 280, 380, and 480;
2. a studio emphasis of 15 hours through course-level V;
3. one minor emphasis in art of 9 hours outside of the major;
4. 6 hours of upper-division art history;
5. 3 to 6 hours of directed individual problems (which must include level VI); a student exhibition which must be juried by members of the faculty is a part of this requirement;
6. 18 hours of studio art electives (9 of which must be upper division with the remaining 9 hours to be elected from entry-level studio art courses);
7. MUHL 210; SPEE 220;
8. 3 hours of theatre or philosophy;
9. 15 hours of general electives approved by an academic advisor.

Concentration: Graphic Design

The Graphic Design concentration requires the completion of 75 semester hours in Art Department credits plus additional required courses, including

1. ART 161, 162, 163, 164, 191, 192, 193, 280, 380, and 480;
2. a graphic design emphasis of 15 hours consisting of ART 232, 332, 333, 431, and 432 (the last three of which must be taken in sequence), or, for those specializing in illustration, ART 232, 332, 333, 429, and 430 (the last three of which must be taken in sequence); a portfolio review is required before taking ART 333;
3. one minor emphasis in art of 9 hours outside of the major;
4. 6 hours of upper-division art history;
5. 3 to 6 hours of directed individual problems (which must include ART 433); a professional portfolio which must be reviewed by members of the faculty is a part of this requirement;
6. 15 hours of studio art electives (6 of which must be upper division with the remaining 9 hours to be elected from entry-level studio art courses);
7. MUHL 210; SPEE 220;
8. 9 hours of general electives approved by an academic advisor;
9. 9 hours from among PHOT 205, 320; ADV 302; and approved graphic technology electives.

Minor Programs

The pre-professional study minor requires the completion of 72 semester hours in Art Department credits plus additional required courses, including

1. ART 161, 162, 163, 164, 191, 192, 193, 280, 380, and 480;
2. a studio emphasis of 15 hours through course-level V;
3. one minor emphasis of 9 hours through course-level III;
4. 6 hours of upper-division art history;
5. 3 to 6 hours of directed individual problems (which must include ART 432 or a student exhibition which must be juried by members of the faculty);
6. 15 hours of studio art electives (6 of which must be upper division with the remaining 9 hours to be elected from entry-level studio art courses);
7. MUHL 210; SPEE 220;
8. a minor of 18 or 21 hours in one of the following:

Psychology Minor

This program is designed to prepare the student for entry into graduate level work in art therapy (prerequisite: PSY 141).

PSY 302	Basic Statistics for Behavioral Science
PSY 323	Abnormal Psychology
PSY 400	Workshop "C"
PSY 431	Apprenticeship "C"
PSY 461	Adult Psychology and Aging

3 hours elected from PSY 412, 421, 424

Gerontology Minor

This program is designed to prepare the student for work with older persons or for entry into graduate work in art therapy (prerequisite: SOC 101).

SOC 402	Sociology of Aging
SOC 450	Social Psychology
SOC 480	Special Projects
PSY 461	Adult Psychology and Aging

Entrepreneurship Minor

This program is designed to prepare the student for work in the field of art administration, self-employment as an artist/businessperson, or for work in galleries and museums.

BMOM 140	Introduction to Business
BMOM 290	Entrepreneurship
ACTG 300	Survey of Accounting for General Business
FIN 300	Principles of Financial Management
MGMT 361	Principles of Management and Organizational Behavior
MKT 382	Principles of Marketing
MGMT 492	Small Business Management

Minor in Art

A general minor in Art requires the following sequence of courses: ART 161, 162, 163, 164, and two studio courses.

Students majoring in Mass Communication programs take the following sequence, as requested by that college, for the Art minor: ART 161, 162, 163, and 164 plus two other studio art history courses, one of which must be upper division.

Minor in Art History

A minor in Art History requires the following sequence of courses: ART 191, 192, and 193, followed by 15 hours of elective, upper-division art history courses.

Major in Art Education

The B.S. program in Art Education is designed for those who wish to teach in public schools. All students pursuing a major in Art Education are required to complete the General Studies requirements as specified by the department and as required for certification. Students should consult with their advisors each semester in order to plan their schedule of courses.

Students majoring in Art Education minor in Secondary Education.

Art Education

The major in Art Education requires the completion of 62 semester hours in the Art Department.

1. ART 161, 162, 163, 164, 191, 192, 193, 220, 321, and 322;
2. 18 hours from ART 201, 302; 355; 213, 314 or 400; 251, 352; 271, 372, 281, 382, to include one series of two courses in a two-dimensional and one series of two courses in a three-dimensional area plus one additional series of two courses;
3. 6 hours from ART 490, 492, 494, 496;
4. 8 hours of upper-division art electives.

Minor in Art Education

The minor in Art Education requires a minimum of 22 semester hours in art as recommended by the department chair.

General Departmental Information

1. Students majoring in the department, or who are taking one or more art courses, may be required to attend various extracurricular activities including, but not limited to, exhibitions, films, and lectures during the semester.
2. The Art Department reserves the right to retain certain selected examples of student work for teaching purposes and as a part of its permanent collection.
3. Students will be responsible for the purchase of certain materials in many courses as required by the instructor.
4. Various courses offered within the department may require of all students enrolled the effective use of communication skills, both written and verbal, which reflect university-level abilities.
5. A minor with an emphasis in drawing will be permitted only if 9 hours are taken beyond ART 162, 164, and 262.
6. Students majoring in Art are required to participate in a Sophomore Review during the second semesters of their sophomore years.
7. ART 400 (Workshop) and 464 (Advanced Art Problems) may be taken for a maximum of 9 hours each, no more than 3 hours per semester, and still count for undergraduate credit and graduation.
8. Crafts-media courses, levels I and II, which include jewelry, book arts, and clay, may be taken without prerequisites by NON-ART MAJORS when so designated in the class schedule.
9. All courses are offered on a laboratory basis except ART 191, 192, 193, 280, 290, 380, 480, 489, 490, 491, 492, 494, 496, and 498.

Courses in Art [ART]

161 Two-Dimensional Design. Three credits. The principles and techniques of design and their application to two-dimensional art forms.

162 Drawing I. Three credits. Develops observational drawing skills and a formal drawing vocabulary; introduces various drawing materials.

163 Three-Dimensional Design. Three credits. Prerequisite: ART 161. Emphasis on elements of design as they operate in the three-dimensional environment.

164 Drawing II. Three credits. Prerequisites: ART 161 and 162. A continuation of ART 162 with specific emphasis placed on drawing processes and expression.

191 Art Survey I. Three credits. Examines Western visual arts and cultures from Paleolithic times to the Middle Ages with periodic comparisons to non-Western visual arts and cultures for perspective.

192 Art Survey II. Three credits. A continuation of ART 191 focusing on Western visual arts and cultures from the Middle Ages to the later eighteenth century with periodic comparisons to non-Western visual arts and cultures for perspective.

193 Art Survey III. Three credits. Prerequisite: ART 192. A continuation of ART 191/192 focusing on modern art and culture in the Western world with periodic comparisons to non-Western visual arts and cultures for perspective.

201 Jewelry I. Three credits. Prerequisites: ART 161, 162, 163, and 164 or permission of instructor. Introduction to the basic techniques of making jewelry.

213 Silkscreen. Three credits. Prerequisites: ART 161, 162, 163, and 164 or permission of instructor. An introduction to printmaking, including photo-silkscreen using water-based inks. Handmade stencils used as well as those generated by computer and copy machine.

220 Introduction to Art Education. Three credits. Examines the recent history and contemporary theories of art education, with special emphasis on the essential content of discipline-based art education (aesthetics, criticism, history, and production); introduces general curricular concerns, assessment, and advocacy issues.

221 Art Activities and Appreciation for Elementary School. Three credits. Emphasizes art production skills through introduction to design elements and principles and experimentation with a variety of art media and processes appropriate for children; introduces strategies for understanding and appreciating works of art.

223 Art for Early Childhood. Three credits. Prerequisite: H SC 161 or permission of instructor. Art appreciation and activities for early childhood teachers to plan, implement, and evaluate art programs developmentally appropriate for young children.

232 Word and Image. Three credits. Prerequisites: ART 161 and 162. Explores the relationship between word and image. Typography, primarily display type, is introduced into image-based design utilizing photography, illustration, and design work. Current designers and design trends introduced.

251 Sculpture I. Three credits. Prerequisites: ART 161, 162, 163, and 164 or permission of instructor. Introduction to the processes and techniques used in sculpture including modeling, welding, and wood construction.

262 Color Drawing. Three credits. Prerequisites: ART 161, 162, and 164. A culmination of the foundation sequence with emphasis on formal and expressive solutions to color and compositional drawing problems.

271 Painting I. Three credits. Prerequisites: ART 161, 162, 163, and 164 or permission of instructor. Introduction to painting techniques in particular media with emphasis on basic representational skills, awareness of formal issues, and vocabulary specific to particular media.

280 Sophomore Seminar. One credit. Prerequisite: Must be a third-semester sophomore or recent transfer. An overview of art worlds within and outside of the department; also, preparation for the required Sophomore Review.

281 Throwing. Three credits. Prerequisites: ART 161, 162, 163, and 164. Introduction to basic processes and techniques of creating three-dimensional clay forms on the wheel (cylinders, bowls, and mugs). Some basic hand-building methods introduced.

290 Orientation to Art. Three credits. An introduction to art structure and styles of art; relationships between past ideas and current trends.

302 Jewelry II. Three credits. Prerequisites: ART 161, 162, 163, and 164 or permission of instructor. Advanced jewelry techniques including centrifugal casting.

303 Jewelry III. Three credits. Prerequisite: ART 302. Studio experience in constructing, forging, casting, chasing and repousse, raising, and stone setting with an emphasis on jewelry as an art form.

314 Etching and Intaglio. Three credits. Prerequisites: ART 161, 162, 163, and 164 or permission of instructor. A printmaking course introducing etching, aquatint, soft-ground, drypoint, photo-etching (intaglio-type). A non-toxic approach is stressed, substituting high-quality acrylic resists, vegetable oils, salts, and film for traditional toxic grounds, solvents, acids, and chemicals.

320 Art Education for Teachers. Three credits. Prerequisite: ART 221. Emphasizes the development of comprehensive art lessons, integrating content from aesthetics, art criticism, art history, and production.

321 Elementary Art Education Methods. Three credits with lab. Prerequisite: ART 220. Investigates child development theories and concerns related to children, the elementary school culture, curriculum development and implementation, and teaching and management strategies. Materials and processes appropriate to K-6 art education explored in studio lab.

322 Secondary Art Education Methods. Three credits. Prerequisites: ART 220 and 321. Focuses on the nature of middle and high school students, the secondary school culture, curriculum development and implementation, and teaching and management strategies. Materials and processes appropriate to 7-12 art education explored in studio lab.

332 Typographic Design. Three credits. Prerequisites: ART 161 and 162. An introduction to typography, exploring type as design as well as a means of communication. Display and text applications presented in a series of problems ranging from lettermarks to two-page spreads. Current typographic designers and trends introduced.

333 Portfolio I. Three credits. Prerequisites: ART 232, 332, portfolio review after both 232 and 332 (or for transfer students, permission of instructor and portfolio review). The beginning of portfolio-based problems, more advanced and complex conceptual skills, production techniques, and an introduction to the offset printing process.

352 Sculpture II. Three credits. Prerequisites: ART 162, 163, 164, and 251 or permission of instructor. Introduction to the processes and techniques used in sculpture, including casting techniques; subtractive and constructive experiences with a variety of materials.

353 Sculpture III. Three credits. Prerequisites: ART 251 and 352 or permission of instructor. Development of concepts and techniques with primary emphasis on wood sculpture. Wood construction, carving, laminating, and subordinate use of other sculpture materials.

355 Book Arts I. Three credits. Prerequisites: ART 161, 162, and 163 or permission of instructor. An introduction to basic processes involved with papermaking, bookbinding, and using paper as a creative medium.

361 Introduction to Computer-Assisted Art. Three credits. Prerequisites: ART 161, 162, 163, and 164 or permission of instructor. Explores the use of the computer in relation to art and design concepts in two- and three-dimensional media.

362 Intermediate Computer-Assisted Art. Three credits. Prerequisites: ART 161, 162, 163, 164, and 361. Computer-generated or assisted art work. Development of original work in art or design.

365 Figure Drawing. Three credits. Prerequisite: ART 262. Introduction to concepts. Specific concepts include gesture and expression, spatial structure and proportion, and the effects of light and drapery on the human form.

372 Painting II. Three credits. Prerequisite: ART 271. A continuation of ART 271 with additional attention paid to individual expression and art historical perspectives.

373 Painting III. Three credits. Prerequisite: ART 372 or permission of instructor. The creative process, idea development, and project planning in painting.

380 Junior Seminar. One credit. Prerequisite: Must have completed the Sophomore Review. Fosters an understanding of creative processes and an awareness of issues in contemporary art.

382 Handbuilding. Three credits. Prerequisites: ART 161, 162, 163, and 164. Studio experiences in designing and creating three-dimensional ceramic forms emphasizing techniques of hand construction. Some basic techniques introduced on the wheel.

383 Intermediate Clay I. Three credits. Prerequisites: ART 281, 382, and permission of instructor. Studio experiences in designing, forming, and decorating functional/non-functional forms. Introduction to some basic materials processes (clay and glaze formulation, and firing techniques).

391 Renaissance Art History. Three credits. Prerequisite: ART 192. The visual arts of the Renaissance in Europe (ca. 1300-1600).

393 Multimedia Design. Three credits. Prerequisites: ART 161, good working knowledge of digital imaging, and permission of instructor. Introduces multimedia design. Includes the design, planning, and creation of web sites.

400 Workshop. One to three credits. Subject matter and credit to be determined by the instructor. The workshop may be conducted in the area of art education or any art discipline. (A maximum of 9 credits may be applied toward a degree.)

401 Lapidary. Three credits. Prerequisites: ART 201 and 302. Introduction to the cutting, polishing, and setting of semi-precious minerals with a basic course in stone identification.

402 Enameling. Three credits. Prerequisites: ART 201 and 302. Introduction to the basic techniques of enameling on copper with a strong emphasis on the development of the student's aesthetic and design awareness.

403 Silversmithing. Three credits. Prerequisites: ART 201 and 302. Introduction to the aesthetics and techniques of raising holloware (in copper and silver).

410 Lithography. Three credits. Prerequisites: ART 161, 162, and 213. An intermediate course in printmaking. The making and printing of lithographic images on stones and plates, including both traditional and contemporary techniques such as photolithography, transfer lithography, and color lithography.

4118 Advanced Book Arts. Three credits. Prerequisite: ART 355. Further work with papermaking, bookbinding, and the production of artist's books.

412 Intermediate Printmaking. Three credits. Prerequisites: ART 213, 314, and 410 or permission of instructor. Further work in one or more of the following media: silkscreen, intaglio, lithography, or relief printmaking.

413 Advanced Printmaking. Three credits. Prerequisite: ART 412. Advanced work in one of the printmaking media as described in ART 412.

WE
ARTISTS

414 Advanced Study in Printmaking. Three credits. Prerequisite: ART 413. Intensive independent research in one of the areas chosen by the student and planned in consultation with the instructor.

429 Beginning Illustration. Three credits. Prerequisites: ART 161, 162, 163, 164, and 165; ART 333 for graphic design majors. Introduces basic methods, materials, and business practices of illustration, with an emphasis on development of rendering skills.

430 Advanced Illustration. Three credits. Prerequisite: ART 429 or permission of the instructor. Continued exploration of methods and materials with an emphasis on development of a personal style.

431 Portfolio II. Three credits. Prerequisite: ART 333. Continued production of portfolio-based problems with increased emphasis on advanced design skills related to the specific needs of the workplace. Includes basic collateral problems, ad campaigns, corporate identity, signage, plus a self-promotional package.

432 Senior Project. Three credits. Prerequisite: ART 431 or permission of instructor. Following a portfolio review, each class member will devise a project that conceptually and visually addresses his or her design/illustration goals.

433 Internship. Three credits. Prerequisites: Senior standing and permission of the internship coordinator. Advanced students gain practical experience in a professional setting as an intern. Approximately 150 work hours required for the semester.

439 Multimedia Authoring I. Three credits. Prerequisites: ART 161, good working knowledge of digital imaging, and permission of instructor. An intermediate multimedia authoring class. Design, planning, and creation of interactive digital applications for CD-ROM, the Internet, and other digital environments.

440 Multimedia Authoring II. Three credits. Prerequisites: ART 393 or 439, or permission of instructor. An advanced multimedia authoring class. Students work individually and as teams on interactive applications for the computer and the Internet. Emphasis on projects which are solicited from sources outside the class as well as outside the University.

451 Sculpture IV. Three credits. Prerequisites: ART 251 and 352 or permission of instructor. Development of concepts and techniques with primary emphasis on metal sculpture. Gas and electric welding, fabricating, grinding, finishing, and subordinate use of other sculpture materials.

452 Sculpture V. Three credits. Prerequisites: ART 251 and 352 or permission of instructor. Development of concepts and techniques with primary emphasis on casting activities in the foundry; covers various metal casting techniques and subordinate use of other materials.

453 Sculpture VI. Three credits. Prerequisites: ART 353, 451, and 452 or permission of instructor. Problems in sculpture selected by the student after approval by the instructor.

464 Advanced Art Problems. One to three credits. Structure and content determined by the art faculty on the basis of individual need. The student should be prepared to do independent research and experimentation in the area selected. (A maximum of 9 credits may be applied to a degree.)

471 Painting IV. Three credits. Prerequisite: ART 373 or permission of instructor. Projects in painting; content of the course is planned by the student under supervision of the instructor. A final paper is required.

472 Painting V. Three credits. Prerequisite: ART 471 or permission of instructor. Independent studies course in painting which continues the concerns of Painting IV. A final paper is required.

473 Painting VI. Three credits. Prerequisite: ART 472 or permission of instructor. Directed individual study; a continuation of Painting IV at a more advanced level. A final paper is required.

480 Senior Seminar. One credit. Prerequisite: Must be at least a first-semester senior. Covers professional matters and explores possibilities for continued learning and/or career enrichment.

481 Intermediate Clay II. Three credits. Prerequisites: ART 383 and permission of instructor. Directed individual studies of problems mutually agreed upon by the student and course instructor.

482 Advanced Clay. Three credits. Prerequisites: ART 481 and permission of instructor. Further work as described in Intermediate Clay II.

483 Advanced Study of Clay. Three credits. Prerequisites: ART 482 and permission of instructor. Further work as described in Intermediate Clay II. Written paper and exhibition required.

489 Design History: Cultural Perspectives. Three credits. Prerequisite: ART 193 or permission of instructor. Nineteenth and twentieth century design history from the perspective of several western and non-western cultures considering aspects of gender ethnicity, spirituality, and points of confluence.

490 Nineteenth- and Twentieth-Century Art. Three credits. Prerequisite: ART 193. Western visual art movements and trends ca. 1750-ca. 1950 focusing on European painting and sculpture with periodic explorations of non-European and non-Western traditions for perspective.

491 Women in Art. Three credits. Prerequisite: ART 193 or permission of instructor. Women's contribution to the art world both past and present emphasizing American and European cultures. Includes coverage of the second wave of feminism in the U.S.A. (1950-1980) and its impact on the arts; specific course content varies depending upon issues of current interest and current scholarship.

492 Contemporary Art. Three credits. Prerequisite: ART 193. Contemporary Western visual art movements and issues ca. 1945 to the present focusing on American painting and sculpture with periodic explorations of other traditions for perspective.

494 A-Z Special Studies in Art History. Three credits. Content varies. When offered, particular topics addressed are indicated by the course title in the schedule book. Depending on the nature of the material to be covered, prerequisites may be imposed by the instructor. Can be repeated for up to 9 hours.

496 Independent Studies in Art History. Three credits. Prerequisites: ART 193 and permission of instructor. Investigations into art history under the direction of one of the art history faculty. The topic(s) of investigation must be agreed upon by both student and instructor based on discussions prior to registration for this course. Can be repeated for up to 9 hours.

Graduate Study

The department offers a minor at the graduate level. The list of the courses offered can be found in the Graduate Catalog.

Department of English

William Connelly, Chair
Peck Hall 302

Badley, Barnett, Brantley, Bray, Brewer, Brookhart, Cain, Cantrell, Casal, Chapman, Clayton, Cox, Dean, E. Donovan, K. Donovan, M. Dunne, S. Dunne, Durham, Fesmire, Gentry, Hague, Harris, Helford, Herring, Hibbard, Hollings, Holtzclaw, Jackson, Jarmon, M. Johnson, N. Johnson, Kates, Kerrick, King, Kirkman, Kostkowska, Lavery, Lee, Lewis, Levine, Lutz, Mackin, Mapp, McKee, Montgomery, Moran, Neth, Ordoubadian, Petersen, Rizzo, Rogers, Russell, Sherman, Shipp, Strawman, Therrien, Wolfe

Courses in the Department of English meet the general studies needs of all students through the development of verbal and written communication skills and of the appreciation of literature. A major program is offered for students preparing to teach English in elementary and secondary schools, for students planning to enter law school, for students wishing to develop proficiency in some subject in the department, and for students preparing for graduate study. One may earn a Bachelor of Arts degree with a major in English. A minor in English is also offered.

The University does not recommend any student for licensure in English who has not satisfied requirements set by the College of Education and Behavioral Science for post-baccalaureate endorsement. Those planning to get a professional license to teach English must be advised by the associate chair of the English Department regarding courses to be taken.

The English Department participates in interdisciplinary minors in African-American Studies, American Culture, Classical Studies, Early Modern European Studies, Film Studies, Medieval Studies, Native American Studies, Southern Studies, Twentieth-Century European Studies, Women's Studies, and Writing. See page 76 for a listing of interdisciplinary minors with their coordinating departments.

Before beginning the junior year, the student should file a degree plan with his or her advisor. For 300- and 400-level courses, there is normally a prerequisite of 12 semester hours of English.

General Requirements

A minimum of 12 semester hours in General Studies English is required of all students for graduation. Students complete this requirement by taking ENGL 111 and 112, in sequence; ENGL 211; and either ENGL 221, 223, or 224 or HUM 261. Students must pass ENGL 111, 112, and 211 in sequence before taking either ENGL 221, 223, or 224 or HUM 261. A minimum grade of C in ENGL 111 and 112 is required to receive credit.

All first-time freshmen must take the ACT or SAT and have their scores reported to MTSU as part of the application procedure. On the basis of the ACT or SAT scores, MTSU either will exempt students with credit from ENGL 111 and 112, place students in ENGL 111, or require further testing as a basis for placement decisions. Placement decisions will be based on the following scores:

Enhanced ACT English score of 19-31: Placement in ENGL 111
Enhanced ACT English score of 32 or greater: Exemption from ENGL 111 and 112 with credit
Enhanced ACT Composite Score of 18 or below: Must undergo further testing (See page 73, Developmental Studies.)
Enhanced ACT English Score of 18 or below: Must undergo further testing (See page 73, Developmental Studies.)
SAT Verbal Score of 460-700: Placement in ENGL 111
SAT Verbal Score of 710 or greater: Exemption from ENGL 111 and 112 with credit
SAT Verbal Score of 450 or below: Must undergo further testing (See page 73, Developmental Studies, and page 34.)

Students also may exempt ENGL 111 with credit by scoring 3 or better on the CEEB or by scoring satisfactorily on CLEP exams (see page 33). Students may exempt ENGL 211, 221, and 224 with credit by scoring satisfactorily on CLEP exams (see page 33).

If a student takes an examination for advanced placement credit in General Studies English more than once, the most recent score will determine the student's status.

All international students whose first language is not English must take a diagnostic test to place them in the right English class. ESL students who are not ready for ENGL 111 will be required to take ENGL 104 before enrolling in ENGL 111.

All students will complete the required 12 semester hours of English General Studies by passing the following courses in the sequence in which they are listed.

1. ENGL 111
2. ENGL 112
3. ENGL 211
4. ENGL 221, 223, or 224 or HUM 261

In all curricular listings, (Area __) refers to the General Studies requirements as outlined on pages 58-59.

Teacher Licensure

Students seeking a license to teach in secondary schools (grades 7-12) must complete (1) a major in the subject they intend to teach; (2) a minor approved for the B.A. degree (see p. 56) or any Interdisciplinary Minor (see p. 76) to satisfy the Enhanced General Education Requirements; and (3) the professional educational requirements (minor).

Major in English

A major in English consists of a minimum of 36 semester hours.

1. Students should take ENGL 301 and 302 in sequence as soon as possible after they declare an English major and complete freshman and sophomore general studies requirements for English.
2. One course must be included from each of the following eight groups:
   a. English literature I: 311, 312, 313, 433, 434, 436, 461
   b. English literature II: 321 322, 323, 410, 424, 462, 471
   c. American literature: 330, 331, 332, 333, 334, 337, 463, 480
   d. European literature: 339, 340, 344, 421, 422, 442, 443; HUM 395
   e. Writing and language: 350, 352, 353, 354, 355, 356, 400, 450, 451, 453, 454, 456, 487
   f. Genre studies: 335, 336, 338, 375, 445, 446, 447, 477
   g. Gender/Cultural studies: 307, 308, 309, 310, 330, 359, 360, 362, 363, 401, 448, 480, 488; FREN 368
   h. Film/Popular literature: 305, 361, 365, 366, 367, 370, 380, 465, 486
3. ENGL 450, Methods of Teaching Secondary English, and ENGL 451, Modern English Grammar and Usage, are required for all English majors seeking teacher certification and for all students seeking licensure in English (as defined above). Majors seeking certification should choose one course from either group "g" or "h."
4. ENGL 485, Selected Topics in Literature and Language, may be used as a substitute in one of the groups above with the approval of the advisor, department chair, and dean of the College of Liberal Arts. When taught by an English faculty member, certain interdisciplinary Honors seminars (350H and 460H) may also be substituted, with approval, in one of the above groups.
5. ENGL 111 and 112 may not be counted as part of the hours required for an English major.
6. No more than 6 hours of sophomore literature (200 level) courses in English can be counted toward a major.

Majors are expected to consult a member of the English staff each semester regarding the selection and arrangement of electives. Recommended minors for English majors include Foreign Languages, History, Philosophy, Political Science, Speech and Theatre, Film Studies, Writing, and Women's Studies, but students may choose a minor from either those listed under the B.A. requirements (page 56) or from the interdisciplinary minors (page 76).

All students pursuing a major within this department must complete the General Studies requirements. Following is a suggested pattern of study for the first two years; however, consultation with the assigned advisor is necessary before each registration.

Honors College

The Department of English offers the following courses in Honors:

English 111H (Fall Semester)
English 112H (Spring Semester)
English 211H (Fall Semester)
English 221H (Spring Semester)
English 223H (Spring Semester)

Graduate Study

The Master of Arts and the Doctor of Arts degrees are offered in English. Requirements for these degrees and a list of the courses offered for graduate credit are published in the Graduate Catalog.

Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures

Boutwell Dramatic Arts Building 301

Conley, Diaz, Goldberg, Harper, Hedgepeth, Kew, Maisonneuve, McCash, Morris, Novella, Rusciolelli, Shelton, Thomas

Courses in foreign languages and literatures are designed to meet the general studies needs of all students and to develop communication skills and appreciation of cultures and literatures. The major is offered for those preparing to teach foreign languages, for students wishing to develop proficiency in the languages, for students preparing for international careers, and for students planning for graduate study.

The major in Foreign Languages has three concentrations—French, German, and Spanish—and leads to either the Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science degree. Minors are offered in French, German, and Spanish, and courses in Italian, Japanese, Latin, and Russian are available.

Interdisciplinary minors coordinated through the Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures include Early Modern European Studies, Latin American Studies, and Classical Studies.

In all curricular listings, (Area __) refers to the General Studies requirements as outlined on pages 58-59.

Teacher Licensure

Students seeking a license to teach a foreign language in secondary schools (grades 7-12) must complete (1) a major in the language they intend to teach; (2) Foreign Languages 450, Introduction to Teaching Foreign Languages; (3) the Enhanced General Education Requirements (these include and add to the General Studies requirements; and (4) the professional educational requirements (minor). Students must pass an oral interview in the target language at the advanced level.

Enhanced General Education Requirements

Students must take an 18-hour approved minor acceptable for a B.A. degree.

Professional Education Requirements

Students must contact their minor advisors in professional education for approval of appropriate courses. (For specific procedures and additional requirements for teacher licensure, see page 164.)

Major in Foreign Languages

A student majoring in Foreign Languages must select one of the concentrations and specialize in either French, German, or Spanish. A major consists of 36 semester hours in one language (excluding 111) and must include at least 21 hours of upper-division work.

French specialists are required to take FREN 301, 302, and two 400-level courses. Native speakers of French will substitute FREN 311, 312, or an additional 400-level course for 301 and 302.

German specialists are required to take GERM 301, 302, and two 400-level courses.

Spanish specialists are required to take SPAN 315, 316, and two 400-level courses. Native speakers of Spanish should consult with advisor.

Majors should choose HUM 261, Foreign Literature in Translation, to satisfy Area II-A of the General Studies requirements.

Majors should pursue the following lower-division program:

Recommended Curriculum

	35		34

To meet this requirement, students may take four semesters of one-hour PHED activity courses or two semesters of one-hour PHED activity courses plus HLTH 310. Two hours of military science or marching band may be substituted for 2 hours of PHED activity credit in either case.*

Before beginning the junior year, the student should file a degree plan with his or her advisor.

Minor in French, German, or Spanish

A minor in French, German, or Spanish requires 18 semester hours in the selected language (excluding 111), including 9 hours of 300- and/or 400-level courses.

Advanced Placement Credit

A score of 3 or above on the Advanced Placement Exam for French, German, Latin, or Spanish of The College Entrance Examination Board (CEEB) will receive 6 credit hours (111 and 112). In addition, a student possessing knowledge of French, Spanish, German, or Latin resulting from high school study, family background, or foreign travel may earn up to 12 hours lower-division credit on the basis of a placement examination given each semester, provided the student does not already have college credit in the language for which he/she is seeking placement credit and provided the student successfully completes one course in the language at MTSU. Students may make arrangements to take the placement test during the registration period at the beginning of each semester in the department office, Boutwell Dramatic Arts Building 301.

NOTE: No student is permitted to take 111, 112, 211, and 212 in a foreign language out of sequence without the permission of the instructor. Similarly, no student who has successfully completed an upper-level course will be permitted to enroll in a lower-division course in the same language without the permission of the instructor.

Interdisciplinary Minors

Interdisciplinary minors are open to all students in the University. A student may take no more than 6 hours in a single department toward an interdisciplinary minor unless he or she surpasses the required 18 hours necessary for that minor. A student may take no more than 3 hours credit toward a minor in the same department or discipline in which he/she is taking a major, and no course may be counted for both major and minor credit. Students must fulfill all departmental prerequisites for any course within an interdisciplinary minor.

Minor in Classical Studies

Advisor: Rosemary Kew

The minor in Classical Studies is designed to increase students' knowledge of Ancient Greece and Rome and of their continuing influence through the ages. Students are required to complete two courses of Intermediate Latin (211 and 212), for which the prerequisite is LATN 111 and 112 or equivalent. A placement test is available in the Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures. The remaining 12 hours of electives will be selected from the following list:

ENGL	223	The Contemporary World in Literature
ENGL	339	Classical Mythology
ENGL	340	European Literature to 1400
PHIL	201	Introduction to Philosophy
PHIL	401	History of Ancient and Medieval Philosophy

Minor in Latin American Studies

Advisor: Oscar Diaz

The minor in Latin American Studies is designed to increase students' awareness of the Latin American countries and their cultures, language, geography, history, and economic and political status. Note: All students minoring in Latin American Studies are required to complete Intermediate Spanish (SPAN 212) or equivalent. SPAN 211 and 212 cannot count for both a Spanish major and a Latin American Studies minor. SPAN 211 and 212 may count for the B.A. degree language requirement and a Latin American Studies Minor. The minor requires 18 semester hours selected from the courses listed below:

ANTH	358E	Peoples and Cultures of South America
ANTH	358F	Peoples and Cultures of Caribbean and Central America
ECON	447	Economic Development of the Third World
GEOG	342	Geography of Latin America
HIST	421	Colonial Latin America
HIST	422	Modern Latin America
HIST	424	Latin American-United States Relations
HIST	425	Mexico and the Caribbean
HIST	426	South America
P S	321	International Relations
P S	390	Latin American Politics
SPAN	211,212, Intermediate Spanish
SPAN	341	Introduction to Hispanic Culture
SPAN	444	Latin American Literature I
SPAN	445	Latin American Literature II
SPAN	455	Special Topics in Hispanic Studies
SPAN	475	Special Topics in Latin American Literature or Culture
SPAN	490B	Directed Readings in Latin American Literature and Culture
SPEE	456	Intercultural Communication

Directed Readings or Special Topics in any pertinent department may be pursued with prior approval of the instructor involved and the Latin American Studies advisor.

Course in Foreign Languages [FL]

Graduate Study

The department offers the Master of Arts in Teaching degree. Requirements for this degree and a list of the courses offered for graduate credit are published in the Graduate Catalog.

Department of Geography and Geology

Ronald L. Zawislak, Chair
Kirksey Old Main 325B

Abolins, Bordine, Cribb, Garbharran, Harris, Heffington, Hiett, Henry, Nolan, O'Farrell, Ogden

Courses in the Department of Geography and Geology are designed to meet the general studies needs of all students, to enhance their cultural development in a liberal arts program, to broaden their knowledge of the physical environment, and to provide a solid foundation for those planning to enter fields in which geographical and geological knowledge is of value.

The department offers programs leading to a Bachelor of Science degree with a major in Geoscience and concentrations in Geography or Geology. To provide the student with maximum opportunities for career preparation, the two concentrations are sub-divided into seven career patterns: geography for teachers, geography for global commerce, resource management, and geographic techniques within the Geography concentration and geology, earth science, and earth science for teachers within the Geology concentration. Proper selection of courses will permit a student to work as a professional in a chosen area, pursue graduate studies, or be licensed to teach.

Minors in Geography, Geology/Earth Science, and Remote Sensing are offered, and the department participates in the Environmental Science and Technology major.

The Geography and Geology Department also sponsors an internship program which provides opportunities to receive on-the-job training with various agencies employing persons with geographic/geologic training. Details of this program may be obtained from the department.

In all curricular listings, (Area __) refers to the General Studies requirements as outlined on pages 58-59.

Major in Geoscience

All students pursuing the major in Geoscience must complete the departmental core requirements as follows:

GEOL 100 Introduction to Earth Science, 3 hours*
GEOL 100L Earth Science Lab, 1 hour*
OR student may substitute GEOL 201 Physical Geology AND GEOL 202 Historical Geology per General Studies requirements
GEOG 200 Introduction to Regional Geography, 3 hours*
GEOG 438 Cartography (mapping), 4 hours, OR
GEOL 304 Computer/Field Methods in Geology, 4 hours

Can also serve as General Studies requirements for Areas IV-A and III-B, respectively*

All students pursuing a major within this department must complete the General Studies requirements outlined on pages 58-59 and referred to by areas. Following is a suggested pattern of study for the first two years; however, consultation with the assigned advisor is necessary before registration.

Concentration: Geography

Career Pattern: Geography for Teachers

This program offers preparation for the student to meet professional requirements for teaching geography in the public schools and for graduate studies. The pattern consists of 31 hours, distributed as follows:

Required courses (7 hours)
GEOG 340 A or B Field Course
GEOG 436 Cultural Geography

Four of the following regional courses (12 hours)
GEOG 312 Geography of Tennessee
GEOG 341 Geography of the United States and Canada
GEOG 342 Geography of Latin America
GEOG 343 Geography of Europe
GEOG 344 Geography of Asia
GEOG 345 Geography of Australia and Oceania
GEOG 346 Geography of the Former Soviet Union
GEOG 347 Geography of Africa
GEOG 450 Geography of the Middle East

Four of the following topical courses (12 hours)
GEOG 428 Special Problems and Topics in Geography
GEOG 431 Resource Management and Conservation
GEOG 432 Economic Geography
GEOG 433 Political Geography
GEOG 434 Historical Geography
GEOG 437 Urban Geography
GEOG 447 Rural Settlement
GEOG 454 Geography of Native Americans
GEOG 455 Global Issues

In addition to major courses, the student must meet the following requirements:

1. A cognate of 18 hours:

ANTH 210	Cultural Anthropology
P S 122	Foundations of Government
P S 321	International Relations
P S 422	World Politics OR
GEOG 433	Political Geography
P S 424	American Foreign Policy
SOC 101	Introductory Sociology

2. A minor in professional education. Student must contact advisor in professional education for approval of appropriate courses for licensure. For specific procedures and additional requirements for teacher licensure, see appropriate catalog section.
3. The student must present a minimum of 12 hours of history per state regulations. General education courses may be considered part of this minor.

Concentration: Geography

Career Pattern: Geography for Global Commerce

This program is designed to prepare students for employment in businesses with overseas offices, in government agencies in the U.S. and abroad, and in the global environment of multi-national corporations.

Required courses: (28 hours)

GEOG 340	A or B Field Course OR
G S 301	Field Experience and Study in Another Culture
GEOG 432	Economic Geography
GEOG 433	Political Geography
GEOG 436	Cultural Geography
GEOG 455	Global Issues

12 hours of regional electives oriented to career pattern

Cognate A: (18 hours)

6 hours in the same foreign language

P S 321	International Relations
G S 201	Introduction to Cross-Cultural Experiences
BMOM 467	International Business Communication
MGMT 361	Principles of Management and Organization Behavior

Cognate B: (18 hours)

ECON 444	International Economics
ECON 447	Economic Development of the Third World
MKT 382	Principles of Marketing
MGMT 471	International Business
MGMT 473	Global Comparative Management

Concentration: Geography

Career Pattern: Resource Management

This program is designed to provide students with the basic knowledge required for employment in cultural and natural resource management. This career pattern requires specific courses in General Studies as follows: SPEE 220 in Area I-B, BIOL 111/112 instead of BIOL 100 and GEOL 201/202 instead of GEOL 100 Area IV.

Required courses: (32 hours)

GEOG 233	Physical Geography
GEOL 402	Geomorphic Regions of the United States
GEOL 412	Environmental Geology
GEOG 431	Resource Management and Conservation
GEOG 434	Historical Geography
GEOG 436	Cultural Geography
GEOG 449	Remote Sensing
GEOG 453	Geographic Information Systems
GEOG 448	Recreational Geography

Cognate A: (20 hours)

BIOL 424	General Ecology
BIOL 322	Environmental Regulations
BIOL 406	Dendrology
BIOL 425	Limnology OR
GEOL 413	Hydrogeology
ABAS 334	Soil
ABAS 363	Forestry

Cognate B: (18 hours)

STAT 313	Applied Statistics
INFS 220	Introduction to Microcomputing
INFS 320	Business Applications of Microcomputers
P S 325	Public Administration
GEOG 428	Special Problems and Topics in Geography
GEOG 457	Internship in Geography

Concentration: Geography

Career Pattern: Geographic Techniques

This program provides basic skills in the methods used to acquire, analyze, and present spatial information about the Earth's surface. These techniques are widely employed by government and industry in natural resource and environmental management, urban and regional planning, utility management, and transportation planning.

Required courses (28 hours)

GEOG 233	Physical Geography
GEOG 340	A or B Field Course OR
GEOL 340	C or D Field Course
GEOL 402	Geomorphic Regions of the United States
GEOG 449	Remote Sensing
GEOG 451	Laboratory Problems in Remote Sensing
GEOG 452	Image Interpretation
GEOG 453	Geographic Information Systems

Departmental Elective (3 hours)

Two minors are required. These are to be selected in consultation with and approval by the academic advisor.

Minor in Geography

The minor in Geography requires 18 semester hours to be selected by the student and approved by a member of the faculty assigned as advisor. The minor will be specific enough to support the student's career plans.

Concentration: Geology

Career Pattern: Geology

This program is designed for students who plan to become professional geologists or who wish to pursue graduate study in geology. The curriculum consists of the following, plus an approved Field Camp in western North America (at least 4 hours):

Required courses:

GEOL 201	Physical Geology*
GEOL 202	Historical Geology
GEOL 300	Mineralogy
GEOL 304	Computer/Field Methods in Geology
GEOL 316	Geologic Literature and Report Writing

GEOL	400	Petrology and Petrography
GEOL	402	Geomorphic Regions of the United States
GEOL	403	Invertebrate Paleontology
GEOL	407	Sedimentation and Stratigraphy
GEOL	408	Structural Geology
GEOL	410	Geophysical Prospecting
GEOL	412	Environmental Geology OR
GEOL	413	Hydrogeology
GEOL	458	Seminar in Geology

Plus 3 hours of geology electives

Not required of students with an A or B in both GEOL 100 and GEOL 100L*

Geology electives to be chosen from the following: (3 hours)

GEOL	301	Oceanography
GEOL	414	Inorganic Geochemistry
GEOL	411	Earth Geophysics

Cognate (24 hours)

BIOL	111	General Biology (w/lab)
CHEM	121,	121L Introductory General Chemistry (w/lab)
CHEM	122,	122L Introductory General Chemistry (w/lab)
MATH	122	Calculus I
MATH	221	Calculus II
PHYS	231	College Physics I (w/lab) OR
PHYS	235	University Physics (w/lab)

Second semester physics (PHYS 232 or 236 [with lab]) may be substituted for BIOL 111. Fortran Programming, CSCI 116, or Computer Science I, CSCI 117, and Probability and Statistics, STAT 314, are strongly recommended.

In addition to the cognate, a minor is required and must be approved in consultation with the academic advisor.

Concentration: Geology

Career Pattern: Earth Science

The earth science program has two curricula. One, technical curriculum, is designed for those desiring a general background in earth science. The second, Earth Science for Teachers, is for those planning to teach the earth sciences.

The technical curriculum requires a minimum of 34 semester hours. Two minors are required, one of which must be in Chemistry, Physics, or Biology. The second minor will be selected by the student and approved by the major academic advisor.

Required courses (16-19 hours)

GEOL	201	Physical Geology*
GEOL	202	Historical Geology
GEOL	301	Oceanography
GEOL	304	Computer/Field Methods in Geology
GEOL	402	Geomorphic Regions of the United States
GEOL	405	Meteorology

Not required of students with an A or B in both GEOL 100 and GEOL 100L*

Electives to be chosen from the following (18 hours)*

GEOL	300	Mineralogy
ABAS	334	Soil
GEOL	400	Petrology and Petrography
GEOL	403	Invertebrate Paleontology
GEOL	407	Sedimentation and Stratigraphy
GEOL	408	Structural Geology
GEOL	409	Problems in Geology
GEOL	410	Geophysical Prospecting
GEOL	411	Earth Geophysics
GEOL	412	Environmental Geology
GEOL	413	Hydrogeology
GEOL	415	Environmental Applications in Hydrogeology

22 hours if GEOL 201 not taken*

Concentration: Geology

Career Pattern: Earth Science for Teachers

The Earth Science for Teachers curriculum requires 64 hours and is for those desiring to teach earth science in the secondary schools.

Required for Major (30) hours

22 Required Hours:

GEOL	201	Physical Geology
GEOL	202	Historical Geology
GEOG	233	Physical Geography
GEOL	340	C or D Field Course
GEOL	405	Meteorology
ASTR	340	Fundamentals of Astrophysics

Remaining hours to be selected from University General Studies program

Additional 27 hours required:

CHEM 111, 111L, and 112, 112L OR
CHEM 121, 121L, and 122, 122L
PHYS 231 and 233 and 232 and 234
BIOL 111 and 112
MATH 142 (may also be included in General Studies)

Eight (8) hours of electives to be chosen from:

GEOL	300	Mineralogy
GEOL	301	Oceanography
GEOL	400	Petrology and Petrography
GEOL	402	Geomorphic Regions of the United States
GEOL	403	Invertebrate Paleontology
GEOL	407	Sedimentation and Stratigraphy
GEOL	408	Structural Geology
GEOL	412	Environmental Geology
GEOL	413	Hydrogeology
GEOG	431	Resource Management and Conservation
GEOG	449	Remote Sensing
ABAS	334	Soil

One minor must be in Secondary Education. The second minor is chosen by the student and approved by the major academic advisor.

Minor in Geology/Earth Science

The minor in Geology/Earth Science requires GEOL 201 (or GEOL 100 and 100L with a grade of A or B) and GEOL 202 plus 10-14 additional hours at the 300 level or above.

Minor in Remote Sensing

The minor in Remote Sensing consists of 20 semester hours to be taken in the sequence listed below:

GEOG	233	Physical Geography
GEOG	449	Remote Sensing
GEOG	451	Laboratory Problems in Remote Sensing
GEOG	452	Image Interpretation
GEOG	453	Geographic Information Systems

The 11 hours of departmental core requirements should be completed.

Students electing to pursue the Remote Sensing minor should consult with the director, division of geography, because of specialized requirements and the need to prearrange for use of satellite imagery facilities.

Courses in Geography [GEOG]

Basic Courses

200 Introduction to Regional Geography. Three credits. A nontechnical examination of world regions and problems resulting from the geographic environment.

233 Physical Geography. Four credits. The physical earth as the home of humans. The global earth in space, tools of the discipline, the atmosphere, the hydrosphere, and the biosphere. Field trips may be required. Three hours lecture and two hours laboratory per week.

312 Geography of Tennessee. Three credits. Focuses on the diverse physical and human landscapes of the state. Topics covered include weather and climate, landforms, vegetation and soils, population patterns and trends, economic activities (including agricultural and geographical perspectives on social and environmental issues).

Regional Geography

340 A, B Field Course. Four credits each. Supervised study in some geographical area, preceded by classroom preview and concluded by a time of evaluation. Emphasis on natural and cultural elements of the environment, with special attention directed toward the pattern of human occupancy. For fees and specific credit, consult the director, division of geography.

341 Geography of the United States and Canada. Three credits. Natural, cultural, and geographic environment of these regions.

342 Geography of Latin America. Three credits. Geographic regions of Mexico, Central America, the West Indies, and South America.

343 Geography of Europe. Three credits. General distribution of natural and cultural features of Europe followed by a detailed study of the regions and countries of the southern, central, and northwestern parts of the continent.

344 Geography of Asia. Three credits. Survey of the entire continent followed by a detailed study of the geographic regions outside the former Soviet Union with special emphasis on the Indian Realm, China, and Japan.

345 Geography of Australia and Oceania. Three credits. Physical and cultural geography of Australia, New Zealand, and the islands of the Southwest Pacific.

346 Geography of the Former Soviet Union. Three credits. Analysis of the natural, cultural, and human-use regions of the former Soviet Union.

347 Geography of Africa. Three credits. Survey of the physical and cultural features of Africa, followed by a detailed study of the Geographic regions of the continent.

450 Geography of the Middle East. Three credits. An analysis of the problems, issues, and theories involved in understanding the physical, cultural, and regional geography of the area.

Topical Courses

428 Special Problems and Topics in Geography. One to six credits. (Variable credit.) Prerequisite: Must have equivalent of a minor in Geography. Research participation or guided readings in a particular area or topic appropriate to the student's interest and professional objectives.

430 Military Geography. One credit. An examination of geography as applied to the conduct of military forces in pursuing and securing national objectives.

431 Resource Management and Conservation. Three credits. Current problems related to intelligent use and management of environmental resources.

432 Economic Geography. Three credits. Relationship of the physical factors of the environment to the productive occupations of humans and the distribution of products.

433 Political Geography. Three credits. Significance of geographical factors in understanding political relationships within and among nations; spatial implications of political decision-making processes.

434 Historical Geography. Three credits. Prerequisite: GEOG 200 or permission from instructor. The changing human geography of the United States during four centuries of settlement and development. Emphasis on changing population patterns as well as patterns of urban and rural settlement.

436 Cultural Geography. Three credits. Prerequisite: GEOG 200 or permission of instructor. Description and explanation of spatial patterns and ecological relationships in human culture. Emphasis on "reading" the cultural landscapes.

437 Urban Geography. Three credits. An introduction to the development of towns, cities, and associated urban areas. Environmental problems also examined. Classroom analysis of various theories of urban development and data collected by field work.

438 Cartography. Four credits. General knowledge of the field including familiarity with the techniques and tools of professional cartography and graphics. Selected lectures, class discussions, and a series of map construction assignments. Three hours lecture and two hours laboratory per week.

447 Rural Settlement. Three credits. Prerequisite: GEOG 200 or permission of instructor. A geographical analysis of forms, structures, and distribution of rural settlements in distinctive parts of the earth based upon their origin, function, and development. Special emphasis in analyzing rural settlements of middle Tennessee.

448 Recreational Geography. Three credits. A geographical analysis of natural and cultural factors influencing use of space for recreational purposes. Emphasis given to recreational land use in the United States and contemporary problems and conflicts. Lectures and field problems.

449 Remote Sensing. Four credits. The various vehicles of remote sensing such as radar, satellite imagery, and infrared data. Use of data in preparation of maps and application to land use and environmental problems examined. Three hours lecture and two hours laboratory per week.

451 Laboratory Problems in Remote Sensing. Four credits. Computer processing of selected satellite imagery. Laboratory will provide practical experience through design, execution, and completion of an applied remote sensing project.

452 Image Interpretation. Four credits. Principles, methods, and techniques of image interpretation, including maps, satellite data, and aerial photos.

453 Geographic Information Systems. Four credits. Lecture and laboratory work relative to computer-manipulated geographic data base. Laboratory work will involve experience in practical application of a geographic information system (GIS) to problem solving.

454 Geography of Native Americans. Three credits. Prerequisite: GEOG 200 or permission of instructor. Lecture and field exercise format viewing America's native population from a geographic perspective. Native Americans will be examined geo-archeologically using geo-techniques to explore their past, present, and future; cultural ecologically—their symbiotic relationship with their surroundings; and through their economic and resource development—how they utilize natural and cultural resources that are presently on tribal lands.

455 Global Issues. Three credits. An examination of current global issues in the context of their geographic environment. Emphasis on geographic factors impacting those issues. Topics examined vary from year to year.

456 Archeo-Geography. Three credits. Survey of geographical, archeological, and historical techniques used in spatial and temporal interpretation of past cultural geographical landscapes.

457 A, B Internship in Geography. Three credits each. Prerequisites: Major or minor in geography; 15 hours of geography/geology with junior or senior standing; permission of employer and department. Practical experience for students in a professional setting relating to geographic work. Counted as a free elective, not part of major or minor requirements. After completion of one internship, A or B, the other may be taken (total of 6 credits).

477B Field Course in Historical Archaeology. Three credits. (Same as HIST 477B and ANTH 477B.) Prerequisites: HIST 477A; ANTH 320; or permission of instructor. Archaeological resources and procedures and the interpretation of historical evidence undertaken at a field archaeological site.

Courses in Geology [GEOL]

100 Introduction to Earth Science. Three credits. The earth and its relationship to its space and environment emphasized. Forces and processes which combine to mold the face of the earth and its atmosphere, as well as the internal constitution of the earth. Three hours lecture. GEOL 100L must be taken concurrently. Together, GEOL 100 and 100L meet a 4-hour science requirement for General Studies Area IV-A.

100L Introduction to Earth Science Lab. One credit. Laboratory to accompany GEOL 100.

201 Physical Geology. Four credits. The origin, composition, and structure of the solid earth: rock-forming minerals; igneous, sedimentary, and metamorphic rocks; earthquakes and plate tectonics; surface processes; geologic time. Identification and description of minerals and rocks in hand sample. Use of topographic and geologic maps. Three hours lecture and two hours laboratory per week.

202 Historical Geology. Four credits. Prerequisites: GEOL 100 and 100L or GEOL 201. The major divisions of geologic time with emphasis on earth movements, sea fluctuations, life of the time, and the effect these have had on our present environment. Close attention to the development of the physiographic regions of North America, which are correlated with chronologically-similar events in other parts of the world. Topographic maps, geologic maps, and fossil animals and plants. Three hours lecture and two hours laboratory per week.

300 Mineralogy. Five credits. Prerequisites: GEOL 100 and 100L or 201 plus CHEM 121 and 122 or permission of instructor. Introduces crystallography and crystal chemistry. Physical and chemical properties of silicate and non-silicate mineral groups. Principles of thermodynamics and kinetics as related to the formation of minerals. Examination of the common rock-forming minerals in hand sample and thin section. Four hours lecture and two hours laboratory per week.

301 Oceanography. Three credits. Prerequisites: GEOL 100 and 100L or 201 or GEOG 233 or consent of instructor. Introduction to the physiography, structures, and sediments of the ocean floor; to coastal and oceanic environments; to the nature of sea water, currents, waves, and tides. Geological processes, geophysical studies, and oceanographic instrumentation discussed.

304 Computer/Field Methods in Geology. Four credits. Prerequisites: Knowledge of trigonometry; GEOL 100 and 100L or 201 and 202; CSCI 100; major or minor in geology/earth science; or consent of instructor. Introduces computer use and field measurements in geology. Field topics include tape and compass surveys; triangulations; orientation of rock strata; map preparation; field location with GPS receivers. Extensive use of personal computers for processing field data; map contouring; geologic illustrations; lettering and cartography. Four to six hours lecture/laboratory/field work per week.

316 Geologic Literature and Report Writing. Two credits. Prerequisites: CSCI 100; GEOL 100 and 100L or 201; at least 8 semester hours of upper-division geology courses. Acquisition of geological data from traditional library and database sources. Preparation of geologic field and laboratory reports in addition to professional reports and papers included.

340 C, D Field Course. Four credits each. Supervised study in some geological area preceded by classroom preview and concluded by a time of evaluation. Emphasis on the natural and physical elements of the environment, with special attention directed toward the geomorphology and geology of specific areas. For fees and specific credit, consult the director, division of geology.

400 Petrology and Petrography. Four credits. Prerequisite: GEOL 300. Igneous, sedimentary, and metamorphic rocks. Theories of formation and evolution based upon mineralogical and geochemical evidence. Examination and classification of rocks in hand sample and thin section. Three hours lecture and two hours laboratory per week.

402 Geomorphic Regions of the United States. Four credits. Prerequisites: GEOL 100 and 100L or 201 and 202. Origin, regional distribution, and geomorphic features and history of landforms of the United States. Students will be required to analyze maps, structure sections, and aerial photography to determine geomorphic forms and the forces and processes that produced these forms. Three hours lecture and two hours laboratory per week.

403 Invertebrate Paleontology. Four credits. Invertebrate and microscopic animal life of the past, including recently-preserved representatives and their ancient fossilized ancestors. Numerous field trips to local fossil-collecting sites. Designed to aid in the preparation of earth science teachers, geologists, and biologists. Three hours lecture and two hours laboratory per week.

405 Meteorology. Three credits. Prerequisites: GEOL 100 and 100L or 201 or GEOG 233 or consent of instructor (PHYS 231 or 235 and CHEM 121 recommended). Physical laws as they relate to the atmosphere, atmospheric processes, and their effects on air masses, fronts, and atmospheric circulation; dynamics of the atmosphere and its relationship to the hydrosphere.

406 Principles of Geoscience. Four credits. Includes topics from geology, astronomy, meteorology, and oceanography. Specifically designed to aid in the preparation of earth science teachers for the public schools. Three hours lecture and two hours laboratory per week.

407 Sedimentation and Stratigraphy. Four credits. Prerequisites: GEOL 100 and 100L or 201 or consent of instructor. Sedimentary rocks, the processes of sedimentation, the alteration of sediments through time, and examination of resulting stratigraphic units. Designed for geoscience majors and those with interests in soil mechanics and civil engineering. Three hours lecture and two hours laboratory per week.

408 Structural Geology. Three to four credits. (Variable credit.) Prerequisites: Knowledge of trigonometry; GEOL 100 and 100L or 201 and 304; GEOL 202 recommended. Orientation and deformation of rock. Geometric, analytical, and statistical solutions to structural problems. Emphasis on three-dimensional visualization, problem solving, geological map interpretation, and the mechanics of deformation. Lecture and laboratory.

409 Problems in Geology. One to three credits. (Variable credit.) Prerequisites: A minimum of 12 semester hours of geology (excluding GEOL 100 and 100L) at least 6 hours of which must be upper division or consent of instructor. A problem-solving course. An independent research-oriented project commensurate with the student's interests and qualifications. May be repeated up to a maximum of 6 hours.

410 Geophysical Prospecting. Four credits. Prerequisites: GEOL 304; MATH 122; PHYS 231 or 235; or consent of instructor (PHYS 232 or 236, GEOL 100 and 100L or 201, and MATH 221 also recommended). Survey of seismic, gravimetric, and magnetic/electrical exploration methods. An applied course covering some elementary theory, basic field practice, computation fundamentals, interpretation techniques. Three hours lecture and two hours laboratory per week.

411 Earth Geophysics. Three credits. Prerequisites: MATH 122 and 221; PHYS 231 or 235; or consent of instructor (PHYS 232 or 236 and GEOL 100 and 100L or 201 recommended). Introduction to the earth's seismicity, magnetism, heat, and radioactivity. History and mechanics of the earth-moon system, earth rotation, and oscillation discussed.

412 Environmental Geology. Four credits. Prerequisites: GEOL 100 and 100L or 201 or GEOG 233 or consent of instructor. Application of geologic information to minimize possible environmental degradation and maximize utilization of resources in the natural and modified environment; local examples and field trips. Topics include engineering properties of earth materials, natural hazard prediction and reduction, water supply, solid and hazardous wastes, mineral resources, global change, land-use planning, environmental impact analysis. Three hours lecture and two hours laboratory per week.

413 Hydrogeology. Four credits. Prerequisites: GEOL 100 and 100L or 201 and MATH 122 or consent of instructor. Basic processes and measurement of the hydrologic cycle, including precipitation, evaporation, surface runoff, stream flow, soil moisture, and ground water. Emphasis on ground water including geology of occurrence, principles of flow, conceptual models of regional flow, chemistry and quality, well hydraulics, aquifer characteristics, resource development, detection of pollutants, and contaminant transport. Lecture and laboratory.

414 Inorganic Geochemistry. Three credits. Prerequisites: CHEM 122 and GEOL 400. Introduces the principles of inorganic geochemistry. Geochemistry of the earth and solar system, isotopic geochronometers, thermodynamics and rates of geochemical processes, chemical weathering, chemical compositions of surface and groundwater. Three hours lecture per week.

415 Environmental Applications of Hydrogeology. Three credits. Prerequisite: GEOL 413. An advanced course in hydrogeology that emphasizes applied methods for assessing hazardous and solid waste facilities and contaminated ground water remediation techniques. Included will be site characterization methods, ground water sampling procedures, and monitoring well installation techniques. Three hours lecture per week.

416 Geologic Remote Sensing. Two to three credits. Prerequisite: GEOL 100 or 201 or permission of instructor. Application of satellite and airborne images to geologic and hydrologic problems. Remote sensing techniques include visible/infrared and radar imaging. Problems examined include petroleum and mineral exploration, earthquake and volcanic hazards, groundwater transport, flooding, and other topics of current interest. Some applications in planetary geology discussed. Includes practical experience with image processing and image interpretation. Two or three hours lecture/laboratory per week.

457 C, D Internship in Geology. Three credits each. Prerequisites: Major or minor in geology; 15 hours of geology/geography with junior or senior standing; permission of employer and department. Practical experience for students in a professional setting relating to geologic work. Counted as a free elective, not as a part of major or minor requirement. After completion of one internship, C or D, the other may be taken (total of six credits).

458 Seminar in Geology. One credit. Prerequisite: Senior standing in geology. A reading and discussion seminar in which current topics in the geological sciences are examined to broaden the major's knowledge of the scope and literature of the discipline.

Some departmental courses may be accepted in either concentration; others are accepted only in one concentration. Substitutions are made at the discretion of the department chair in consultation with the academic advisor.

Graduate Study

The department offers minors in Geography and Earth Science/Geology at the graduate level. The list of available courses offered can be found in the Graduate Catalog.

Honors College

The Department of Geography and Geology offers the following courses in Honors: GEOG 200H, GEOL 100H.

Department of History

Thaddeus Smith, Chair
Peck Hall 223

Bakari, Beemon, Brookshire, Chao, Colvin, Conard, Crawford, Gulliford, Hoffschwelle, Huhta, Hunt, Jones, Leone, McWatters, Messier, Moser, Myers-Shirk, Renn, Rolater, Rowe, Rupprecht, Scherzer, Stahl, Staples, Taylor, Williams

Courses in the Department of History are designed to meet the general studies needs of all students as well as to provide a solid foundation for those planning to pursue careers in history, law, journalism, business, and other fields.

The department offers the following programs: Bachelor of Arts degree in History and Bachelor of Arts degree in History (teaching). The department also offers a minor in History.

Interdisciplinary minors coordinated through the Department of History include Medieval Studies, Southern Studies, Twentieth-Century European Studies, and American Culture.

General Requirements

All students seeking a degree from the University must complete 6 semester hours in General Studies, Area III-A, selected from HIST 201, 202, and 366. Junior-level standing (or above) is required for 366; sophomore-level standing (or above) is recommended for 201 and 202. For General Studies, Area II-B, one course of Western Civilization (171, 172) or of World Civilizations (191, 192) may be taken (see pages 58-59).

In all curricular listings, (Area __) refers to the General Studies requirements as outlined on pages 58-59.

Major in History (B.A.)

A major in History consists of 36 semester hours, 24 of which must be on the upper-division level. The courses must consist of 171 or 191; 172 or 192; 201; 202; 390 (Historian's Craft); one course selected from each of the following areas: global, European, and U.S.; and four upper-division elective courses. The student must also fulfill all the other requirements for the B.A. degree (see page 56).

Minor in History

A minor in History requires 21 semester hours, which must include HIST 201 and HIST 202, a minimum of 6 semester hours in non-United States courses, and a minimum of 9 semester hours at the upper-division level.

Major in History (B.A.) with Teacher Licensure

A major in History with teacher licensure consists of 36 semester hours, 24 of which must be on the upper-division level. The courses must consist of HIST 191, 192, 201, 202, 390 (Historian's Craft); one course selected from each of the following areas: global, European, and U.S.; and four upper-division elective courses. The student must also fulfill all the other requirements for the B.A. degree (see page 56).

Teacher Licensure

Students seeking a license to teach history in secondary schools (grades 7-12) must complete (1) a major in History, (2) the Enhanced General Education Requirements (these include and add to the General Studies requirements), and (3) the professional education requirements.

Enhanced General Education Requirements: 60 hours

ENGL 111, 112 - 6 hours
Foreign Language 211 - 3 hours
ENGL 211; ENGL 221 or 223 or 224 - 6 hours
HIST 191, 201, 202 - 9 hours
GEOG 200 - 3 hours
BIOL 100; GEOL 100 or SCI 100 - 8 hours
MATH (see General Studies for options) - 3 hours
PHED (see General Studies for options) - 4 hours
Emphasis in Economics, Geography, or Political Science -12 hours
General Studies Electives (selected in consultation with advisor) - 6 hours

Professional Education Requirements (Minor)

Students must contact the minor advisor in professional education for approval of appropriate courses. (For specific procedures and additional requirements for teacher licensure, see page 164.)

Interdisciplinary Minors

Interdisciplinary minors are open to all students in the University. A student may take no more than 6 hours in a single department toward an interdisciplinary minor unless he or she surpasses the required 18 hours necessary for that minor. A student may earn no more than 3 hours credit toward a minor in the same department or discipline in which he/she is taking a major, and no course may be counted for both major and minor credit. Students must fulfill all departmental prerequisites for any course within an interdisciplinary minor.

Minor in American Culture

Advisor: Susan Myers-Shirk

To provide students with a comprehensive view of American culture and intellectual life, the minor in American Culture requires HIST 468 (481 may be substituted) and ENGL 331, 332, or 480 with 12 additional semester hours of upper-division courses from the following departments: Art; English; Geography and Geology; History; Human Sciences; Journalism; Music; Philosophy; Political Science; Psychology; Radio-Television/ Photography; Recording Industry; Sociology and Anthropology; and Social Work. See advisor for list of approved courses.

Minor in Medieval Studies

Advisor: Ronald A. Messier

The minor in Medieval Studies requires 18 hours selected from the courses listed below:

ENGL	311	English Literature: The Medieval Period
ENGL	340	European Literature to 1400
ENGL	461	Chaucer: The Canterbury Tales
FREN	430	Topics in Medieval and Renaissance French Literature
HIST	404	Renaissance Europe
HIST	410	The Medieval Mediterranean World

UH	460H	Senior Interdisciplinary Seminar Topic: The Medieval Experience

Minor in Southern Studies

Advisor: Robert Hunt

The Southern Studies minor requires 18 semester hours from the courses listed below. There are no prerequisites or core courses. Students may take no more than three courses from any one of the participating departments and must take at least one course from three of the five participating departments. No course taken in the Southern Studies minor can count for credit in a student's major.

ENGL	333	Southern Literature
ENGL	334	The Black Experience in Modern Afro-American Literature
ENGL	401	Folklore

Courses in History [HIST]

151 Survey of African-American History and Culture to 1865. Three credits. (Same as AAS 151.) The role of African-Americans in establishing and shaping the American nation. Covers their historical development and contributions to American art, music, literature, and religion.

152 Survey of African-American History and Culture Since 1865. Three credits. (Same as AAS 152.) The role of African-Americans in shaping the American nation and creating a twentieth-century racial identity. Covers their historical development and examines their contributions to American art, music, literature, and religion.

171 Western Civilization. Three credits. A survey of Western humanity from the earliest cultures to 1715. May be used to sat- isfy a General Studies II-B requirement. Student may not take both 171 and 191 for credit. HIST 171 is NOT a prerequisite for HIST 172.

172 Western Civilization. Three credits. A survey of Western humanity since 1715. May be used to satisfy a General Studies II-B requirement. Student may not take both 172 and 192 for credit.

191 World Civilizations to 1500. Three credits. A global approach to basic history, with cultural interchange as a major thematic focus; reasons for the rise and decline of civilizations. May be used to satisfy a General Studies II-B requirement. Graduate Study

The department offers the Master of Arts and Doctor of Arts degrees. Requirements for these degrees and a list of the courses offered for graduate credit are published in the Graduate Catalog.

Department of Music

Roger Kugler, Chair
Wright Music Building 150

Bills, Boone, Brecht, Bundage, Davila, D. Foy, L. Foy, Hansbrough, Harb, Isley-Farmer, Jolley, Landry, Linton, Loucky, Murphy, Perkins, Petrescu, Pigg, Schaefer, Shapira, Shearon, Smith, Tipps, Trujillo, Waldecker, Wells, Yelverton

The purposes of the Department of Music are to prepare professional musicians; to prepare teachers of music for elementary and secondary schools; to prepare individuals for careers in music-related business and industry; to offer music courses and musical participation to students whose studies are concentrated in fields other than music; to enrich the music life of the University, and to provide a leadership role in the region by actively participating and collaborating with those individuals that share mutual interest in supporting music and musicians.

The department offers programs leading to the Bachelor of Music degree. Students may choose from seven concentrations within this major—Instrumental Music Education, Vocal/General Music Education K-12, Voice Performance, Instrumental Performance, Music Industry, Theory-Composition, and Jazz Studies. Minors in Music and Music Industry are also available.

The MTSU Department of Music has been an accredited baccalaureate and graduate degree granting institutional member of the National Association of Schools of Music since 1970. The Bachelor of Music degree programs with concentrations in Instrumental Music and Vocal/General Music K-12 are accredited by the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE).

Requirements for Admission to the Bachelor of Music Degree

To be admitted into the Bachelor of Music degree, all entering students must pass an audition before the faculty on their major instrument or voice. Students who do not pass the audition may be allowed, at the discretion of the faculty, to enroll in private music lessons or class instruction for one semester only. At the end of the semester the student must re-audition for admission into the program.

In addition, all prospective Bachelor of Music majors are required to take the Music Theory and Aural Skills Diagnostic Exam (contact the Department of Music Office, Wright Music Building, Room 150, (615) 898-2469). This exam determines appropriate placement into the required music-theory and aural-skills courses.

Students seeking a Bachelor of Music degree should refer to The Department of Music Undergraduate Student Handbook that serves as the official document of the Department of Music concerning specific additional degree requirements, departmental policies, and procedures. It is essential that all music majors consult their advisors each semester.

In all curricular Listings, (Area __) refers to the General Studies requirements as outlined on pages 58-59.

All Bachelor of Music Concentrations Require the Following:

General Studies Requirements - 40 credits
(Area II-B substitution MUTH 111 and 112)

Teacher Licensure

Students seeking a license to teach music in the public schools must complete (1) a major in music following the concentration in either Instrumental Music Education or Vocal/General K-12 Music Education, (2) minor in professional education, (3) the General Studies Program, and (4) the Enhanced General Education Requirements. Students must contact a minor advisor in professional education for additional details and requirements relating to Teacher Licensure (see page 164).

Jury Examinations

All music majors and music minors are required to participate in jury examinations in their primary performing area. Non-music majors registered for private lessons may be required to perform a jury examination at the discretion of the instructor. Jury examinations are held to measure the student's progress at the conclusion of each semester. Those students who have presented, and passed, their senior recital during the semester may be excused from a jury examination.

Professional Portfolio

All music majors must present a professional portfolio for review by the music faculty after their terminal degree recital and prior to the final week of their last semester. For Instrumental and Vocal/General Music Education students the portfolio must be presented prior to the student teaching block. The portfolio will be an organized collection of documents, letters, papers, pictures, compositions, and audio/video tape that presents the individual's personal and professional achievements in a comprehensive, concrete way. The professional portfolio will be periodically reviewed by the student's academic advisor.

Courses in Music [MUSI]

101 Recital Attendance. No credit. Attendance at a minimum number of recitals and concerts given by students, faculty, and guest artists. Six semesters required for undergraduate music majors (see departmental handbook for details). May be repeated multiple times. Pass/Fail.

151 Class Voice I. One credit. Basic vocal techniques including posture, breath control, tone quality, and diction. Italian and English diction, Vaccai studies, and moderately easy song repertory.

152 Class Voice II. One credit. A continuation of the vocal techniques in Class Voice I with addition of vocal flexibility, uniform tone quality in extending the voice range, interpretation of songs, and stage deportment in public performance. Further study of Vaccai, Italian art songs, and English songs.

153, 154 Class Piano I, II. One credit each. Acquaints beginning piano students with the keyboard. Includes such skills as note reading, basic chords for harmonization of melodies, improvisation, basic exercises for development of coordination and technique, transposition, repertory, and sight reading. Taken in sequence.

155 Class Guitar I. One credit. Beginning guitar playing, teaching basic techniques through chording and melodic elements.

156 Class Guitar II. One credit. Continuation of skills and concepts sought in Class Guitar I with emphasis on more advanced playing and repertory study.

253, 254 Class Piano III, IV. One credit each. Continuation of skills and concepts taught in Class Piano II. Emphasis on standard piano repertory in addition to sight reading and functional piano skills.

266 Jazz Guitar Lab. One credit. Prerequisites: MUTH 111 and 112, basic proficiency in reading music, and consent of instructor. Recommended: Class Guitar I or one semester of private instruction. Provides minimum background in performing popular guitar styles in an ensemble or studio situation. Course may be taken more than one semester for credit.

267 Jazz Piano Lab. Two credits. Prerequisite: MUSI 154. For beginning jazz keyboard students. Study of the harmonic language of jazz, chord voicing, keyboard techniques, interpretation of melodies, and improvisation.

303 Performance and Pedagogy. One credit each semester. Solo and chamber music of vocal and instrumental literature and pedagogy in a master class meeting each week.

314 Basic Conducting. Two credits. Prerequisites: MUTH 111, 112, 211, 212. Interpretation of scores, fundamental diagrams with and without baton, terminology, and stage deportment.

315 Advanced Instrumental Conducting. Two credits. Prerequisite: MUSI 314. Further development of techniques, especially those relevant to choral and instrumental conducting. Laboratory experiences with large musical groups; conducting with records to develop awareness of musical texture, form, and general musicianship in all areas as related to conducting.

316 Advanced Choral Conducting. Two credits. Prerequisite: MUSI 314. Further development of conducting techniques relative to the choral area. Emphasis on choral style and literature, scope and sequence of the historical perspective, and major developments in the choral art.

427 Music Internship. Three to six credits. Prerequisite: Permission of instructor. Examination and experiences in music industry, music education, or instrumental or choral conducting. Music industry may include songwriting and the creative aspects of music, studio production, music publishing, and music merchandising. Music education may include public and private school settings, State Board of Education arts consulting, and music textbook consulting. Conducting may include school and church conducting, music publishing, and private or public orchestras and/or choirs.

457 The Body Intelligent: A Study of the Alexander Technique. Two credits. (Same as SPEE 457.) For those interested in improving ease and freedom of movement, balance, support, flexibility, and coordination in daily activities.

Courses in Applied Music [MUAP]

Lower-Division Private Instruction

Private instruction is available to qualified students on all orchestral and band instruments, voice, guitar, keyboards and composition. Those students enrolling in private instruction for the first time audition to determine if they are adequately prepared for college-level study. To arrange for an audition, students should contact the Department of Music office. One-credit lessons are one one-half hour lesson per week. Two-credit lessons are for music majors only and are for one one-hour lesson per week. A corequisite enrollment in an appropriate music ensemble is required for students registered for private instruction in voice, brass, woodwinds, orchestral strings, and percussion. Private instruction course numbers will be repeated for each semester of study.

Students who are not prepared for such private instruction as stated above should register for class instruction, e.g.; Class Piano, Class Voice. If class instruction is not available, students will be allowed to enroll in private instruction for one semester after which a faculty jury examination must be passed to continue private instruction. Private instruction course numbers will be repeated each semester of study. A maximum of four semesters of lower-division private instruction may be applied to a music degree.

255A Harpsichord/Continuo. Two credits.
256A Viola. Two credits.

Upper-Division Private Instruction

Promotion to the upper division does not follow automatically after the completion of four semesters of courses in the lower division, but is made only upon the successful completion of the Upper-Division Jury. This jury, normally given at the end of the sophomore year to music majors, is conducted by the Department of Music. Recommendation to upper division is made only if the student's proficiency as a performer bears promise of future artistic qualities as a soloist. It is at this level that the music major normally begins preparation for his/her junior and/or senior recital. A student who fails to pass the Upper-Division Jury must continue lower-division private instruction until the jury is passed. Private instruction course numbers will be repeated for each semester of study.

A one-credit lesson is one one-half hour lesson per week. Two- and three-credit lessons are for music majors only and are for one one-hour lesson per week. A corequisite enrollment in an appropriate music ensemble is required for students registered for private instruction in voice, brass, woodwinds, orchestral strings, and percussion.

After successful completion of the Upper-Division Jury, a student must be enrolled for a minimum of three semesters before being allowed to give the senior recital. Students must pass the upper-division performance jury before being allowed to student teach.

Fees are $110 for a one-hour lesson and $55 for a half-hour lesson.

Graduate Study

The department offers the Master of Arts degree. Requirements for this degree and a list of the courses offered for graduate credit are published in the Graduate Catalog.

Department of Philosophy

Ron Bombardi, Chair
James Union Building 302

Hinz, Hood, Johnson, Magada-Ward, Principe, Purcell

The Department of Philosophy offers courses intended to acquaint students with philosophical methods, systems, and problems, as well as supply a philosophical background for graduate study in philosophy or related areas. Courses in religious studies are intended to acquaint students with the history and the beliefs of the major religions of the world. Programs in the department lead to a Bachelor of Arts degree with a major in Philosophy. Minors are offered in Philosophy and Religious Studies.

In all curricular listings, (Area __) refers to the General Studies requirements as outlined on pages 58-59.

Major in Philosophy

The major in Philosophy consists of 30 semester hours of philosophy courses including PHIL 211, 401, and 402.

All students pursuing a major within this department must complete the General Studies requirements. Following is a suggested pattern of study for the first two years; however, consultation with the assigned advisor is necessary before each registration.

Department of Political Science

John R. Vile, Chair

Byrnes, Carleton, Langenbach, Livingston, McDaniel, Perez-Reilly, Sloan, Tesi, Turner, Vernardakis, Willis

Courses in the Department of Political Science meet the needs of many students: those interested in public service, private business, or professional careers; those who wish to go to law school; those interested in international relations and foreign service employment in the public or private sector; and those interested in teaching government and social studies in secondary schools.

To accommodate these needs and interests within the objectives of liberal education, the department offers programs leading to the Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Science. The major areas and appropriate degrees follow:

1. a Political Science major (B.A. or B.S.) with either a
   a. general focus, or
   b. Public Administration concentration, or
   c. Pre-law concentration;
2. an International Relations major (B.S.)

Minors are offered in Political Science, International Relations, Public Administration, and Paralegal Studies. An interdisciplinary minor in Urban Studies is coordinated by the department.

All students at the University must fulfill the General Studies requirements. These courses are primarily in the fields of English, history, science, PHED, and mathematics. Following are suggested curricula, but students should study the requirements carefully and consult with their advisors on those courses.

In all curricular listings, (Area __) refers to the General Studies requirements as outlined on pages 58-59.

Concentration: Public Administration

The public administration concentration is for those who seek an administrative career in government or public service agencies. A combination of general political science courses, core public administration courses, pertinent political science electives, and courses in related disciplines provides a sound background for an administrative career. Included in the major must be some work in five of the six political science subfields. Required courses are P S 122, 150, 400, 480 (general); P S 325, 429 (core); nine semester hours from P S 316, 326, 328, 344, 459, 463 (core); and six or more semester hours of course work in political science relevant to public administration and the student's interests. In addition the student must complete INFS 310 and ECON 241, 242. ACTG 211, 212 are recommended. Recommended minors include Accounting, Business Administration, Criminal Justice Administration, Economics, Finance, English, Information Systems, Psychology, and Sociology.

Concentration: Pre-law

The Pre-law concentration is designed for the student who plans to attend law school. A combination of core political science courses and courses in related disciplines has been found to provide a sound background for law school. Some law schools will not accept any professional or technical courses as part of their minimum requirement. It is essential that the student consult with his or her advisor in instances where such courses will be taken. In addition to meeting the basic requirements for the Political Science major, the pre-law student must enroll in ECON 241 (or 242); PHIL 211; SPEE 321 (or 220); and ENGL 353 (or 350).

Department of Social Work

Charles Frost, Chair
Peck Hall 309

Borasky, Fontanesi-Seime, Lancaster, Lee, Rucker, Sanborn, Shaw-McEwen, Taylor

The social work profession is dedicated to helping all people develop their strengths, to helping build a more economically and socially just society, to helping the world become a better place in which to raise our families. Student training is offered through class work and special student work experiences to demonstrate how to effectively relate to all types of people and to appreciate how emotional, social, economic, political, and spiritual forces influence the behavior of those we are helping.

The Social Work Department has a number of scholarships for majors and information about them can be obtained from the department.

Some social work courses are open to non-majors.

Major in Social Work

The major in Social Work leads to a Bachelor of Social Work (B.S.W.) degree which is accredited by the Council on Social Work Education. The program's primary objective is to prepare the student for beginning professional practice in social work. It also provides a foundation for students planning to pursue graduate study in social work.

Students who choose to pursue a major in Social Work must take a minimum of 60 hours including S W 257, 263, 300, 311, 312, 315, 316, 320, 458, 459, 465, 468, 469, and 470; and one of the following: S W 415, 443, 444, 462, 464, 472. Requirements also include SOC 101 and PSY 141. The student must earn a C or better in all courses in the major in order to graduate.

Minor Required of Social Work Majors

Social Work majors are required to have a minor of 18 hours. They may select any minor; however, it is suggested that they discuss with their advisors the advantages of certain minors.

Admission to the Social Work Program

All social work majors must be formally admitted to the Social Work Program in order to be admitted into the field work courses and to obtain a Bachelor of Social Work degree. Students who are not yet formally admitted will be identified as pre-social work majors.

1. Requirements for admission to the Social Work Program:
   a. completion of at least 60 semester hours toward a degree including at least 40 hours of General Studies requirements;
   b. completion of S W 257, Introduction to Social Work, and 3 additional hours in social work courses with a grade of C or better;
   c. an overall GPA of 2.00 for degree credit courses;
   d. completion of at least 40 hours of volunteer work in a social agency, hospital, or social service organization. A reference form will be utilized as documentation of performance. Full or part-time social work employment may be considered in lieu of volunteer work;
   e. possession of personal qualities consistent with social work values and ethics and the ability to relate to others with warmth and emotional stability.
2. Application procedure.Student must complete an application packet which consists of:
   a. application for Social Work major form;
   b. three reference forms, at least one of which is from an MTSU social work professor;
   c. personal essay on why a social work career has been chosen;
   d. current official University transcript.
3. Criteria for acceptance into the Social Work Program:
   a. submission of completed application packet by deadline date of the appropriate semester;
   b. judgment of satisfactory quality of essay and suitability for professional social work by Social Work Faculty Admissions Committee;
   c. satisfactory performance of required number of volunteer hours based on reference form;
   d. a majority of "above average" and "outstanding" ratings on reference forms.

In addition, acceptance into the Social Work program will be based upon the Social Work Faculty Admissions Committee's assessment of the student's potential for graduating with a B.S.W. degree and the student's interest and commitment to the pursuit of a career in the field of social services. Before any student is denied, the entire faculty must vote on the recommendation of the admissions committee.

Department of Sociology and Anthropology

Edward Kick, Chair

Aday, Amey, Austin, Breault, Canak, Carroll, Eller, Funk, Heller, Johnson, Nation, Pace, Schneller, Schrift, Smith, Wallace

The curricula of the Department of Sociology and Anthropology are designed to serve the general studies needs of all students, to offer training for careers in teaching and other applied fields, and to prepare students for graduate study in sociology, anthropology, and the applied social sciences.

Occupational fields include corrections, social research, teaching, personnel, industrial relations, journalism, applied anthropology, religion, gerontology, foreign service, and social and cultural research. Every attempt is made to assist the student in working toward specific career goals.

The department offers programs leading to a Bachelor of Science degree with majors in Anthropology or Sociology and a Bachelor of Arts in Sociology with concentrations in Sociology or Anthropology. Minors in Sociology, Anthropology, and Family Studies are available. Interdisciplinary minors in Archaeology, Asian Studies, and Native American Studies are coordinated by the department.

In all curricular listings, (Area __) refers to the General Studies requirements as outlined on pages 58-59.

Major in Sociology

To meet the requirements for the B.A. or B.S. degree, a student majoring in Sociology must take a minimum of 30 semester hours in sociology. Although a number of career path emphasis tracts are listed below, the decision to pursue a particular emphasis is optional. A major in Sociology may be obtained by taking 30 hours in sociology including SOC 101, 304, 305, 306, and 498. Students working toward the B.S. degree are required to complete two minors, one of which may be within the department. The faculty advisor should be consulted for the specific requirements of each emphasis program. Persons pursuing the B.A. degree should consult page 56 of this catalog for the requirements.

In order to graduate, all students must complete, with the approval of their advisors, the General Studies requirements.

Possible Career Paths in Sociology

Students majoring in Sociology have the option of selecting a career path within the major. In addition to the required courses (SOC 101, 304, 305, 306, and 498), students may choose from the following possibilities.

1. applied social research: SOC 201, 401 , 452; ANTH 483; 6 hours of electives
2. corrections: SOC 201 or 325; 430, 454; 321 or 461; 391 or 490; 3 hours of electives
3. aging studies: SOC 260, 402, 403, 404, 408, 409, 490; 3 hours of electives
4. industrial sociology: SOC 250, 410, 450, 452, 456; PSY 332
5. family studies: SOC 250, 405, 414, 450, 451; ANTH 474; 6 hours of electives
6. personnel management: SOC 250, 410, 450, 456; 6 hours of electives

Interdisciplinary Minors

Interdisciplinary minors are open to all students in the University. A student may take no more than 6 hours in a single department toward an interdisciplinary minor unless he or she surpasses the required hours necessary for that minor. A student may take no more than 3 hours credit toward a minor in the same department or discipline in which he/she is taking a major, and no course may be counted for both major and minor credit. Students must fulfill all departmental prerequisites for any course within an interdisciplinary minor.

Archaeology Minor

Advisor: Kevin Smith

The minor in Archaeology draws upon the resources of Anthropology, Geography and Geology, and History to provide a comprehensive view of modern archaeological techniques, particularly in those disciplines involved with diachronic studies of human cultures. In consultation with the advisor and appropriate departmental advisors, students may pursue flexible elective tracks focusing on the application of archaeological methods and techniques in anthropology, geography, or history. The minor in Archaeology requires 19 credit hours, including 10 hours of required courses and 9 hours of general electives from the list below. Each student is required to take electives from at least two departments, and a selection from all three departments is encouraged.

Required Courses:

Graduate Study

The department offers the Master of Arts degree in Sociology. Requirements for this degree and a list of the courses offered for graduate credit are published in the Graduate Catalog.

Department of Speech and Theatre

Russell Church, Chair
Boutwell Dramatic Arts Building 205

Anderson, Brooks, Clark, Donnell, Fischer, Garrard, Halladay, Hancock, Hansen, Hillman, Johnson, Jones, Krueger, Lewis, McGilliard, Moore, Richards, Smith, Sniderman, Walker

Courses in the Department of Speech and Theatre are designed to meet the general studies needs of all students, to develop oral communication skills, to provide varied experiences in creativity, to heighten the appreciation of theatre as an art form, and to help solve communication problems among individuals and organizations.

The department offers a major in Speech and Theatre with concentrations in Speech Communication, Theatre, and Communication Disorders. Departmental programs lead to either a Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science degree. Minors in Speech and Theatre, Communication Disorders, Theatrical Design, and Dance are available. The department also participates in three interdisciplinary minors—Aging Studies, Health Care Services, and Entertainment Technology. In addition, the department offers three co-curricular programs—MTSU Debate, University Theatre, and MTSU Speech-Language and Hearing Clinic.

In all curricular listings, (Area __) refers to the General Studies requirements as outlined on pages 58-59.

Major in Speech and Theatre

The major in Speech and Theatre is designed to provide students with maximum opportunities to develop theoretical and practical appreciation of all phases of oral communication. For students following the Speech Communication or Theatre concentration, preparation is offered for the pursuit of graduate study in a number of fields or for entry into professions including secondary school teaching, professional theatre, and communication work in business, industry, and government. The Communication Disorders concentration prepares students to pursue graduate study in speech-language pathology or audiology, which is necessary for careers in school, clinical, private, and medical settings.

Transfer students may apply toward a major or minor in Speech and Theatre up to 12 semester hours of freshman and sophomore-level speech and theatre courses (100- and 200-level) taken at other accredited institutions provided the grade in each course is a C or better and provided each course is either equivalent to an MTSU course or is an acceptable elective in the speech and theatre disciplines. Upper-division speech and theatre courses taken at accredited institutions may be accepted for credit toward a major or minor in Speech and Theatre provided the grade in each course is a C or better and provided each course is either equivalent to an MTSU course or is an acceptable elective in the speech and theatre disciplines.

All students pursuing a major within this department must complete the General Studies requirements. Following is a suggested pattern of study for the first two years; however, consultation with the assigned advisor is necessary before each registration.

All students majoring in Speech and Theatre must complete a 12-hour core curriculum to include SPEE 220 and 230 and two courses from SPEE 205, 215, 231, 317, 330, 334, 345, 346, and 456 provided at least one of the courses is outside the student's concentration area; a senior project must be selected and completed in the last year of enrollment under the supervision of an advisor.

Students majoring in Speech and Theatre must receive a grade of "C" or better in all courses in their concentration for the course to count as a prerequisite or to count toward graduation.

Concentration: Speech Communication

Students pursuing the Speech Communication concentration must complete SPEE 215, 220, 230, 321, 330, 424, 456, and 470, and one course chosen from 205, 231, 334, 345, and 346. The remaining requirement must be completed with four courses from the following: SPEE 317, 322, 323, 428, 432, 480, and 490. Additional electives are available.

Students pursuing the Speech Communication concentration must also select at least one minor from the following: Business Administration, Business Law, Economics and Finance, Finance, Industrial Relations, Industrial/Organizational Psychology, Insurance, Insurance/Real Estate, Management, Marketing, Mass Communication, Political Science, Psychology, Public Administration, Real Estate, or other appropriate minor approved by the student's academic advisor.

In addition to one minor from the list above, students should complete the courses listed in one of the following complementing discipline areas: advertising (JOUR 151, 271; ADV 302 and 348 or 423); business (select four courses from ECON 241, 242; FIN 245, 300, 361); government (select four courses from P S 150, 332, 333, 423, 470); human resources management (select four courses from MGMT 361, 381, 464, 465, 466); law (select four courses from P S 244, 337, 338, 350, 459; ENGL 353); organizational psychology (PSY 332, 427, 433, 436); personal communication (select four courses from SOC 101, 340, 351, 405, 450); professional communication (ENGL 350, 352; RATV 357); public relations (JOUR 151, 271; P R 302, 336); radio/TV (RATV 151, 241, 312, and one course from 311, 342, 443, or 491); and sales (MKT 382, 384, 385, 391). Courses from these groups may not be a part of the student's minor.

Concentration: Theatre

Students pursuing the concentration in Theatre must complete the core curriculum requirement and the following required theatre courses: SPEE 205, 231, 314, 333, 334, 342, 344, and 352. In addition, students must select 9 hours from the designated specialized courses in one of the following areas: acting/directing, children's theatre, costume/makeup, or scenery/lighting.

Concentration: Communication Disorders

Students pursuing the concentration in Communication Disorders must complete a minimum of 42 semester hours of academic courses which includes 12 hours from the core curriculum and 30 additional hours as follows: SPEE 346, 347, 348, 349, 351, 401, 441, 455, 460, and either SPEE 443 or 453. Students must also complete a minimum of 10 semester hours of supervised clinical observation and practicum through enrollment in SPEE 358, 410, and 411. Prior to enrollment in clinical practicum, students must meet academic and professional eligibility criteria established by the faculty and published in the clinic manual. Academic criteria include a minimum overall GPA of 2.50 in 60 credit hours or 3.00 in the last 30 credit hours, a minimal GPA of 2.70 in the major, a minimal grade of C in each prerequisite course, and competence in speaking and writing.

Minor in Speech and Theatre

The minor in Speech and Theatre consists of 18 semester hours and includes SPEE 220. A student may concentrate course work for the minor in the speech communication or theatre concentration with the specific course requirements based primarily upon the individual student's academic interests and needs. Those students who wish to minor in Speech and Theatre should consult the department chair.

Minor in Communication Disorders

The minor in Communication Disorders consists of 18 semester hours of courses selected from the listing for the Communication Disorders concentration.

Minor in Theatrical Design

This minor is designed for students majoring in Human Sciences, Radio-Television/Photography, Recording Industry, Speech and Theatre, and others who plan a career in theatrical design. The minor consists of 21 hours of courses selected from the approved list (below) after consulting with the minor advisor. Courses taken to meet major field of study requirements or other minor requirements may not be counted toward this minor.

SPEE	233	Stagecraft
SPEE	334	Make-Up Techniques for Performers
SPEE	342	Introduction to Theatrical Costume

SPEE	419	Theatrical Costume Technology
SPEE	427	Theatrical Costume Design
SPEE	434	Scene Design
SPEE	439	A-Z Problems in Theatre
SPEE	440	Stage Lighting
SPEE	454	Advanced Scenic Design
SPEE	464	Topics in Scenography
SPEE	466	Special Effects Make-Up
SPEE	474	Advanced Lighting Design
SPEE	476	Advanced Study in Theatrical Costume

Minor in Dance

The Department of Speech and Theatre offers a minor in dance. The minor requires 18 semester hours to include DANC 100, 300, and 310. The remaining requirement must be completed from the following courses: DANC 101, 102, 103, 104, 201, 202, 203, 204, 301, 302, 303, 304, 400, 404, 410, 411, 412, and 413. (DANC 101, 102, 103, 104, 201, 202, 203, and 204 each may count for ONE activity credit in Area V of General Studies provided the student does not also count a comparable dance activity course completed in HPERS.)

Teacher Licensure

Students seeking a license to teach must complete (1) a major in the subject they intend to teach, (2) the Enhanced General Education Requirements (these include and add to the General Studies requirements), and (3) the professional education requirements (minor). The Speech and Theatre Department offers two teacher licensure programs: Speech Communication (grades 7-12) and Theatre (grades K-12).

Teacher Licensure in Speech Communication 7-12

Students will complete a major in Speech and Theatre by following a specified program in the Speech Communication concentration. In addition to the University General Studies requirements, students will complete an Enhanced General Education Requirement by consulting with a minor advisor and selecting 18 hours in either a foreign language or by selecting 18 hours from the following courses: ENGL 350, 451; HIST 151, 152, 427A, 427B; WM S 250; CSCI 115; RATV 241; PHIL 311.

There is also a professional education requirement. Students must contact their minor advisor in professional education for approval of appropriate courses. (For specific procedures and additional requirements for teacher licensure, see page 164.)

Teacher Licensure in Theatre K-12

Students will complete a major in Speech and Theatre by following a specified program in the Theatre concentration. In addition to the University General Studies requirements, students will complete an Enhanced General Education Requirement by selecting in consultation with a minor advisor 18 credit hours in one of the following areas: art, dance, English, engineering technology, foreign languages, industrial studies, or mass communication or the interdisciplinary program in entertainment technology.

There is also a professional education requirement. Students must contact their minor advisor in professional education for approval of appropriate courses. (For specific procedures and additional requirements for teacher licensure, see page 164.)

Co-Curricular Requirements

The Speech and Theatre Department supports, directs, and staffs three co-curricular programs to supplement classroom theory and to benefit the University and surrounding communities. Students receive practical training through participation in one of the co-curricular programs:

MTSU Debate—The debate program provides active intercollegiate competitive opportunities. The program is open to all undergraduate students in good academic standing.

University Theatre—The University Theatre program presents five major dramatic productions during the academic year and sponsors a children's theatre company. All University Theatre performances are open to the public. Students majoring in Speech and Theatre and following the Theatre concentration participate in some aspect of each production. However, participation is open to all members of the University and local community.

MTSU Speech-Language and Hearing Clinic—The Speech-Language and Hearing Clinic is open to all students at the University in need of speech, language, and hearing diagnosis and therapy. There is no charge to MTSU students for this service. Diagnostic and therapeutic services for persons in the mid-state area with speech-language and hearing problems are also provided for a very nominal fee. Students in the Communication Disorders concentration work in the clinic under the direct supervision of faculty members certified by the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association.

College of MASS COMMUNICATION

Deryl Leaming, Dean, Mass Communication 247
Elliott Pood, Assistant Dean, Mass Communication 204
Cathy Hendon, Academic Advisor, Mass Communication 216
Journalism ■ Radio-Television/Photography ■ Recording Industry ■

The primary function of the College of Mass Communication is to provide appropriate professional training for people entering the fields of journalism, radio, television, photography, and the recording industry; to provide consumer education for majors and non-majors who enter other fields; and to provide instruction for persons with highly specialized needs. This means presenting students with a broad-based conceptual map of the field that systematically considers theoretical underpinnings, connections with the liberal arts and sciences, a fundamental knowledge of the communication industries, and professional training.

Following are the curricula, courses, and specific requirements for majors and minors in each department or school.

MIDDLE
UNIVERSITY

The College offers the Bachelor of Science degree with majors in Mass Communication and Recording Industry.

Mass Communication majors have an opportunity to specialize in one of five concentrations: Advertising/Public Relations, Graphic Communication, or Journalism in the School of Journalism; and Photography or Radio-Television in the Department of Radio-Television/Photography. Additional specialties are available in the various concentrations.

Majors in the Department of Recording Industry may choose a concentration in either Music Business or Production and Technology.

All curricular programs throughout the College of Mass Communication attempt to address a common, minimum set of core competencies. The current core competencies include:

1. literacy;
2. history, theory, and research appropriate to the area;
3. law, ethics, and policy appropriate to the area.

Major in Mass Communication

Constructed around a core of basic courses, this professionally accredited program is designed to provide students with practical communication skills, while acquainting them with the history, theory, ethics, social responsibility, and law of mass communication.

Students majoring in Mass Communication take 33 to 42 hours of coursework in the College, depending upon the major selected. A minimum of 90 hours must be taken outside the college with at least 65 hours in liberal arts and sciences (see below). Total university credit for Individual Problems, Practicum, and Internship courses cannot exceed six hours (three hours in the School of Journalism).

Mass Communication majors must earn a C or better in each course in the college in order to graduate. A student must also have two 18-hour (or more) minors, which must normally be taken in the liberal arts and sciences such as economics, English, geography, history, languages, literature, philosophy, political science, psychology, speech or theatre, sociology, or the natural sciences and mathematics. Students majoring in the School of Journalism or the Department of Radio-Television/Photography may not minor in a second Mass Communication concentration nor may they minor in Recording Industry. Any Recording Industry courses taken by Mass Communication majors count as mass communication credit. For transfer students, only twelve credits are accepted in the major but they must be courses required for the degree in the various sequences. Additional mass communication transfer hours must be counted above the 132 hours needed for graduation.

Core Curriculum

The following courses are required for all Mass Communication concentrations and constitute the core curriculum. The core is designed to introduce students to a broad range of information and thought common to all areas of mass communication. The 9-hour core prepares students in any concentration with the basics of factual writing, editing, law, communication theory, communication history, and ethics.

JOUR or RATV 221	Understanding Mass Media, 3 hours
JOUR 271	Media Writing, 3 hours, or equivalent writing competency
JOUR or RATV 420	Media Law, 3 hours, or equivalent law competency

Candidacy Program

The College of Mass Communication includes a Candidacy Program for all majors in the college. This program is based on research indicating a relationship between completion of certain required classes with certain minimum grade point expectations and both performance and retention in the major. In addition, the requirements specified in the candidacy program are consistent with requirements of our national accrediting agency.

The candidacy program of the College of Mass Communication imposes requirements in several areas.

A. Admission to most upper-division professional courses in the College of Mass Communication will be restricted to students admitted to candidacy.

B. All majors in the College of Mass Communication should apply for admission to candidacy at the end of the semester in which they will have completed 45 semester hours of coursework.

C. At a minimum, students in all concentrations in the College must have completed all of the following courses with a grade of C or better before applying for candidacy.
   JOUR/RATV 221
   ENGL 111 and 112
   Math course satisfying Area IV-B of the General Studies Requirements
   At least one additional introductory course in the specific program area for which candidacy is being sought.

D. At a minimum, students applying for candidacy in all concentrations in the College must have an overall GPA on all university-level coursework of at least 2.50. Individual programs in the College are free to set higher minimum GPA requirements.

E. Specific candidacy requirements are listed by concentration in each department.

Liberal Arts and Sciences Requirements

All students in the School of Journalism and in the Department of Radio-Television/Photography must complete 65 approved liberal arts and sciences hours to meet graduation requirements.

The following departments and programs are considered by the deans of the academic colleges at Middle Tennessee State University to comprise the liberal arts and sciences. All courses in these departments or programs meet approved liberal arts and sciences requirements.

African-American Studies
Art
Biology
Chemistry
Computer Science
Economics and Finance
English
Foreign Languages and Literatures
Geography and Geology History
Mathematical Sciences
Music

Minor in Mass Communication

A total of 18 hours of coursework is required for the minor in Mass Communication. Interested persons should contact the director of the School of Journalism or the chairs of Radio-Television/Photography or Recording Industry departments for a minor advisor before beginning course work. A grade point average of 2.00 is required in a Mass Communication minor.

University Media

Students majoring in Mass Communication are urged to become involved with the various campus media because they offer excellent opportunities for practical experience. These include three student publications—Sidelines, the student newspaper; Collage, the student creative magazine; and Midlander, the University yearbook—WMOT-FM, the campus NPR-affiliated radio station; Channel 10, the student-operated cable television channel; and WMTS, a student-operated low power radio station.

Richard Campbell, Director
Mass Communication 249

Applegate, Badger, Blake, Bodle, Burriss, Eason, Haugland, Himebaugh, Kimbrell, Mastin, McComb, Nagy, Parente, Quarles, Wolf, Wong, Wyatt

The School of Journalism offers work leading to the Bachelor of Science degree with a major in Mass Communication and a concentration in Advertising-Public Relations, Graphic Communication, or Journalism (newspaper/magazine). A total of 37-39 hours of coursework is required for the major in the School of Journalism. A minimum of 90 hours must be taken outside the college, with at least 65 hours in the liberal arts and sciences. Students outside the college may choose to minor in Mass Communication, with an emphasis in any of the School of Journalism's three concentrations.

In all curricular listings, (Area __) refers to the General Studies requirements as outlined on pages 58-59.

Freshmen/sophomores in all concentrations should follow this general outline of courses; selection of junior and senior courses should be made in consultation with the adviser. Majors must have a C or better in all mass communication courses.

Concentration: Advertising-Public Relations

Advertising and public relations are distinct fields; these programs help students prepare for positions in advertising agencies and departments, media sales and management, advertising production and design, public relations agencies and departments, and organizational and employee relations.

Advertising

Although students in advertising are primarily oriented towards either the creative or management side of the business, they essentially take the same courses in advertising. Creative students usually minor in liberal arts areas such as English and art. In addition to the required liberal arts minor, management students usually complete their second minor in a business area such as marketing.

Advertising students take the following required courses. Students should check the prerequisites for each course.

Admission to Candidacy

To be admitted to candidacy, the student must meet the following requirements:

1. 45 hours completed before applying for candidacy
2. Grade of C or better in each of the following:

Public Relations

Students with a concentration in public relations may choose the general program or a specialty in the recording industry; both programs require 37-39 credits. By the junior year, students should choose two minors, one in liberal arts or science and one in the College of Business. With the permission of the adviser and the director of the School of Journalism, a student may replace the minor in the College of Business with a minor in the basic or applied sciences or a second minor in the liberal arts and sciences.

Department of Radio-Television/ Photography

Mass Communication 245

Barr, Berg, Criado, Harris, Hicks, Jimison, Johnson, Norton, Oneal, Parrish, Pegg, Pood, Spires, Zheng

Majors in this department work toward a Bachelor of Science degree with a major in Mass Communication and a concentration in either Photography or Radio-Television.

Students in the Photography concentration take 36 to 42 hours of coursework in the College of Mass Communication. Students in the Radio-Television concentration take 33 to 42 hours of coursework in the College of Mass Communication. A minimum of 90 hours must be taken outside the College with at least 65 hours in the liberal arts and sciences. Total university credit for individual problems, practicum, and internship courses cannot exceed six hours.

The Department of Radio-Television/Photography will not accept any more than 12 semester hours of transfer credit toward either a major or minor in the department. This is a maximum number of credits that will be accepted and does not constitute a guarantee that each student desiring to transfer up to 12 semester hours into the program will be granted credit for all transfer hours. Each case will be judged on an individual basis.

Transfer credit will not be granted for any course taken at a non-accredited institution. Transfer credit will normally be granted for theory/concept courses such as "Understanding Mass Media" if the credit comes from an accredited institution of higher education. Transfer credit will not normally be granted for production courses taken at other institutions with the possible exception of a basic course in audio production. No transfer credit will be awarded for any production course taken at an institution not accredited by the Accrediting Council on Education in Journalism and Mass Communication. For production courses taken at an ACEJMC-accredited institution, transfer credit may be awarded on a case-by-case basis.

Further information on departmental procedures for awarding transfer credit is available from the department.

All students in the Department of Radio-Television/Photography are required to complete two 18-hour minors, one of which must be in the liberal arts and sciences. Students in the Radio-Television and Photography concentrations may not minor in any area of the College of Mass Communication.

All sequences in the Department of Radio-Television/Photography require admission to candidacy upon completion of 45 semester hours of university-level coursework. Specific requirements are listed below by sequence. Most upper-division courses in the Department have admission to candidacy as a prerequisite.

In all curricular listings, (Area __) refers to the General Studies requirements as outlined on pages 58-59.

Concentration: Photography

The Photography program integrates technical competence and visual awareness. Experiences promote personal and professional growth toward careers in photography and media photography.

In addition to the core competencies outlined on page 260, all Photography students take a two-dimensional design course in the Art Department.

Admission to Candidacy

To be admitted to candidacy in the Photography concentration, the student must meet the following requirements:

1. 45 hours completed before applying for candidacy
2. Grade of C or better in each of the following:
   JOUR/RATV 221
   JOUR 271 or equivalent writing competency
   ENGL 111 and 112
   Math course satisfying Area IV-B
3. Grade of C or better in each of the following
   PHOT 304
   PHOT 205
   PHOT 311
4. Minimum GPA in PHOT 205, 304, and 311 of 2.50
5. Minimum overall GPA in all college coursework of 2.50.

Concentration: Radio-Television

The Radio-Television program blends theoretical and "hands-on" approaches to electronic media education. In addition to the core competencies outlined on page 260, students enroll in 241, Introduction to Electronic Media, and 312, Sight, Sound and Motion. Students choose a specialty area that best fits their career goals. Those areas are electronic media journalism, electronic media production, electronic media management, and digital animation.

Electronic media journalism offers preparation for work in the electronic news field, reporting, and news management. Electronic media production helps prepare graduates for work in production at television stations, production and post-production houses, and corporate production settings. Studio production courses are complemented with field production coursework. Electronic media management offers preparation for work in "behind-the-scenes" areas of broadcast stations and cable systems from programming to advertising and sales, combining the business and creative aspects of electronic media. Digital animation offers preparation for work in the television and video graphics professions. The specialty area also includes photo digital imaging which is important to both the still photographer and the video animator. Students are encouraged to complete their education with internships in professional settings. Used for instruction are an electronic newsroom, a 50,000-watt FM radio station affiliated with National Public Radio, a student-operated FM station, a cable television channel, three TV studios, post-production rooms, and a 40-foot mobile production lab.

(Effective Fall '99, 151 no longer required of all Mass Communication and Recording Industry majors; requirement replaced by JOUR/RATV 221. Students may not receive credit for both 151 and 221.)

221 Understanding Mass Media. Three credits. (Same as JOUR 221.) Analysis of the content and context of the American mass media to understand how they affect individuals and society. Emphasis on practical knowledge of the workings of the media from a general perspective. (Effective Fall '99, replaces 151 as requirement for all Mass Communication and Recording Industry majors and available to all university students as general studies credit.)

222 Television Newswriting. Three credits. Personal computer with modem required. Introduces radio and television news reporting and writing for students who are not majoring in the electronic media sequence. How to start, develop, and polish hard news and feature news stories. Included also are news ethics, media law, and the interrelationships of the various media. Uses the instructional material supplied by the CPB/Annenberg Project; draws heavily on participation from media professionals in the Nashville area.

241 Introduction to Electronic Media. Three credits. Organization, structure and function, historical development, and social aspects. Designed to give the major, as well as the non-major, a general working knowledge of broadcasting.

300 Introduction to Motion Pictures. Three credits. (Same as JOUR 300.) Prerequisite: Upper-division standing. The development and role of motion pictures in America, including the history of films and filmmakers, the influence of film on American culture, and film criticism.

301 Audio for Media. Three credits. (Same as RIM 301.) Examines the theories and technology used in audio production for music, radio, TV, and film. Provides the management-oriented student with a useful vocabulary covering audio production; provides the production-oriented student with basic theory upon which production skills can be built. Laboratory included.

302 Writing for the Electronic Media. Three credits. Prerequisite: Writing competency. Techniques of creating and writing for electronic media, including radio, television, and computer-generated programming for cable systems and studio production. Consideration of program design and technical limitations of media production for specific formats. Emphasis on readability of copy, writing style, time constraints, editing, and the integration of sound with graphic images or visual information.

303 Electronic Media Advertising. Three credits. Prerequisite: RATV 241. Principles, techniques, and methods of electronic media advertising including commercial story boards and copywriting.

304 Electronic Graphics for Television. Three credits. Prerequisites: Admission to candidacy; RATV 313. Two-dimensional computer-generated graphics for television. Emphasis on the aesthetics and techniques for operating systems for character and graphics generation. Develop skills in the successful compositing of these graphics with live action and videotape sequences.

311 Radio Station Operations. Three credits. Prerequisites: RATV 241; instructor approval. Theory and techniques of sound production, recording, microphones, taping, and board equipment. Analysis of creative efforts and responsibilities in writing, production, and direction. Laboratory required.

312 Sight, Sound, and Motion. Three credits. Prerequisites: RATV 221; writing competency; RATV 241 or admission to RI candidacy. Introduces the production elements and technology of the electronic media industry. Creative conceptualizations; elements of composition, the production process included. Basic visual and aural technology demonstrated. Two lecture periods and a one-hour lab per week.

313 Television Production. Three credits. Prerequisite: Admission to candidacy. Introduction to the techniques. Emphasis on the function and operation of the primary tools including video, audio, and lighting to develop the student's awareness and understanding of proper studio procedure. Laboratory required.

314 Multi-Camera Directing and Producing. Three credits. Prerequisites: Admission to candidacy; RATV 313. Focuses on the duties and responsibilities of the television director. Emphasis on actual production and directing of video material. Laboratory required.

315 Single-Camera Directing and Producing. Three credits. Prerequisites: Admission to candidacy; RATV 313. Techniques of live/tape field production. On- location shooting of features and mini-documentaries; editing techniques, coverage, lighting, sound, and graphics.

330 Introduction to Digital Animation. Three credits. Prerequisites: Admission to candidacy; ART 161; CSCI 115; or permission of instructor. Two- and three-dimensional computer data and animation. Emphasis on the aesthetics and techniques for building, lighting, assigning surface attributes, and rendering of three-dimensional models to be used in designing and producing three-dimensional computer-generated animations. Includes a broad survey of the process and techniques involved with creating electronic media quality three-dimensional animations and techniques and aesthetics incorporated into traditional methods of animations for contrast and comparison.

331 Intermediate Digital Animation. Three credits. Prerequisites: Admission to candidacy; RATV 330. Continuation of 330 for the development of two- and three-dimensional computer data and animation. Further understanding of aesthetics and techniques for building, lighting, assigning surface attributes, and rendering of three-dimensional models, to be used in designing and producing three-dimensional computer-generated animations. Introduction to the creation and modification of customized lighting models and the development of customized surface and bump-mapped textures as well as the techniques involved in the compositing of live action video tape, sound, and computer-generated images.

341 Electronic Media News I. Three credits. Prerequisite: Admission to candidacy. Stresses reporting, writing, and presenting radio news. The history, philosophy, and regulation of electronic media news. Laboratory required.

342 Corporate Video. Three credits. Prerequisite: RATV 312 or permission of instructor. Focuses on the techniques and applications of television production for business communications and video publishing. Emphasis on writing, program design and objectives, planning and production of television materials. Laboratory required.

350 Electronic Media News II. Three credits. Prerequisites: Admission to candidacy; RATV 341. Theory and practice in the gathering, editing, and writing of news for radio and television. Attention given to on-the-air presentation. Laboratory required.

351 Mass Media and American Culture. Three credits. Prerequisites: RATV 151 and upper-division standing. Development of American journalism and the mass media from Colonial times to the present, including the role and influence of mass media on American culture, technical advances, and contributions of individual personalities.

357 Broadcast Announcing/Performance. Three credits. Prerequisites: Admission to candidacy; SPEE 215. Introduction to the responsibilities and skills required of the individual performer in the preparing, announcing, and narrating of various types of materials for television and radio.

358B Broadcast Practicum. One to three credits. Prerequisites: Admission to candidacy; junior standing and permission of instructor. Practical experience in an on-campus mass communication setting within the College of Mass Communication. A minimum of 75 hours of work will be required for each hour of credit. Note: Total university credit for practicum, individual problems, and internship courses cannot exceed 6 credits.

365 Free Expression, Mass Media, and the American Public. Three credits. (Same as JOUR/RIM 365.) A general introduction to the issues surrounding free expression and its relationship with mass media in contemporary America. A comprehensive analysis of the history, philosophies, cases, and controls associated with freedom of expression.

374 Electronic Media News III. Three credits. Prerequisites: Admission to candidacy; RATV 341 and 350. Theory and practice of television journalism, including use of electronic news-gathering equipment, evaluating and processing news for broadcast, and delivery of television news. Laboratory required.

400B Broadcast Internship. One to three credits. Prerequisites: Admission to candidacy; senior standing and permission of sequence internship coordinator or instructor. Practical experience for advanced students in a professional setting. A minimum of 15 hours of work per week plus other assignments will be required. Note: Total university credit for internship, practicum, and individual problems courses cannot exceed 6 credits. Pass/Fail. Can be repeated with different employer for one to three credits with permission of instructor.

401 Electronic Media Sales. Three credits. Prerequisite: RATV 241. Theories of marketing and selling the intangible products of the electronic media industries. The fundamentals of positioning, theory and use of ratings, and local, regional, and national buying and selling strategies presented.

402 Advanced Scriptwriting. Three credits. Prerequisite: RATV 221; writing competency; RATV 302 or permission of instructor. Scriptwriting guidelines, character development, plot design, and creation of storylines for contemporary television genre programs. Writing of original scripts conforming to the genre taught required. Topics will vary by offering. May be repeated for up to 9 hours credit for different topics. Laboratory required.

414 Electronic Media Programming. Three credits. Prerequisite: RATV 241. Development of techniques, program organization, audience analysis, recording, and directing through projects. Provides practical conceptual knowledge of the problems and procedures followed in planning and producing programming. Laboratory required.

415 Advanced Television Production. Three credits. Prerequisite: RATV 314. Preparation and development of scripted and unscripted television programming; principles and aesthetics of production and directing.

420 Mass Media Law. Three credits. (Same as JOUR 420.) Prerequisites: RATV 221; junior standing. Examination of legal guarantees and restrictions on the flow of information using the case study method. Focus on libel, privacy, obscenity, and the special restrictions placed on advertising, broadcasting, cable television, and the Internet.

421 Mass Communication and Society. Three credits. (Same as JOUR 421.) Prerequisite: Junior standing. Theories of the process of mass communication, how media affect society, the evolution within a social and cultural context, ethical and social dimensions. Extensive reading in theory, history, and research. Media content emphasis varies depending on instructor's expertise.

430 Advanced Digital Animation. Three credits. Prerequisites: Admission to candidacy; RATV 331. Continuation of 331 for the development of two- and three-dimensional computer data and animation. Further understanding of the aesthetics and techniques for visually communicating information for television journalism, advertising, and entertainment. Serves as a final classroom laboratory in preparation for the required internship and offers greater understanding of complete animation production and more complex methods for the integration of composited computer-generated images with live action video tape and sound.

443 Electronic Media Management. Three credits. Prerequisite: RATV 241. An analysis of the problems involved in planning, building, and operating an electronic media facility including personnel, internal control systems, business ethics, community relations, sales, and promotion. Case study method is involved.

450 New Technologies. Three credits. Prerequisite: Junior standing. Developing systems and methods of audio/video message delivery. Focus on the technology, regulatory aspects, and economic impact of each system upon traditional message delivery. Guest lecturers and site visits included.

458 Disk-Based Audio Post-Production. Three credits. (Same as RIM 458.) Prerequisites: RI majors - RIM/MUSI 419, RIM 420, RIM 330, and RATV 312; RATV majors - RATV 312 and 313; all others - permission of instructor. An advanced, hands-on approach to the principles of tapeless digital recording on a variety of digital workstate platforms. In-depth discussions of disk-based digital audio, synchronization, audio for video and film, and multichannel sound mixing techniques. Focuses on use of digital audio workstations in an audio post-production environment. Laboratory required.

460 Electronic Multimedia Production. Three credits. (Same as RIM 460.) Prerequisites: RI majors - admission to candidacy, CSCI 115 or INFS 220, PHOT 320, and RIM 419; RATV majors - admission to candidacy, CSCI 100, PHOT 320, and RATV 330; others - permission of instructor. Advanced, hands-on approach. Systems integration utilized to effectively combine text, graphics, digital video, digital audio, two- and three-dimensional animation, and digital images. Students use a variety of authoring software packages and scripting languages and are trained in the use and operation of various hardware and software systems to produce interactive electronic multimedia presentation projects.

461 Visual Communication for the Print Media. Three credits. (Same as JOUR 461.) Increases visual literacy; provides knowledge of our visual heritage, seeks to enrich the judgment of those responsible for making decisions about the use and display of photographs for publication. Also includes photographic processes and handling of pictures for publication among particular audiences.

466 Mass Media Research. Three credits. (Same as JOUR 466.) Prerequisites: Admission to candidacy; junior standing. Overview of contemporary research methods, analysis, and evaluation of current research, and design and execution of a study. Emphasis on public opinion and media research.

479 International Communication. Three credits. Prerequisites: RATV 151 and junior standing. The gathering of world news and the systems and philosophies associated with super-national communication. Satellite television, international political communications, advertising, and national development vis-a-vis press systems.

480 Seminar in Media Issues. Three credits. (Same as JOUR 480.) Prerequisite: Junior standing. Examination and critical evaluation of issues relevant to the operation and functions of mass media including their relationships to each other and to government, advertisers, consumers, and other "publics." Can repeat for 6 hours with different topic.

485 Ethics and Mass Communication. Three credits. (Same as JOUR 485.) Prerequisite: Junior standing. Examination of ethical concerns of media practitioners, illuminated by study of selected current ethical issues and an overview of the cultural and philosophical bases of a socially responsive mass media.

490 Individual Problems in Mass Communication. One to three credits. (Same as JOUR 490.) Prerequisite: Admission to candidacy. Provides opportunities for individually designed problems, work experiences, or research projects related to the development of professional competencies in a major field of study. Requires approval of instructor. Note: Total university credit for individual problems, practicum, and internship courses cannot exceed 6 credits. Can be repeated for 1 to 3 credits with permission of instructor.

491J Advanced Seminar - Electronic Media Journalism. Three credits. Prerequisites: Admission to candidacy; permission of department only. Practical experience in the conceptualization, preparation, and production of a specific news program format. Integration of theory and skills from other RATV/RIM courses. Documentary, political analysis, sports, and newscasting are probable topics. Topics will vary by semester offering. Can be repeated for 6 hours with different topic.

491M Advanced Seminar - Electronic Media Management. Three credits. Prerequisites: Admission to candidacy; permission of department only. Practical experience in the conceptualization, preparation, and management of a specific program format. Integration of theory and skills from other RATV/RIM courses. Programming, station operations, and sales are probable topics. Topics will vary by semester offering. Can be repeated for 6 hours with different topic.

491P Advanced Seminar - Electronic Media Production. Three credits. Prerequisites: Admission to candidacy; permission of department only. Practical experience in the conceptualization, pre-production preparation, and production of a specific program format. Integration of theory and skills from other RATV/RIM courses. Sports, music, drama, and editing are probable topics. Topics will vary by semester offering. Can be repeated for 6 hours with different topic.

Department of Recording Industry

Christian Haseleu, Chair
Bragg Mass Communication 251

Barnet, Fischer, Hicks, Hill, Hull, Hutchison, Jones, Keel, Kennedy, Mitchell, Moser, Mulraine, O'Brien, Pfeifer, Piekarski, B. Wood, M. Wood

The recording industry is one of the largest of all the entertainment industries, and one of its major centers is located in Nashville. The purpose of this program is to prepare students to seek entry- and middle-level positions for virtually any phase of the industry from marketing of recordings to audio engineering. Internships in many phases of the industry are available for selected students. The program is designed with advice from the National Academy of Recording Arts and Sciences, the National Association of Recording Merchandisers, the Society of Professional Audio Recording Services, and numerous industry professionals and executives.

The department offers the Bachelor of Science degree with a major in Recording Industry and a concentration in either Music Business or Production and Technology.

Audio engineering and music production are taught primarily in three departmental studios, a MIDI lab, and a post-production lab located on campus. Electronic music/MIDI courses are offered cooperatively with the Music Department.

The department offers a minor in Recording Industry for Music majors in the Music Industry concentration and other interested students. The department also offers a minor in Entertainment Technology in cooperation with the Speech and Theatre Department.

In all curricular listings, (Area __) refers to the General Studies requirements as outlined on pages 58-59.

Transfer Credit Policy

A maximum of 9 credit hours may be transferred into the Recording Industry major. Transfer credit may be given for RIM 300, 301, and 360 only. Credit for RIM 301 may be obtained by passing a Transfer Evaluation test with a grade of C or better. Transfer students wishing to take a Transfer Evaluation test for RIM 301 should notify the departmental office.

General Studies Requirements for Recording Industry Majors

For General Studies Area I-B, Recording Industry majors must take SPEE 220 or F L 111. JOUR/RATV 221 will not meet this requirement. For General Studies Area IV-B, Recording Industry majors must take MATH 141 or a higher level math. MATH 300 will not meet this requirement.

Computer Literacy Requirements for Recording Industry Majors

To meet the computer literacy requirement, Recording Industry majors should take CSCI 115 or INFS 220 or minor in Computer Science. CSCI 100 will not meet this requirement. NOTE: INFS 220 is required for Business Administration minors; CSCI 115 is recommended for Entertainment Technology minors.

Admission to Candidacy

Students are required to be admitted to candidacy to earn a degree as a Recording Industry major in the College of Mass Communication and as a prerequisite to enrollment in most upper-division courses within the College. To be admitted to candidacy, a student must have:

1. completed 45 hours;
2. received a grade of C or better in the following courses:
   ENGL 111 Expository Writing
   ENGL 112 Research and Argumentative Writing
   MATH 141 College Algebra (or higher level math, but not MATH 300);
3. received a B or better in both ENGL 111 Expository Writing and ENGL 112 Research and Argumentative Writing or received a grade of C or better in JOUR 271 Media Writing;
4. received a grade of C or better as well as a minimum 2.5 grade point average in the following courses:
   JOUR/RATV 221 Understanding Mass Media
   RIM 300 History of the Recording Industry
   RIM 301 Audio for Media
   RIM 303 Intro to the Recording Studio
   RIM 360 Survey of the Recording Industry
4. Received a minimum overall grade point average in all coursework of 2.50.

Applications for admission to candidacy are available at the College of Mass Communication office and should be submitted by students during the semester in which they will have completed the foregoing requirements. Provisional candidacy will be granted for registration purposes and will be official pending successful completion of enrolled courses.

Students may not take other RIM courses, with the exception of RIM 123 and RIM 365, and will not be admitted to the Recording Industry major until they have successfully completed admission to candidacy.

Grading Policy

Students majoring in Recording Industry must receive a grade of C or better in all Recording Industry courses in order for them to count toward graduation. A minimum grade of C is required in all classes that are prerequisite to Recording Industry classes. Recording Industry majors may be required to take an exit examination in order to graduate.

Major in Recording Industry

In addition to 42 hours of General Studies requirements, a student must take 42 hours of Recording Industry courses with a concentration in either Music Business or Production and Technology. Recording Industry majors complete two minors. See required minors for Recording Industry majors below for information on the available minors.

Concentration: Music Business

All majors are required to take:

RIM	300	History of the Recording Industry
RIM	301	Audio for Media
RIM	303	Intro to the Recording Studio
RIM	360	Survey of the Recording Industry
RIM	370	Copyright Law
RIM	470	Legal Problems of the Recording Industry

Sub-core:

RIM	372	Artist Management
RIM	390	Music Publishing
RIM	462	Marketing of Recordings

Electives - students must choose 17 hours from among the following:

RIM	302	Commercial Songwriting
RIM	310	Music as Popular Culture
RIM	350	Lecture Series
RIM	358	Practicum*
RIM	365	Free Expression, Mass Media, and the American Public
RIM	377	Publicity in the Recording Industry
RIM	389	International Recording Industry
RIM	400	Recording Industry Internship: Business*
RIM	432	Concert Promotion
RIM	463	Recording Industry Research
RIM	472	Record Retail Operations
RIM	473	The A&R Function
RIM	474	Studio Administration
RIM	480	Understanding the Nashville Music Business - Past and Future
RIM	481	Topics in Recording Industry
RIM	490	Individual Problems in the Recording Industry

Of the 17 hours of electives, up to 3 credit hours may be selected from the following courses:

MUHL	367	History of Popular Music in America
ENGL	353	Legal Writing and Research
ENGL	370	British Popular Culture
SOC	417	The Social Context of Southern Music

No more than 6 hours total are allowed toward the major from any combination of RIM 358, 400, or 401.*
NOTE: Students electing the Music Business concentration may take up to 9 semester hours of their electives from Production and Technology.*

Summary of Requirements for Music Business Concentration:
Recording Industry core: 16
Music Business sub-core: 9
Music Business electives: 17
Total hours in the Major: 42

Concentration: Production and Technology

All majors are required to take:

RIM	300	History of the Recording Industry
RIM	301	Audio for Media
RIM	303	Intro to the Recording Studio
RIM	360	Survey of the Recording Industry
RIM	370	Copyright Law
RIM	470	Legal Problems of the Recording Industry

Sub-core:

RIM	123	Musicianship for Recording Engineers
RIM	419	Principles and Practices of Electronic Music
RIM	420	Applied Digital Audio
RIM	440	Techniques of Recording

PHYS	160	Physics of Music
RIM	302	Commercial Songwriting
RIM	345	Advanced Musicianship for Engineers
RIM	350	Lecture Series
RIM	358	Practicum*
RIM	365	Free Expression, Mass Media, and the American Public
RIM	401	Recording Industry Internship: Technology*
RIM	429	Electronic Music II
RIM	444	Critical Listening
RIM	456	Concepts and Development of Multichannel Audio
RIM	457	The Art of Soundtrack Design
RIM	458	Disk-Based Audio Post-Production
RIM	459	MIDI Studio Techniques
RIM	460	Electronic Multimedia Production
RIM	465	Advanced Technology of Recording
RIM	466	Advanced Music Engineering
RIM	467	Studio Production
RIM	474	Studio Administration
RIM	481	Topics in Recording Industry
RIM	483	Recording Studio Maintenance
RIM	490	Individual Problems in the Recording Industry
RIM	491	Advanced Seminar - Production

No more than 6 hours total are allowed toward the major from any combination of RIM 358, 400, or 401.*
NOTE: Students electing the Production and Technology concentration may select up to 9 semester hours of their electives from Music Business.

Summary of Requirements for Production and Technology Concentration:
Recording Industry core: 16
Production and Technology sub-core: 12
Production and Technology electives: 14
Total hours in the Major: 42

Required Minors for Recording Industry Majors

All Recording Industry majors are required to complete two minors. The minors must be selected from the following: Business Administration, Computer Science, Electro-Acoustics, Electronics, Entertainment Technology, Entrepreneurship, Film Studies, Marketing, Mass Communication, Music, Music Industry, and Theatrical Design.

Note that the selection of minors will require diversity of coursework. Therefore:

Recording Industry majors with a Music Business concentration are required to select one of their two minors from the following: Business Administration, Marketing, or Entrepreneurship. The second minor must be from outside the College of Business and must be chosen from among the following: Computer Science, Electro-Acoustics, Electronics, Entertainment Technology, Film Studies, Mass Communication, Music, Music Industry, and Theatrical Design. Courses may not be used to satisfy requirements for more than one minor or for a minor and the major.

Recording Industry majors with a Production and Technology concentration must choose minors from among the following: Business Administration, Computer Science, Electro-Acoustics, Electronics, Entertainment Technology, Entrepreneurship, Film Studies, Marketing, Mass Communication, Music, Music Industry, and Theatrical Design. Note that only one of the two can be from Entertainment Technology and Theatrical Design. Only one of the two can be from Music and Music Industry. Only one of the two can be from Business Administration, Marketing, and Entrepreneurship. Only one of the two can be from Electronics and Electro-Acoustics.

Courses may not be used to satisfy requirements for more than one minor or for a minor and the major.

All minors require a minimum 2.00 GPA in the minor coursework to graduate.

Students who intend to pursue an M.B.A. after graduation should select the Business Administration minor as one of their minors.

Requirements for the minors are listed below.

Business Administration Minor

Required Courses in Minor:

ACTG	211	Principles of Accounting I
ACTG	212	Principles of Accounting II OR
ACTG	300	Survey of Accounting for General Business
INFS	220	Introduction to Microcomputers OR
INFS	310	Principles of Management Information Systems
FIN	300	Principles of Financial Management
BLAW	340	Legal Environment of Business
MGMT	361	Prin. of Management and Organizational Behavior
MKT	382	Principles of Marketing

Total hours in Business Administration Minor: 18/21

NOTES: The Business Administration minor requires a 2.00 GPA on all coursework in the minor in order to graduate.
Upper-division courses in Business may not be taken until the student is a junior.

Computer Science Minor

CSCI	117	Computer Science I
CSCI	217	Computer Science II
CSCI	316	Introduction to Assembly Language

Plus 7 additional hours of elective coursework in computer science.

Total hours in Computer Science Minor: 18

NOTES: Selection of upper-division Computer Science electives must be approved by the Computer Science minor advisor.
Courses listed as Computer Science service courses and CSCI 342 do not count toward a minor in Computer Science.
Credit in secondary computer languages is limited to three hours for the minor in Computer Science.
Recording Industry majors electing the Computer Science minor are required to maintain a 2.0 GPA on all coursework in the minor in order to graduate.

Electro-Acoustics Minor

MATH	122	Calculus I
PHYS	160	Physics of Music*
ET	361	Introduction to Electricity and Electronics
PHYS	331	Concepts and Applications of Digital Electronics
PHYS	335	Concepts and Applications of Analog Electronics

Elective Courses in Minor (choose one):

PHYS	300	Acoustics and Signal Analysis
ET	362	Digital Circuits Fundamentals
ET	366	Communication Electronics

Total hours in Electro-Acoustics Minor: 21/22

Course may not be taken to satisfy both major and minor requirements.*

NOTES: Recording Industry majors electing the Electro-Acoustics minor are required to maintain a 2.00 GPA on all coursework in the minor in order to graduate.

Electronics Minor

Required Courses in Minor

ET	361*	Introduction to Electricity and Electronics
ET	362	Digital Circuits Fundamentals
ET	363	Electronics I

Elective Courses in Minor (choose two):

ET	364	Digital Circuits Design
ET	365	Introduction to Microprocessor
ET	366	Communication Electronics
ET	367	Computer Assisted Printed Circuit Board Design
ET	460	Programmable Logic Controllers
ET	461	Instrumentation and Control
ET	463	Local Area Networks
ET	464	Industrial Electricity
ET	466	Microprocessor Interfacing
ET	467	Microprocessor Design

Total hours in Electronics Minor: 18/20

Or ET 360 - Prerequisite: MATH 122*
NOTES: Recording Industry majors electing the Electronics minor are required to maintain a 2.00 GPA on all coursework in the minor in order to graduate.*
Minors in Electronics are urged to be aware of course prerequisites and co-requisites.
The prerequisite for ET 361 is MATH 141 or MATH 121.
As a prerequisite, ET 361 replaces ET 360 for students minoring in Electronics.

Entertainment Technology Minor

This minor is to consist of 21 hours of coursework. The courses must be selected from the approved list below. Courses taken to meet major field of study requirements or electives or other minor requirements or electives can not be counted toward this minor.

Select 21 hours from the list below:

CSCI	115	Computer Orientation
ETIS	131	Basic Technical Drawing and Sketching
ET	361	Introduction to Electricity and Electronics
ET	464	Industrial Electricity
PHYS	160	Physics of Music
SPEE	233	Stagecraft
SPEE	334	Make-Up Techniques for Performers
SPEE	342	Introduction to Theatrical Costume
SPEE	419	Theatrical Costume Technology
SPEE	439	A-Z Problems in Theatre
SPEE	440	Stage Lighting
SPEE	454	Advanced Scenic Design
SPEE	466	Special Effects Make-Up
SPEE	476	Advanced Study in Theatrical Costume Design
RIM	301/303	Audio For Media and Intro to Recording Studio (not for RI majors)
RIM	419	Principles and Practices of Electronic Music (not for RI Production and Technology majors)
RIM	429	Electronic Music II
RIM	432	Concert Promotion
RIM	440	Techniques of Recording (not for RI Production & Technology majors)
RIM/RATV	458	Disk-Based Audio Post-Production
RIM	465	Advanced Technology of Recording
RIM/RATV	460	Electronic Multimedia Production
RIM	491	Advanced Seminar - Production
RATV	304	Electronic Graphics for Television
RATV	312	Sight, Sound and Motion
RATV	313	Television Production
RATV	314	Multi-Camera Directing and Producing
RATV	315	Single-Camera Directing and Producing
RATV	330	Introduction to Digital Animation
RATV	331	Intermediate Digital Animation
RATV	342	Corporate Video
RATV	491P	Advanced Seminar - Electronic Media Production
PHOT	205	Basic Black and White Photography

Total hours in Entertainment Technology Minor: 21

NOTES: Recording Industry majors electing the Entertainment Technology minor are required to maintain a 2.00 GPA on all coursework in the minor in order to graduate.*
Minors in Entertainment Technology are urged to be aware of course prerequisites and co-requisites.

Entrepreneurship Minor

Required Courses in Minor:

BMOM	140	Introduction to Business
BMOM	290	Entrepreneurship
ACTG	300	Survey of Accounting for General Business
FIN	300	Principles of Financial Management
MGMT	361	Principles of Management
MKT	382	Principles of Marketing
MGMT	492	Small Business Management

Total Hours in Entrepreneurship Minor: 21

Note: Recording Industry majors electing the Entrepreneurship minor are required to maintain a 2.00 GPA on all coursework in the minor in order to graduate.*
Upper-division courses in Entrepreneurship may not be taken until the student is a junior.

Film Studies Minor

Select 18 hours from the list below:

ART	494	Film as Art
ENGL	308	Women and Film
ENGL	365	Literature and Film
ENGL	366	Film Genre
ENGL	367	Film History
ENGL	465	Film Theory and Criticism
ENGL	486	Special Topics in Film Studies
FREN	415	Topics in French Film
JOUR/RATV	300	Introduction to Motion Pictures
P S	310	Politics and Film
RIM	457	The Art of Soundtrack Design
SOC	420	African-American Film, Theatre, and Television Images
PHIL	360	Philosophy and Film

Total hours in Film Studies Minor: 18

NOTES: No more than 9 hours may be taken in any single department.*
Minors in Film Studies must take courses from at least three of the nine participating departments.
Recording Industry majors electing the Film Studies minor are required to maintain a 2.00 GPA on all coursework in the minor in order to graduate.

Marketing Minor

Required Courses in Minor:
MKT 382 Principles of Marketing
ACTG 211 Principles of Accounting I OR
ACTG 300 Survey of Accounting for General Business
BLAW 340 Legal Environment of Business OR
BLAW 345 Unfair Trade Practices and Consumer Protection
Plus 12 hours of marketing electives

Total hours in Marketing Minor: 21

NOTES: Recording Industry majors electing the Marketing minor are required to maintain a 2.00 GPA on all coursework in the minor in order to graduate.
Transfer students minoring in Marketing must complete a minimum of 9 of the 15 hours of coursework in marketing at Middle Tennessee State University.
Upper-division courses in Marketing may not be taken until the student is a junior.

Mass Communication Minor

Required Courses in Minor
JOUR/
RATV 221 Understanding Mass Media
Plus 15 additional hours of elective coursework in the College of Mass Communication.

Total hours in Mass Communication Minor: 18

NOTES: Recording Industry majors electing the Mass Communication minor must take 9 hours of upper-division mass communication electives.
Applied credit in this minor for Recording Industry majors must be from courses in the College of Mass Communication outside of Recording Industry.
Recording Industry majors electing the Mass Communication minor may not apply JOUR/RATV 358 or JOUR/RATV 400 in the Mass Communication minor.
Recording Industry majors electing the Mass Communication minor are required to maintain a 2.00 GPA on all coursework in the minor in order to graduate.

Music Minor

Required Courses in Minor
MUTH 111 Theory and Aural Skills I
MUTH 112 Theory and Aural Skills II
4 semesters of private instruction in one field
2 semesters of ensemble participation

Required Courses in Minor (choose one option):
Option #1
MUHL 210 Introduction to Music
And one course chosen from:
MUHL 309 History of Jazz
MUHL 312 Masterworks of Classical Music
MUHL 313 Survey of World Music
MUHL 367 History of Popular Music in America
Option #2
MUHL 161 Music History I
MUHL 162 Music History II
MUHL 261 Music History III

Total hours in Music Minor: 20/23

NOTES: The minor in Music does not lead to teacher licensure.
Recording Industry majors electing the Music minor are required to maintain a 2.00 GPA on all coursework in the minor in order to graduate.

Music Industry Minor

Required Courses in Minor:
MUTH 111 Theory and Aural Skills I
MUTH 112 Theory and Aural Skills II
Plus 12 hours chosen from:
MUHL 161 Music History I
MUHL 367 History of Popular Music in America*
MUHL 210 Introduction to Music
MUTH 429 Electronic Music II*
MUTH 211 Theory and Aural Skills III
MUTH 212 Theory and Aural Skills IV
MUTH 302 Commercial Songwriting
MUTH 413 Instrumentation
MUTH 417 Commercial Arranging
(requires all theory courses or permission of instructor)
MUTH 418 Improvisation I
(requires MUTH 111 or permission of instructor)
MUTH 419 Principles and Practices of Electronic Music*
MUTH 459 MIDI Studio Techniques*
A maximum of 4 hours of private instruction or ensemble may be counted toward the Music Industry Minor

Total hours in Music Industry Minor: 20

Indicates course may not be counted toward both major and minor requirements.*
NOTES: Recording Industry majors electing the Music Industry minor are required to maintain a 2.00 GPA on all coursework in the minor in order to graduate.

Theatrical Design

Select 21 hours from the list below:
SPEE 233 Stagecraft
SPEE 334 Make-up Techniques for Performers
SPEE 342 Introduction to Theatrical Costumes
SPEE 419 Theatrical Costume Technology
SPEE 427 Theatrical Costume Design
SPEE 434 Scene Design
SPEE 439 A-Z Problems in Theatre
SPEE 440 Stage Lighting
SPEE 454 Advanced Scenic Design
SPEE 464 Topics in Scenography
SPEE 466 Special Effects Make-Up
SPEE 474 Advanced Lighting Design
SPEE 476 Advanced Study in Theatrical Costume Design

Total hours in Theatrical Design Minor: 21

NOTES: Courses taken to meet major field of study requirements or other minor requirements may not be counted toward this minor.
Recording Industry majors electing the Theatrical Design minor are required to maintain a 2.00 GPA on all coursework in the minor in order to graduate.

NOTE: Students should see their advisors to develop their individual schedules. Certain prerequisites and sequences in particular major con- centration and minors require special attention. For example, the sequence of courses such as RIM 123 for Production and Technology concentration majors, MUTH 111 and 112 for Music Industry minors, and ACTG 211 and 212 for Business Administration minors must be considered.

Minor in Recording Industry for Non-majors

The minor in Recording Industry consists of 18 semester hours including RIM 300 and 360 and 12 hours of Recording Industry electives as approved by the minor advisor. MUHL 367 may not be used to meet both major and minor requirements. Students must maintain a 2.00 average in the Recording Industry minor.

Courses in Recording Industry [RIM]

123 Musicianship for Engineers. Three credits. A variety of music subjects explored within the context of commercial music as related to audio recording and production. Specific topics include music fundamentals, commercial music theory, commercial form and styles, and basic aural and keyboard skills. Students who have passed MUTH 111 with a grade of C or better may not enroll in RIM 123 for credit.

300 History of the Recording Industry. Three credits. Traces the development of the technology, business, major record labels, and the music recorded as well as significant individuals in these areas.

301 Audio for Media. Three credits. Corequisite: RIM 303. Examines theories and technology used in audio production for music, radio, TV, and film. Provides the management-oriented student with a useful vocabulary covering the area of audio production and provides the production-oriented student with the basic theory upon which production skills can be built.

302 Commercial Songwriting. Three credits. (Same as MUTH 302.) Prerequisites: RI majors - admission to candidacy and RIM 123 or MUTH 111 or permission of instructor; others - permission of instructor. Organization of ideas, words, and music into the writing of popular songs. Analysis of songwriting trends. Students expected to play guitar or piano and sing.

303 Intro to the Recording Studio. One credit. Corequisite: RIM 301. Provides an opportunity for reinforcement of audio theory and technology discussed in Audio for Media. Provides reinforcement and extension of concepts necessary for successful achievement in subsequent audio production and technology courses in the Recording Industry sequence.

310 Music as Popular Culture. Three credits. (Same as JOUR 310.) Prerequisites: RI majors - admission to candidacy; others - permission of instructor. Introduces range of scholarly approaches to the study of popular music. Encourages perspectives other than those of "producer" or "consumer." Requires application of analytic and critical methods in research paper assignments. Writing intensive.

345 Advanced Musicianship for Engineers. Three credits. Prerequisite: RIM 123 or MUTH 111. (Not available to students enrolled in or who have completed MUTH 112.) Continuation of RIM 123. Furthering the application of musical concepts previously learned to popular music. Topics include syncopation, modulation, two-handed accompaniment patterns, and selected secondary chords. Introduction to music notation software and the preparation of a lead sheet.

350 Lecture Series. One credit. Prerequisites: RI majors - admission to candidacy. Major executives, producers, and others in the recording industry speak to students about contemporary topics in the music business. May be taken only once for credit toward the major. Pass/Fail.

358 RIM Practicum. One to three credits. Prerequisites: RI majors-admission to candidacy, approval of instructor prior to enrollment, and approved application. On-campus experiences in and related to the recording industry. Course may be repeated up to three times, but no more than six total credits toward the major allowed for RIM 358, RIM 400, and RIM 401. Pass/Fail.

360 Survey of the Recording Industry. Three credits. Examination of the industry including, but not limited to, artist development, songwriting, publishing, record companies, record marketing and promotion, copyright, performance rights, and careers.

365 Free Expression, Mass Media, and the American Public. Three credits. (Same as JOUR/RATV 365.) A general introduction to the issues surrounding free expression and its relationship with mass media in contemporary America. A comprehensive analysis of the history, philosophies, cases, and controls associated with freedom of expression.

370 Copyright Law. Three credits. Prerequisite: RI majors - admission to candidacy; others - RIM 360. Examination of copyright law with particular reference to the music industry. Emphasis on understanding and applying the law to work in the industry.

372 Artist Management. Three credits. Prerequisite: RI majors - admission to candidacy; others - RIM 360. Examination of the role of recording artists' representatives. Topics include personal appearances, touring, unions, and contractual considerations.

377 Publicity in the Recording Industry. Three credits. Prerequisites: RI majors - admission to candidacy and JOUR 271; others-RIM 360 and JOUR 271. Experience in creating publicity materials and developing media relations, press releases, press kits, and publicity campaigns.

389 International Recording Industry. Three credits. Prerequisites: RI majors - admission to candidacy; others - RIM 360. Cultural, media, business, and legal aspects of making and selling records on a worldwide basis. Specific studies in foreign record company operations, i.e., production, distribution, marketing, promotion, and licensing. Immigration, union, and tax implications of artists recording abroad.

390 Music Publishing. Three credits. Prerequisites: RI majors - admission to candidacy and RIM 370; others - RIM 360 and 370. Operations and functions of music publishing industry including songwriter-publisher relations. Primary thrust is popular music publishing, but art, religious, and educational music also discussed.

400 Recording Industry Internship: Business. One to six credits. Prerequisites: Senior standing (90 hours), Music Business subcore, and approved internship application. Practical experience for advanced students in a professional recording industry setting. This course may be repeated for additional credit. No more than six hours toward the major are allowed for RIM 358, RIM 400, and RIM 401. Pass/Fail.

401 Recording Industry Internship: Technology. One to six credits. Prerequisites: Senior standing (90 hours), Production and Technology sub-core, and approved internship application. Practical experience for advanced students in a professional recording industry setting. This course may be repeated for additional credit. No more than six hours toward the major are allowed for RIM 358, RIM 400, and RIM 401. Pass/Fail.

419 Principles and Practices of Electronic Music. Three credits. (Same as MUTH 419.) Three credits. Prerequisites: RI majors - admission to candidacy and RIM 123 or MUTH 111; others - RIM 301, RIM 123, or MUTH 111 or permission of instructor. History and techniques of electronic music including analog and digital sound generation and manipulation, control systems, MIDI, Macintosh basics, and an introduction to sequencer and editor/librarian software. Laboratory required.

420 Applied Digital Audio. Three credits. Prerequisites: RI majors - admission to candidacy; others - permission of instructor. An overview of digital audio technology. Emphasis on conceptual design of analog to digital and digital to analog converters and current trends in digital audio technology. Extensive hands-on experience in a digital audio workstation environment. Laboratory required.

429 Electronic Music II. Three credits. (Same as MUTH 429.) Prerequisites: RI majors - admission to candidacy and RIM/MUTH 419; others - RIM/MUTH 419. Advanced techniques of sound manipulation and introduction to digital sampling, alternate controllers, and MIDI control of effects devices. Advanced sequencing including modular composition, remote controls, and MIDI automation. Laboratory required.

432 Concert Promotion. Three credits. Prerequisites: RI majors - admission to candidacy; others - RIM 360. An in-depth study of the theoretical and practical aspects of presenting contemporary arts and entertainment performances. Topics include talent acquisition, contracts and riders, production, venues, budgeting, ticket services, and promotion.

440 Techniques of Recording. Three credits. Prerequisites: RI majors - admission to candidacy and RIM 123; others - permission of instructor. Develops an understanding of the techniques and technology involved in modern multi-track recording and mixing. Extensive hands-on experience. Laboratory required.

444 Critical Listening. Three credits. Prerequisites: RI majors - admission to candidacy, RIM 440, and permission of instructor; others - permission of instructor. Ear-training and aesthetics for recording engineers. Class activities involve listening and analysis of master tape and disc formats. Sources include a wide variety of music genres as well as specialized technical ear-training materials. Development of a vocabulary for communication of aural impressions. Introduction to "high-end" audio.

456 Concepts and Development of Multichannel Audio. Three credits. Prerequisites: RI majors - admission to candidacy; others - permission of instructor. Overview of multichannel audio technology. History and development of multichannel audio systems for film soundtracks and music production. Mathematical conceptualizations of these systems and current trends in multichannel digital audio technology presented.

457 The Art of Soundtrack Design. Three credits. Prerequisite: RI majors - admission to candidacy; others - RIM 301/RIM 303 or RATV 312 or ENGL 465. Examines the creative use of sound in film and theatre through critical listening to various soundtracks. The theory and practice of sound design analyzed and discussed in a lecture-oriented class.

458 Disk-Based Audio Post-Production. Three credits. (Same as RATV 458.) Prerequisites: RI majors - RIM/MUTH 419, RIM 420, RIM 440, and RATV 312; RATV majors - RATV 312, and 313; all others - permission of instructor. An advanced, hands-on approach to the principles of tapeless digital recording on a variety of digital workstate platforms. In-depth discussions of disk-based digital audio, synchronization, audio for video and film, and multichannel sound mixing techniques. Focuses on use of digital audio workstations in an audio post-production environment. Laboratory required.

459 MIDI Studio Techniques. Three credits. (Same as MUTH 459.) Prerequisites: RI majors - admission to candidacy, RIM/MUTH 429, and RIM 440; others - RIM/MUTH 429 and RIM 440 or permission of instructor. MIDI systems design and the total integration of all MIDI-controllable devices. SMPTE and MIDI Time Code and their application to tape synchronization. A continuation of advanced techniques for digital sampling, sequencing, sound manipulation, and use of alternate controllers. Other topics include sound effects and music scoring for film and video, and the MIDI Machine Control and MIDI Show Control specifications. Laboratory required.

460 Electronic Multimedia Production. Three credits. (Same as RATV 460.) Prerequisites: RI majors - admission to candidacy, CSCI 115 or INFS 220, PHOT 320, and RIM/MUTH 419; RATV majors - CSCI 100, PHOT 320, and RATV 330; all others - permission of instructor. An advanced, hands-on approach to the principles of electronic multimedia production. A systems integration approach utilized to effectively combine text, graphics, digital video, digital audio, two- and three-dimensional animation, and digital images. Students use a variety of authoring software packages and scripting languages and are trained in the use and operation of various hardware and software systems to produce interactive electronic multimedia presentation projects. Laboratory required.

462 Marketing of Recordings. Three credits. Prerequisite: RI majors - admission to candidacy; others - RIM 360. Special emphasis on the particular structures and problems involved in the movement of recordings from manufacturer to the buying public. Topics include product marketing, promotion, and distribution.

463 Recording Industry Research. Three credits. Prerequisites: RI majors - admission to candidacy, RIM 462 or MKT 382, computer literacy, and permission of instructor. Provides hands-on experiences in research in the recording industry. Involvement in group projects to provide music and consumer research services to various clients in the industry. Class is workshop oriented.

465 Advanced Technology of Recording. Three credits. Prerequisites: RI majors - RIM 440; others - permission of instructor. Further study of technology, equipment, and techniques of contemporary multitrack recording. Lecture and lab sessions focus upon specific studio hardware and software as well as preparation for professional work as an assistant (second) engineer. Laboratory required.

466 Advanced Music Engineering. Three credits. Prerequisites: RI majors - RIM 465; all others - permission of instructor. Project-based class emphasizing creative and aesthetic aspects of multitrack music recording. Topics include microphone techniques, session protocols, incorporation of MIDI elements, sample replacement and augmentation, rough mixing, console automation techniques, signal processing and ear-training for recording engineers. Laboratory required.

467 Studio Production. Three credits. Prerequisites: RI majors - admission to candidacy and RIM 465; others - permission of instructor. Laboratory experience and lectures in music, recording techniques, and business designed to develop the abilities needed in becoming an independent producer of contemporary commercial recordings. Laboratory required.

470 Legal Problems of the Recording Industry. Three credits. Prerequisites: RI majors - admission to candidacy and RIM 370; others - RIM 360 and 370. An overview of legal problems encountered in the recording industry with specific attention to contractual considerations in recording and producing.

472 Record Retail Operation. Three credits. Prerequisites: RI majors - admission to candidacy and MKT 382 or RIM 462; others - RIM 360 and MKT 382. Problems and practices of recording industry retailers, including pricing, inventory control, advertising, operations, and retail locations for audio and video recordings and printed music.

473 The A&R Function. Three credits. Prerequisites: RI majors - completion of Music Business or Production and Technology sub-core. Role and responsibilities of a record company's artist and repertoire department. Emphasis on finding and guiding an artist through the administration of the production and marketing of a project.

474 Studio Administration. Three credits. Prerequisite: RI majors - admission to candidacy; others - permission of instructor. Applications course involving the administrative functions of recording studio operations, including accounting, marketing, personnel, planning, and computer applications.

480 Understanding the Nashville Music Business—Past and Future. Three credits. Prerequisites: Concurrent with or subsequent to RIM 400 or RIM 401. Acquaints interns and students working in the Nashville music industry with industry practices through a historic perspective and through conducting a research project.

481 Topics in Recording Industry. Three credits. Prerequisite: RI majors - admission to candidacy. Examination and critical evaluation of current issues related to the operation and function of various aspects of the recording industry. Subject matter varies. Course may be repeated one time for additional credit.

483 Recording Studio Maintenance. Three credits. Prerequisites: RI majors - admission to candidacy, RIM 440, MATH 141 or higher level math (MATH 300 will not fulfill this requirement), ET 360 or ET 361, or permission of instructor; others - permission of instructor. Focuses on studio maintenance and troubleshooting techniques. Includes soldering, wiring standards, machine alignment, and system architecture. Laboratory required.

490 Individual Problems in the Recording Industry. One to three credits. Prerequisites: RI majors - admission to candidacy, approved application, and permission of department. Advanced project in production or music business. Students submit applications to production and technology or music business faculty committees. Once approved, a determination is made as to credit to be awarded. Project is reviewed by a panel of three faculty members to determine grade. No more than three credits toward the major are allowed.

491 Advanced Production Seminar. Three credits. Prerequisites: RI majors - admission to candidacy and permission of instructor only. The conceptualization, management, and production of a specific program format integrating theory and skills from other RATV/RIM courses. Sports, music, and drama are probable topics. Topics will vary by semester offering.

Student Access to Educational Records

Definitions

Educational Records are those records, files, documents, and other materials which (1) contain information directly related to a student; and (2) are maintained by Middle Tennessee State University or by a person acting for the University. "Records" means information recorded in any medium, including, but not limited to, the following: handwriting, print, tapes, film, microfilm, and microfiche. Educational records do not include (1) personal notes, (2) records available only to law enforcement personnel, (3) employment records, (4) medical and psychiatric records (these are accessible by the student's physician).

A student is any person who is or has been enrolled at Middle Tennessee State University. An applicant who does not enroll or who is declared ineligible has no inherent right to inspect his or her file. Wherever "student" is used in reference to personal rights, an eligible parent of a dependent student has similar rights. This "eligible" parent is one who has satisfied Section 152 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 and who presents such proof to the custodian of the educational records. Normally this proof will be a certified copy of the parent's most recent Federal Income Tax Form.

Directory information includes the student's name, address (including e-mail), telephone listing, date and place of birth, major field of study, enrolled hours, student level (freshman, sophomore, etc.) participation in officially recognized activities and sports, weight and height of members of athletic teams, dates of attendance, degrees and awards received, and the most recent previous educational agency or institution attended by the student. A student may request that such directory information not be released to anyone other than those persons defined as school officials. To do so, a Request for Non-Release of Directory Information must be signed in the Records Office, Cope Administration 106.

The request is valid until the student completes a Cancellation of Request for Nonrelease of Directory Information form at the Records Office or until enrollment ceases at MTSU. If the student re-enrolls and does not want directory information released, another Request for Nonrelease of Directory Information form must be completed.

A school official is a person employed by the university as an administrator, instructor, supervisor, or support staff member.

A legitimate educational interest exists if the official needs to review an educational record in order to fulfill his or her professional responsibility.

Having access to an educational record means being allowed to see the original record.

Release of Personally Identifiable Student Educational Records

Middle Tennessee State University shall not permit access to, or the release of, any information in the educational records of any student that is personally identifiable, other than directory information, without the written consent of the student, to any party other than the following:

1. MTSU officials and staff who have legitimate educational interests;
2. officials of other schools in which the student seeks admission;
3. appropriate persons in connection with a student's application for, or receipt of, financial aid;
4. federal or state officials as defined in paragraph 99.37 of the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974;
5. state and local officials authorized by state statute;
6. organizations conducting studies for, or on the behalf of, MTSU for the purpose of assisting in accomplishing the University's stated goals, when such information will be used only by such organizations and subsequently destroyed when no longer needed for the intended purpose;
7. accrediting organizations, to carry out their functions;
8. parents of a dependent student as defined in section 152 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (Written consent may be allowed from either of these separated or divorced parents subject to any agreement between the parents or court order. In the case of a student whose legal guardian is an institution, a party independent of the institution, appointed under state and local law to give parental consent, may be allowed to do so.);
9. in compliance with judicial order or subpoena, provided that the student is notified in advance of the compliance unless the issuing court or agency has ordered that the existence or the contents of the subpoena or the information furnished not be disclosed; or
10. appropriate persons in connection with an emergency if such knowledge is necessary to protect the health or safety of a student or other persons.

NOTE: With the exception of MTSU officials and staff who have been determined by the University to have legitimate educational interests, all individuals and agencies who have requested or obtained access to a student's record (other than directory information) will be noted in a record which is kept with each student's Educational Record. A request must be in writing stating the purpose of the request. This record will also indicate specifically the legitimate interest that the persons or agency had in obtaining the information.

Procedures for Accessing Educational Records

Eligible students have a right to inspect and review their educational records. To do so the student must request the custodian make the records available. The student may ask for an explanation and/or a copy of the record. (The price of the copies shall not exceed the cost of duplicating the record.) The records shall be made available within 45 days from the request. After consultation with the custodian the student may seek amendment of the records the student believes to be inaccurate, misleading, or otherwise in violation of the student's privacy rights. If there is a disagreement between the student and the custodian as to the correctness of the data contained in the record, the student may submit a request for a formal hearing. The request and the formal challenge to the content of the records must be presented in writing to the chair of the Student Appeals Committee. The chair shall call a meeting no later than 45 days after receipt of the written appeal and challenge. The committee will allow the student to present evidence to substantiate appeal and shall render a written decision to the student within 45 days after the meeting.

Complaints of alleged failure of the institution to comply with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act may be filed with the Family Policy Compliance Office, U.S. Department of Education, 400 Maryland Avenue, SW, Washington, DC 20202-4605.

NOTE: This procedure does not provide for a hearing to contest an academic grade.

Exclusions

Right of access does not include

1. financial records of parents or any information therein;
2. confidential letters and statements of recommendation which were placed in the educational record of a student prior to January 1, 1975;
3. records to which access has been waived by a student. (This applies only if a student, upon request, is notified of the names of all persons making confidential recommendations and if such recommendations are used solely for the purpose they were intended.)

Destruction of Educational Records

Educational records may be destroyed except that a student shall be granted access prior to destruction if such is requested.

Informing Students

MTSU informs its students of the policy governing privacy rights of students' educational records by publishing the policy in the University Catalog. A listing of the types of records and related information follows.

Information That Will Help You

Please Read Carefully!

This booklet contains the schedule of courses for Fall 1999 including evening, off-campus, and distance learning courses. It serves both undergraduate and graduate students.

Academic Advising

Don't risk delaying your graduation by taking the wrong classes or in the wrong order—see your academic advisor before you select classes. If you don't know who your advisor is, see page 6 and call the appropriate department or the advisor for your college.

Schedule Book Changes

This course schedule book contains information in existence at the time of publication. The University reserves the right to make necessary changes at any time in costs, policies, administrative procedures, and applicable state and federal laws. It may be necessary for modifications to be made in the meeting times, location, and listed teachers of courses. See current listing of available sections and schedule notes at http://www.mtsu.edu/~records/schedule.html or WebMT.

Notes - Specific Course Information

Some courses have special restrictions as noted in the schedule book and/or catalog. Please remember that you are responsible for being aware of these requirements when you register. Also see schedule notes at http://www.mtsu.edu/~records/schedule.html.

Violations

Transactions made through TRAM and WebMT are monitored. Access is controlled by a personal access code (PAC) and the student's social security number. Unauthorized use to alter or attempt to alter another student's personal access code or class schedule may result in disciplinary action including suspension or termination. Reserving seats in classes for those who have later registration appointment times is prohibited and may result in suspension or termination for all students involved.

When IS Registration?

Priority Registration is April 5-16. Selection of classes is almost continuous once Priority Registration begins. Remember, the earlier you select your classes, the more likely you are to get the classes you want. If you are a current student, check the top right corner of your personal data form (PDF) for your date and time to register. You may register then or anytime thereafter during registration. Note on the TRAM and WebMT menus that you can do much more than register. If you lose or did not receive your PDF, access TRAM or WebMT for your assigned time.

When ARE Fees Paid?

The deadline for paying fees depends on when you choose your classes. You can pay via TRAM, in person, or by mail. Remember, if you receive any kind of financial aid or if your fees are paid by someone else (for example, your employer, a governmental agency, or through a graduate assistantship), the fee deadline is also your deadline for notifying the Business Office that you plan to attend (Confirmation option on the TRAM and WebMT menus.). If you don't meet the deadline that corresponds to the time you selected classes, your class schedule will be deleted from the computer.

When DO I Register?

Current students are assigned a specific date and time to register during Priority Registration, April 5-16.

New undergraduate students participate in CUSTOMS orientation and will register during New Student Priority Registration at that time. Dates are in the calendar on pages 2-3.

Former students (not enrolled Spring '99) readmitted for Fall '99 will receive registration clearance from Admissions.

New Fall '99 graduate students will receive registration clearance from Graduate Studies. Classes can be selected as indicated.

Calendar: Important Dates for Fall 1999

TRAM - 898-2000 (on campus dial 9-898-2000)

WebMT - http://www.mtsu.edu

Registration Help Line (615) 898-5094

Attention: You must be admitted to the University prior to registering for classes.

Once registration for Fall Term begins, it is anticipated that the telephone and web registration system will be available seven days a week from 7 a.m. until 11 p.m. for students to register, drop/add, inquire about classes, etc. (See calendar on pages 2-3 for specific dates and times.) There will be a few days when the systems are not available due to bill processing, posting of grades, and census reporting. Every effort is made to have them available as indicated. However, unscheduled interruptions may occasionally occur.

Students enrolled or re-enrolled prior to April 17 are assigned a registration time and may register at that time or anytime thereafter. Current students who have not received a PDF may call TRAM for their assigned times. Students who attempt to register on WebMT before their appointment time will be informed of their registration time. New undergraduate students may register when they participate in CUSTOMS orientation.

Course Selection Procedures

1. Consult your academic advisor about proper course selection.
2. Complete worksheet found in the back of this book.
3. Access TRAM or WebMT to register. Using a touch-tone telephone, call (615) 898-2000 (or 9-898-2000 if on campus). This is not a toll-free number. (TRAM is unavailable via some on-campus courtesy phones.) Access WebMT at www.mtsu.edu at your assigned time.

Registration Tips

1. Complete the worksheet found in the back of this book before registering. Be prepared with a schedule that includes accurate call numbers and alternate sections/courses. You are responsible for registration fees for all classes added when fee is appropriate.

   NOTE: There is a time-out period if a selection is not made.
2. Students having a hold on their records may drop courses but may not add a course until the hold is cleared. Check the status of courses you wish to add before dropping other courses from your schedule. If possible, add before dropping courses. (This may not be possible in time-conflict or overload situations.)
3. If you do not plan to attend MTSU this term and you wish to drop from ALL classes, call TRAM or use WebMT by August 22.
4. To change sections of the same course number, drop the current section in which you are enrolled before requesting the new section to be added to your schedule.
5. Students required to get a departmental permit or authorization must register for the course after approval is granted by the department.
6. After the term begins on August 23: If you are dropping a class and adding another class, please note the drop and the add must be processed on the same day. The system cannot exchange the fees from the dropped class for the added class unless they are processed on the same day.

   Additional fees for classes added after fee payment are due August 26. Any unpaid fees after this date will be processed as a deferred payment. The $10 Deferred Payment Plan service fee and any applicable $25 late payment fees will be charged.

   After your initial registration is finalized, if you add a class and decide not to attend the class, you must drop it from your schedule. You will not be automatically dropped from that class by the Business Office. Your fees will be adjusted based on the refund policy in effect on the date of your drop. Please refer to the drop/add refund deadlines in the calendar on pages 2-3.
7. Other questions are answered on page 25.

Your PAC (Personal Access Code) is a confidential number that will be used for all future transactions. PACs will not be issued to a third party.*

Notice to All Students Placed on Academic Suspension After Grading

All students suspended at the end of a term who have pre-registered for classes will have their schedules deleted for the pre-registered term(s). Undergraduate suspended students who wish to appeal to attend the fall term must contact the Records Office, Cope Administration Building 106, for an appeal application. The completed application must be returned to the Records Office by 4 p.m., August 16, 1999; otherwise the appeal will not be accepted.

Graduate students must contact the College of Graduate Studies, Cope Administration Building 114, for an appeal application. The completed application must be returned to the College of Graduate Studies by 4:30 p.m. on August 13, 1999; otherwise, the appeal will not be accepted.

If you choose to attend another institution during your suspension from MTSU, please refer to the "re-enrollee" requirements in the current MTSU catalog. You will need to re-enroll through the Admissions Office.

Graduating Seniors and Graduate Students, Please Note:

To graduate in December 1999, Intention to Graduate forms must be submitted by September 7, 1999.

If you plan to attend MTSU the term following graduation, you must file a re-enrollment form in either the Admissions Office or Graduate Office, depending on your student status.

How Can I Determine Progress Toward Completion of My Degree?

All undergraduate students who enrolled at MTSU in the Fall 1995 term or since are sent a degree audit statement just before priority registration each fall and spring term. The statement is mailed to the campus post office box of those students who have a box and to the permanent address of those without a post office box.

Courses and/or other graduation requirements not yet completed are listed to assist you in planning your class schedule for the upcoming registration. Advisors have access to the degree audit information on their computers. You may also access this information on the Internet from the WebStudent Main Menu (www.mtsu.edu) or from one of the InfoMT kiosks located on campus.

NO SHOTS—NO REGISTRATION

Effective July 1, 1998, the State of Tennessee requires students entering colleges, universities, and technical institutes with enrollment of greater than 200 students to provide proof of two (2) doses of measles, mumps, and rubella (MMR) vaccine on or after the first birthday, or proof of immunity to measles if date of birth is 1957 or after.

Distance Learning

MTSU offers distance learning classes taught by various delivery methods. Distance Learning sections are taught on-line (Internet/ e-mail), by compressed video, correspondence, telecourse, and by video/data conference. Further details may be found in the Distance Learning section beginning on page 152.

MTSU and TSU Educational Consortium

Middle Tennessee State University and Tennessee State University have joined in an educational consortium to provide cross-registration opportunities for undergraduate students enrolled at each institution. MTSU students desiring to register for TSU courses should follow the procedures below.

1. Obtain an "Agreement for Admission and Registration Form" from MTSU Admissions Office, Cope Administration Building 208.
2. Complete top of form.
3. Have appropriate personnel certify accuracy of data on form.
4. Register for MTSU courses; pay fees.
5. Present form to Admissions and Records personnel at TSU.
6. Register for courses at TSU, and present MTSU receipt; pay additional fees to TSU if any.

The two consortium advisors or appropriate members of their staffs will provide information to ease in the transition and registration between institutions.

Enrolling at MTSU

Becoming a student is a four-step process:

1. Admission or Readmission
2. Academic Advising
3. Class Selection by TRAM or WebMT
4. Pay Fees or Confirm That You Will Attend

1. Admission or Re-admission

Undergraduate

STUDENTS IN RESIDENCE during Spring 1999 will be mailed a PERSONAL DATA FORM (PDF) for registration for the fall academic term.

FORMER STUDENTS who were not in attendance during Spring or Summer 1999 must complete a re-enrollment form. Registration information along with specific information concerning selection of classes will be mailed to those students re-entering Fall 1999.

ALL NEW STUDENTS, including part-time students, must complete their admissions credentials and be accepted for admission. General information, registration materials, and new student registration information will be mailed to all accepted students. Applications may be sent during registration, but large numbers of last minute applications will cause processing delays.

To better serve you...

It is important that the Admissions Office personnel have sufficient time to process your application for admission to the University; therefore, persons applying for admission on August 18, 1999, or after may be requested to select classes during the late registration period.

All first-time degree-seeking freshmen under age 21 must present official ACT scores prior to admission. The ACT examination is available on the MTSU campus by contacting the Counseling and Testing Center, Keathley University Center 329, or by calling 898-2670. Additionally, ACT composite and mathematics and English sub-scores will be used to identify students requiring Academic Assessment and Placement Program (AAPP) assessment for purposes of placement. Minimum requirements are that applicants under 21 years of age

1. whose ACT composite score is 18 or lower must complete the AAPP Reading Comprehension test.
2. whose ACT mathematics sub-score is 18 or lower must take the appropriate AAPP mathematics tests as determined by level of high school preparation in mathematics.
3. whose ACT English sub-score is 18 or lower must complete the AAPP Writing Sample.

First-time freshmen who are 21 years of age or older on August 23 or transfer students without previous English or math course work will be required to participate in an additional testing program prior to registration. This additional testing program will help in course placement and may result in requiring some students to enroll in developmental courses as additions to their degree programs.

Students admitted with high school unit deficiencies in English and/or math must complete the appropriate AAPP test, be advised by an academic advisor, and register to take appropriate course(s) upon enrollment to remove deficiencies. Developmental Studies courses and courses taken to remove deficiencies do not count toward the required hours to earn a degree.

Questions concerning undergraduate residency should be directed to the Admissions Office in Cope Administration Building 208 prior to registering for classes.

Note to transient students: Registration at MTSU includes prerequisite checking which may require validation of course completion. Students who are prevented from enrolling in a course due to a prerequisite, but have completed the prerequisite at another institution, should present a transcript to the academic department of the requested course.

Graduate

A POST-BACCALAUREATE STUDENT may receive graduate status by completing a graduate admissions application and submitting it to the College of Graduate Studies, 114 Cope Administration Building. Once graduate status is declared (application entered on computer), a student is eligible to enroll in graduate courses at MTSU and registration materials will be mailed (personal data form and schedule book). The granting of graduate status does not necessarily mean that one has been admitted to a graduate program. In most cases, the total number of graduate hours in which a student may register prior to admission into a graduate program is limited to 12 (6 in Elementary and Special Education). Curriculum and Instruction majors in Elementary Education must meet with an advisor prior to enrolling in graduate classes. Students pursuing an M.Ed. in Administration and Supervision or an Ed.S. in Administration and Supervision or in Curriculum and Instruction in the Educational Leadership Department must be admitted to the program prior to registration for course work. Students pursuing an M.Ed. in Curriculum and Instruction in the Educational Leadership Department must be admitted to the program prior to the completion of 6 hours credit. Students applying to degree programs in Business Administration, Accounting, or Information Systems who have not met admissions requirements cannot take graduate courses but may enroll in undergraduate prerequisites.

A student must file a re-enrollment application if he/she breaks continuous enrollment (except summer term). If granted, the student may re-enroll for the identified term.

For non-degree-seeking post-baccalaureate students, readmission is generally routine and is granted by the dean of the College of Graduate Studies. For degree-seeking students, readmission is not guaranteed. Each graduate program may have a specific readmission policy; students should contact the appropriate department for information. Readmission requires the recommendation of a representative of the graduate program and approval by the dean of the College of Graduate Studies. Some graduate programs regularly allow readmission if the "stop-out" period is no more than one year; others are more restrictive.

AN ADVANCEMENT TO CANDIDACY FORM must be filed and approved prior to completion of 24 credit hours or earlier if required by the graduate program (Criminal Justice 16 hours). Business majors must complete this form upon acceptance into the program. The candidacy form must be approved by the graduate advisor and the dean of the College of Graduate Studies.

Graduate residency questions should be directed to the Graduate Office, Cope 114. See page 7 for the phone number of the graduate liaison for your program.

2. Academic Advising

Undergraduate

Students enrolled during the Spring Term 1999 should consult their advisors prior to registration. New students will be assigned advisors who will help in the selection of classes during CUSTOMS orientation.

Advisors are not required to sign the worksheets; however, all students should obtain their advice before scheduling classes.

Graduate

If you are a degree-seeking student not yet admitted to the graduate program of your choice, upon receiving graduate status you may register for classes. Please contact an advisor prior to registration and submit all admissions materials as soon as possible. If you have not been admitted to a graduate program, registration will not be allowed once you reach the maximum hours allowed by the graduate program. (See above.)

If you are a degree-seeking student admitted to a graduate program, please contact your assigned advisor prior to registration. You must consult with your graduate advisor during your first semester to formulate your curriculum to be assured that the courses you take will apply to your program requirements.

If you are a non-degree-seeking student, not all graduate courses are open to you. Non-degree-seeking students cannot enroll in graduate courses in the College of Business without prior approval by the director of graduate business studies. Non-degree-seeking students are blocked from enrolling in 700-level courses. Consult with the department for specific information.

3. Class Selection by TRAM and WebMT

A Personal Data Form will be mailed to all students enrolled Spring 1999 prior to Fall 1999 registration. The PDF is mailed to the MTSU Post Office box for all full-time students and part-time students who live on campus and have a box or to the permanent address for those who do not have a box. Your date and time to register is printed on the top right corner of your PDF. Current students who do not receive a PDF before Priority Registration should access TRAM or WebMT or contact the Scheduling Center. You cannot select classes if a department has placed a hold on your registration. Be sure to resolve all obligations before registration. Students who owe money to the University must clear debts before registration will be allowed.

Appointment Times

Since all students cannot register at the same time, it is necessary to establish priorities in the assignment of registration times. For currently enrolled students, times are based on the number of cumulative hours earned. Since registration occurs before the end of the term, appointment times do not reflect hours attempted during the current term. If you attempt to register before your assigned time, the registration system will remind you when to register.

Course Availability Information

Open sections of courses and changes and additions are updated periodically on MTSU's web pages and take precedence over information appearing in this schedule of classes. Consult the InfoMT Kiosks and the web at http://www.mtsu.edu/~records/schedule.html or via WebMT.

Night and Off-Campus Classes

Registration: It is not necessary to travel to the campus to register for classes. Please select classes by calling TRAM at (615) 898-2000 on any touch-tone telephone or by accessing our web registration system at www.mtsu.edu. Refer to specific instructions for registration on page 4 of this book.

Off-Campus Registration: Students taking MTSU courses that do not meet on the MTSU campus should register by TRAM or WebMT. Fee payment deadlines and late registration fees apply to all students. Off-campus courses can be found on page 171.

4. Pay Fees/Confirm You Will Attend

Fee Payment information is also available at http://www.mtsu.edu/~bursarmt

Fall 1999 Fee Payment and Financial Aid Disbursement

Final Fee Payment

Two options will be available for students to pay fees on August 10-12.

- Business Office Cashier Windows, Cope Administration Building, 8 a.m.-5:30 p.m.
- TRAM payment by credit card or check card, 7 a.m.-11 p.m. (5:30 p.m. August 12)

Schedules will be deleted if fees are not paid by 5:30 p.m. August 12

Open Registration - August 13-19

Students can register or re-register if their schedules are deleted. The fee payment deadline for students who register during open registration is August 19 at 5:30 p.m.

Financial Aid Refunds

- Direct Deposits. Students who sign up to have their financial aid refund direct deposited to their bank checking or saving accounts can have their refunds as early as August 23. (See Direct Deposit on page 15.)
- Refund checks will be disbursed at James Union Building Tennessee Room this fall. Checks will be available on Thursday, August 26, 9 a.m.-5:30 p.m., and Friday, August 27, 9 a.m.-3:30 p.m. (See page 15.)
  Beginning August 30, refund checks will be available at the cashier windows 9 and 11, Cope Bldg. 8:00 a.m.-4:30 p.m.

Financial Aid Deferments

Financial Aid counselors will be available in the Financial Aid Office during August to assist students who have applied for financial aid, but their aid does not show on their bills, Students can be granted a financial aid deferment only if they have filed their federal application (FAFSA) and have received a student aid report (SAR form) with a valid EFC number. Stafford loans cannot be processed until an SAR is received.

Students who have not received a SAR and submitted a loan application must be prepared to pay their own fees by the fee payment deadline.

TBR, UT, and State employee (PC 191A) fee waiver students can register beginning July 26. See page 12.

NOTE: Students should retain bills, records of payments, and records of financial aid for income tax purposes. Students who pay their own fees or use loans may be eligible for income tax credits and must retain their records.

For Fall Priority Registrants: Fee Payment Deadline Is August 12, 1999

During the last week of July 1999, the Statement of Accounts/Class Schedules for students who pre-register for Fall 1999 will be mailed to the permanent addresses.

Students who want their bills mailed to an address other than their permanent addresses should come to the Business Office before July 20 to set up a special billing address.

If you have not received your bill by August 4, contact the Bursar's Office at (615) 898-2761 or come by the Business Office, Cope Administration Building 103. Failure to receive a bill does not relieve students of the obligation to pay fees by the due date.

Bills will be mailed daily to students who register July 26-August 5. Students who register after August 5 should be prepared to pay fees on TRAM by credit or check card or come in person to the Business Office by August 12.

The Statement of Account should be reviewed carefully to make sure all information is correct. Any changes after the billing date on the statement will change the balance due. If there are questions about your account balance, use the Determine Account Balance option on the TRAM Fee Payment/Confirmation Menu or access WebMT to determine your current balance before payment is mailed.

Students who pre-registered for Fall 1999 can pay fees by credit card or check card on TRAM July 28-August 12. Payments can be made in person at the Business Office July 28-August 12 or by mail July 28-August 9. Mailed payments must be postmarked no later than August 9, 1999.

If fees are paid in full by cash, check, or credit card, your registration is finalized. It is not necessary to also confirm. Your payment is your confirmation. Students who pay the minimum payment do not need to confirm.

Fees must be paid before 5:30 p.m. on Thursday, August 12, or your schedule will be deleted from the computer. That means that if you want to take classes, you have to start the process of selecting courses all over again. Beginning August 23, you will be charged a $25 late registration fee. Previously selected classes will not be reinstated. (See dates on pages 2-3.)

If your fees are paid in full by financial aid, third party, or other credits, you must complete the registration process by confirming that you will be attending MTSU for Fall 1999. To confirm/complete your registration, access TRAM or WebMT. See the menus on page 184. Listening to or reviewing your classes does not complete registration; you MUST select the Confirm You Will Attend option. This will ensure that a code is entered in the computer to hold your classes. If your registration is not completed and a code entered in the computer before 5:30 p.m. on Thursday, August 12, 1999, your schedule will be deleted from the computer.

Fee Payment/Financial Aid Confirmation Options

1. TRAM: July 28-August 12, 1999
   Credit card or check card payment of registration fees by telephone. You can make either credit card or check card payments with Visa or MasterCard on TRAM. Most local banks now have check cards available through Visa or MasterCard which can be used on TRAM to pay registration fees. Call TRAM at (615) 898-2000 to pay registration fees by credit card or to use your bank check card to deduct the amount of your fees from your checking account. Try this TRAM feature for the most convenient payment method available.

2. TRAM or WebMT: July 28-August 12, 1999
   Confirm registration. You must confirm you will attend if fees are paid in full by financial aid, third party, or other credits. Your balance after financial aid is credited must be ZERO or a credit balance to confirm your registration. See the menus on page 184. Select the Confirm You Will Attend option. When you select this option, the system will enter a code in the computer to hold your classes and validate your registration.

3. Mail-in payment: July 28-August 9, 1999
   Payment for the exact amount of fees due must be accompanied by the remittance portion of the statement. Payments must be mailed in time to be postmarked on or before August 9, 1999.

4. Campus Mail: July 28-August 11, 1999
   Payment can be mailed at the Campus Post Office in Keathley University Center or at the blue Campus Mail Drop Box in the parking lot at the west end of the Cope Administration Building. Do not put payments in Campus Mail or the blue Campus Mail Drop Box on August 12.

5. In person: July 28-August 6, 8 a.m.-4:30 p.m.; August 9, 8 a.m.-1 p.m.; August 10-12, 1999, 8 a.m.-5:30 p.m.
   Fees may be paid at the Business Office cashier windows in Cope Administration Building. Students must bring their student IDs and the remittance portion of their bills when they come to pay fees in person. Office hours are 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. weekdays. Hours on August 10-12 are 8 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.

6. Final Fee Payment: August 10-12, 1999
   Students may pay fees on TRAM, 7 a.m.-11 p.m. (7 a.m.-5:30 p.m. August 12) or at the Business Office cashier windows in Cope Administration Building from 8 a.m.-5:30 p.m. TRAM will not be available on August 12 after 5:30 p.m.

   NOTE: Students are advised to consider one of the early fee payment options, mailing the payment, or paying on TRAM. For those who wait until August 10-12 to pay fees in person, parking will be limited and lines may be long.

   Students must bring their student IDs with them to pay registration fees.

   Students MUST come to the Business Office by August 12 to pay fees and complete registration IF:

   a. Fee payment was not mailed and cannot be paid by credit card or check card on TRAM.
   b. Credits for third party, scholarship, employee fee discounts, etc. did not appear on the Statement of Account/Class Schedule. Bring authorization form to the third party clerk at the Business Office.
   c. They registered late and did not receive a bill or have time to mail in their payment by August 9 or cannot pay by credit card or check card on TRAM.
   d. Loan or scholarship checks must be used to pay fees and have not been credited to your account.

Fees must be paid or you must confirm that you will attend MTSU for Fall 1999 by 5:30 p.m. on August 12 or your class schedule will be deleted.

Fee Payment Deadlines for Other Registrations

August 13-19
Fee Payment/Confirmation Deadline - August 19, 5:30 p.m.
Students who register or re-register August 13-19 must pay fees by August 19 at 5:30 p.m. Fees will be payable at the Business Office cashier windows on August 13-19 from 8:00 a.m.-4:30 p.m. (5:30 p.m. August 19). Payments may be paid by credit card on TRAM from August 13-19. Class schedules will be deleted if payment is not made by August 19 at 5:30 p.m.

August 20-24
Fee Payment/Confirmation Deadline - August 26, 5:30 p.m.
Fees will be payable at the Business Office, Cope Administration Building, by the due dates shown above. Payments may be paid by credit card or check card on TRAM August 20-26. A $25 late fee will be charged beginning August 23.

Deferred Payment Plan

Although all charges are due and payable in full at the beginning of each term, students in good financial standing at MTSU may defer payment of up to 50 percent of their registration, housing, and freshmen meal plan fees for the fall and spring semesters. To be eligible for the Deferred Payment Plan, each participant must make a minimum down payment of 50 percent of the registration fees, dorm rent, and freshmen meal plan costs. The balance due must be $400 or more after all discounts, waivers, financial aid, and other credits are applied.

A student who fails to make timely payments in a previous term will be denied the right to participate in the deferred payment plan in future enrollment periods. A student who is denied participation may be allowed to participate again only after completion of payment in full for two consecutive terms which allow deferments (fall or spring terms). Any student who makes payment with a check which is subsequently returned will be denied participation in the Deferred Payment Plan in all future terms.

The amount deferred will be payable in two monthly installments. For the fall term, installment payments are due by October 1 and November 1. The University is not obligated to send reminder notices before the payment is due. Participants in this plan must apply all discounts, waivers, credits and financial aid, including student loans, toward payment of registration fees before a deferment will be considered. Financial aid and other credits received after the initial payment will be applied to the remaining balance, and future amounts due will be recomputed. No refunds can be made until all fees are paid in full.

Students must select either the Deferred Payment Plan or the Housing Deferment Plan.

Students will not be withdrawn for failure to pay the second or third payments. However, the balance must be paid in full before the student can pre-register for future terms even if preregistration is prior to the due date.

Each participant will be charged a $10.00 service fee each term to defray administrative costs. This fee is payable along with the 50 percent down payment on or before the registration fee payment deadline. An additional late payment charge of $25 will be assessed for each installment not paid on or before the tenth day of the month that a payment is due. Students who make payments with checks that are returned will be charged a $20 return check service fee as well as any applicable late fees.

If a payment is not received in the Business Office by the scheduled payment due date, the University will withhold all services from the student, including grades, transcripts, and future registration until the fees have been paid in full including any assessed late fees.

All existing rules and policies pertaining to returned checks, refunds, withdrawals, dropped classes, and collection costs are applicable to the Deferred Payment Plan.

Payment of the minimum amount due on the Deferred Payment Plan finalizes registration. The class schedule will not be deleted. It is not necessary to confirm on TRAM or WebMT. The minimum payment is your confirmation you will attend. A code will be put in the computer to hold your class schedule when the minimum payment is paid.

If you have any questions regarding the Deferred Payment Plan, please contact the Bursar's Office at (615) 898-2761.

Refunds/Withdrawal from Classes

Students who drop or withdraw from classes will still have a balance due under the deferred payment plan. Fees are adjusted based on the drop or withdrawal date. The refund percentage is NOT applied to the amount of payment, but rather as a percentage adjustment of total fees. A refund would only be issued to the student if the newly adjusted amount of fees is less than the amount that has been paid by the student.

Added Classes After Fee Payment

Additional fees for classes added after fee payment are due before the late registration fee payment deadline, or on the same day the class is added if after late registration. Any unpaid fees after this date will be processed as a deferred payment. The $10 Deferred Payment Plan service fee and any applicable $25 late payment fees will be charged.

Payment Methods

1. Personal check or money order. Checks should be made payable to Middle Tennessee State University and include the student's social security number on the face of the check.
2. Visa or MasterCard. Credit card or check card payments can be made by telephone. Call TRAM at (615) 898-2000 (9-898-2000 on campus) to pay registration fees by credit card or to use your bank Visa or MasterCard check card. Students may pay either the full amount due or the minimum payment on the Deferred Payment Plan by credit card or check card on TRAM.
3. Cash. Cash can be taken only at the Business Office Cashier Windows, Cope Administration Building. Do not mail cash.
4. Deferred Payment Plan. See above for information about an option for deferring a portion of your registration fees. (If you are eligible to participate in the Deferred Payment Plan, your bill will show both the Minimum Amount Due and the Total Amount Due. Students who choose to participate in the Deferred Payment Plan simply pay the minimum amount due. The bill will show the due date and amounts of subsequent payments.)
5. Financial Aid, Stafford Loan Credits, or Estimated (pending) Financial Aid. If your bill shows your fees will be paid in full by financial aid, you must confirm you will attend before the fee payment deadline or your class schedule will be deleted. (See How do I confirm?)
6. Perkins or MTSU loan checks. If you are approved to receive a Perkins or MTSU loan, it will show on your bill as estimated aid. All Perkins loan borrowers must come in person and sign promissory notes before Perkins loan funds can be released. Confirm registration as soon as you get your bill, then come to sign notes and endorse checks at the Business Office (Cope 101) on August 23-27.
7. Fee Waivers (PC 191A). If you are a full-time employee of any Tennessee Board of Regents school, the University of Tennessee, or the State of Tennessee (not public school teachers), you are eligible for a fee waiver on the tuition for one (1) class. Fee waiver participants may register beginning July 26. After class selection, completed fee waiver forms should be submitted in person to the Business Office, Cope Administration Building 103, before the fee payment deadline.

   Class Selection - July 26-August 12
   Turn in Fee Waiver Forms by August 12, 5:30 p.m.

   NOTE: Fee Waiver Forms will not be processed if class selection is made prior to July 26. If your class is dropped, you may re-register August 13-19.

   Class Selection - August 13-19
   Turn in Fee Waiver Form by August 19 at 5:30 p.m.

8. Reduced Rate Registration (Senior Adult/Permanently Disabled). Under T.C.A. Section 49-7-113, a student 60 years of age or older or permanently disabled may audit courses with no tuition charge. A student 65 years of age or older or permanently disabled may take classes for credit at a reduced rate of one-half the semester hour rate up to a maximum of $75.00. Registration under these programs is on a space-available basis. Therefore, senior/adult permanently disabled participants cannot Priority Register. Class selection under these programs should be processed on the first day of class for the session. After class selection, authorization memos should be brought in person to the Business Office, Cope Administration Building 103, before the fee payment deadline below. The late registration fee for these program participants will be waived.

Fall 1999 Financial Aid Applications and Deferments

Financial aid deferments for students who have applied for financial aid will be strictly limited for Fall 1999. The only students who may apply for a financial aid deferment are those who have received a student aid report (SAR form) with a valid EFC number. If you have utilized the financial aid deferment in the past, chances are you will NOT be eligible for such a deferment in the future. If your financial aid is not credited to your account by August 6, bring your SAR form to the Financial Aid Office before August 10. Students who have not received an SAR form must be prepared to pay their own fees or their class schedule will be deleted.

Financial Aid Applications for Fall 1999 - Spring 2000

Students should have applied for financial aid by March 15, 1999, to ensure that their financial aid process will be completed and funds available for Fall 1999. Students who have not applied should submit their federal applications (FAFSA) immediately.

Financial Aid information is also available at:
http://www.mtsu.edu/~fin_aid/

How Do I Confirm?

If fees are paid by cash, check, or credit card, registration is validated or finalized. It is not necessary to also confirm on TRAM or WebMT. Your payment is your confirmation. This applies also to students who make the minimum payment on the Deferred Payment Plan. Students must either pay, confirm, get a deferment, or lose their classes.

If fees are paid in full by financial aid, Federal Stafford loans, third party, or other credits, you must complete the registration process by confirming that you will attend MTSU for Fall 1999. To confirm you will attend MTSU this term , access TRAM or WebMT July 28-August 12, 1999, and do the following:

- On TRAM, *select 3 for the Fee Payment Confirmation Menu; then select option 1 to Confirm Your Registration.
- On WebMT, select the Account Balance/Confirm Registration menu, select Confirm Registration, then select Confirm Fall 1999.

See the menus on page 184. Listening to or reviewing your classes does not complete registration; you MUST select the Confirm Your Registration option. When you select this option, the system will enter a code into the computer to hold your classes. If in doubt, try the process again, and the system will tell you if your registration has been confirmed.

If your registration is not confirmed and a code entered in the computer before 5:30 p.m., August 12 , 1999, your class schedule will be deleted. Financial aid refunds cannot be processed until confirmation is completed.

If you decide not to attend MTSU after confirming, you must withdraw from the University. See withdrawal information on page 22.

Graduate Assistantship Fees

If you are a graduate assistant, your assistantship will pay for maintenance, debt service, and technology fees. You will owe a balance for the recreation fee and student activity fees. An in-state graduate assistant taking 9 graduate hours would owe a minimum of $60.00. Graduate assistantships will not normally pay for undergraduate classes. You must pay your balance due (or confirm you will attend if you have other financial aid) by the fee payment deadline or your class schedule will be deleted. If credit for your assistantship does not show on your bill, contact the Graduate Office at 898-5897.

Third Party Sponsorship of Fees

If you are a sponsored student (fees to be billed to an employer, government agency, or foreign embassy), your account should reflect credits for the fees to be paid by your sponsor. If your statement does not show these credits, contact your sponsor to determine if authorization paperwork has been sent to the Business Office, or bring a fee authorization form to the Business Office during the early fee payment period. Payment, whether by check or by third party authorization, is required by the due date or your class schedule will be deleted.

If your fees are PAID IN FULL BY THIRD PARTY (your balance is ZERO or a CREDIT BALANCE on the statement you will receive), you MUST confirm that you will attend before the fee payment deadline or your class schedule will be deleted. (See How Do I Confirm?)

Financial Aid/Loans

The following Financial Aid disbursement procedures, instructions, and dates for Fall 1999 are subject to change. Updated instructions will be provided with the bill you receive in late July and will be available on the MTSU Web site (http://www.mtsu.edu/~bursarmt/) later in the summer.

Please read the following instructions carefully if you have applied for financial aid for Fall '99. If your financial aid has been approved, Estimated Aid (or pending aid) will show on your bill. (See detailed explanation below.)

Estimated Aid will show for Federal Stafford loans once the lender has received a signed promissory note. Estimated Aid will not show for PLUS loans.

If your bill shows your fees will be paid in full by financial aid and/or Estimated Aid, you must confirm you will attend MTSU this fall and finalize your registration before August 12, 1999, at 5:30 p.m. or your class schedule will be deleted. (See How Do I Confirm?)

If fees will not be paid in full by the financial aid credits, the balance due on your bill must be paid before August 12, 1999, at 5:30 p.m. Your class schedule will be deleted if the balance due is not paid.

If you expect to receive financial aid for the term, but awards are not on your bill, contact the Financial Aid Office at (615) 898-2830 or bring your SAR to the Financial Aid Office before August 10 so that problems can be resolved before the fee payment deadline.

You may also access TRAM at (615) 898-2000 or WebMT at http://www.mtsu.edu to check your account balance to determine if an award or loan has been credited to your account after your bill was printed. If your balance due is zero or a credit, you should then confirm you will attend on TRAM or WebMT. (See How Do I Confirm?)

What Is Estimated Aid?

If financial aid credits show on your bill under Estimated Aid (pending aid), these are the amounts of Federal Stafford loans guaranteed, Perkins loans, scholarships, grants, or awards that have been approved for Fall 1999. The actual aid will not be credited to your account until immediately prior to the start of classes and/or until all required paperwork is completed. (PLUS loans will not show as Estimated Aid.)

All Perkins loan borrowers must come in person and sign promissory notes before Perkins loan funds can be released. Confirm registration as soon as you get your bill, then come to sign notes and endorse checks at the Business Office (Cope 101) August 23-27, 1999.

Estimated Aid is for billing and confirmation purposes only. It is not actual aid. It has not been credited to your account. It is pending. If for some reason your actual aid is not processed after you are registered or if you withdraw or otherwise become ineligible before actual aid is applied to your account, you will still be responsible for unpaid fees. Some of the reasons your actual aid may not be credited are that you did not sign your promissory note; you dropped below the required number of hours, you became academically ineligible, you did not make satisfactory academic progress, you did not complete all required paperwork, or you did not have your entrance interview.

If you have applied for a Fall-only Stafford Loan, the estimated aid will include the second disbursement amount. Refund checks for second disbursements will be available beginning October 26.

If you are a freshmen first-time borrower whose Stafford Loan has been approved, the Estimated Aid on your bill will include the amount of your loan disbursement that must be held for 30 days. Refund checks for freshmen first-time borrowers who did not sign up for Direct Deposit will be available beginning September 24.

LOANS—
Federal Stafford, PLUS, Perkins, and MTSU

You must be registered at least half-time to be eligible to receive loan funds (6 undergraduate hours or 5 graduate hours).

First-time borrowers and transfer students must have an entrance interview before Federal Stafford loan funds can be credited to their accounts. A feature available on TRAM will allow first-time loan borrowers and transfer students to complete their loan entrance interview by phone. (See the menus on page 184.) If you have not had an entrance interview, be sure to complete this requirement on TRAM to prevent your loan disbursement from being delayed. Do this as soon as possible after you apply for your loan.

If you are a freshmen receiving a Federal Stafford Loan for the first time, your loan funds must be held for 30 days after you begin class. If your loan does not show on your bill as an Estimated Aid credit, you should make arrangements to pay your fees with either a check or credit card until the loan proceeds can be released. Freshmen should be prepared to pay for their books with their own funds.

Bank Loans - Electronic Fund Transfer (EFT)

All Federal Stafford and Plus Loans must be electronically transferred directly to MTSU from the Bank of Murfreesboro, EdSouth, First Tennessee Bank, SunTrust, or Union Planters.

Based on federal regulations, bank loan funds cannot be transferred in time for the EFT loan credits to show on the bill you receive the last week in July. If you have returned your signed promissory note to your bank and your loan has been guaranteed, your approved Stafford loan will show as Estimated Aid.

When Stafford and PLUS loan proceeds are received electronically, your loan will automatically be transferred to your student account to pay Fall 1999 registration fees, provided you are registered at least half-time, have had your entrance interview, have made satisfactory academic progress, have no financial aid holds, and are otherwise eligible to receive the loan.

How Do I Get My Financial Aid CREDIT BALANCE REFUND?

If you have a credit balance due to financial aid, you must confirm you will attend on TRAM or WebMT before your refund can be direct deposited or your refund check can be processed. Confirm as soon as possible after you receive your bill. (See How Do I Confirm?)

Refunds can be direct deposited to your checking account. Direct deposit refunds for students who meet all eligibility requirements and whose aid is credited to their accounts by August 18 will be available in their bank accounts beginning August 23. See Direct Deposit information below or come by the Business Office, Cope 103, or call (615) 898-5716. You can also obtain a Direct Deposit Authorization Form on page 182 or from http://www.mtsu.edu/~bursarmt/direct.html.

You also have the option of having all or a portion of your credit balance transferred to your RAIDER FUND$ account (See RAIDER FUND$ information on page 21). Information about transferring funds to your RAIDER FUND$ account is available on the web at http://www.mtsu.edu~bursarmt/raidreg.html.

Balances transferred to RAIDER FUND$ will be available for use on August 23 for students to buy books or meal plans, provided transfer requests are received by August 17, 1999. Come by the Business Office (Cashier Window 9 or 11) to request a credit balance transfer to RAIDER FUND$. Students who have a small credit balance (less than $300) may find this a very convenient way to receive their refund and have it immediately available to use to buy books, meals, etc.

If you do not sign up to have your refund direct deposited to your checking account or transferred to your RAIDER FUND$ account, you can pick up your refund checks at your scheduled time at the James Union Building Tennessee Room on August 26-27. Refunds will be available at the Business Office cashier windows 9 and 11 in the Cope Administration Building beginning August 30. You must have an MTSU ID card to pick up any refund check. NO EXCEPTIONS. NOTE: If you do not have an ID, one can be made on the track level of Murphy Center.

James Union Building Tennessee Room Financial Aid Refund Check Disbursement August 26-27

Students who did not sign up for Direct Deposit can pick up refund checks on August 26-27 at the Tennessee Room, according to the sequence below. Students who have a credit balance must call TRAM or access WebMT to confirm their registration before a refund check can be disbursed.

Alphabetic Sequence - Tennessee Room

1:30 p.m. - B
2:00-5:30 p.m. - Open*

Open for any students who cannot come to pick up refund checks at their assigned times.*

How can I get my refund earlier?

Direct Deposit!

Students who sign up for direct deposit will have their deposit sent two or three days before refund checks will be available to students who pick up checks. If you apply for your financial aid early, make satisfactory academic progress, have no financial aid holds, confirm your registration, and meet all other requirements, your refund should be in your checking account one or two days before you can pick up a refund check. If you have a problem, you can still come and pick up your check in person.

If you are not signed up for Direct Deposit by August 10 and need a portion of your refund to buy books on August 23, you have the option of having all or a portion of your refund transferred to your RAIDER FUND$ account. Requests to transfer credits to RAIDER FUND$ must be made at the Business Office (cashier windows 9 or 11) by August 17.

Direct Deposit of Financial Aid Credit Balance Refunds

Avoid the lines! Save time! Get your refund early!
Use the form on page 182 to sign up now!

Students who have a credit balance due to financial aid have the option of having the excess aid balance direct deposited into their checking or savings accounts. If financial aid has been credited to the student's account by August 18, the refund will be deposited into the student's bank account and available for use on August 23 (provided the student has met all financial aid eligibility requirements and has completed all required paperwork). Students must confirm they will attend before their refund can be direct deposited.

Students must complete an authorization form at least 10 days prior to the day their first deposit is made. For the fall term the cut off date is August 10 for the refund to be available on August 23. Financial aid proceeds will not be transferred to the student's banking account without authorization. To obtain an authorization form, come by the Business Office in the Cope Administration Building, Cashier Window 9 or Room 103, or call (615) 898-5716. You can also obtain a Direct Deposit Authorization Form from the web at http://www.mtsu.edu/~bursarmt/direct.html, and a form is provided on page 182 of this book. Forms for fall can be turned in anytime during the fall term prior to August 10.

This authorization will remain in effect until terminated by the student.

Sign up for Direct Deposit and try the most convenient way to get your refund.

How to Apply for Financial Aid

Financial Aid information is also available at: http://www.mtsu.edu/~fin_aid/

STEP 1: Prospective students and their parents should complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) following the instructions very carefully. Forms are available beginning in January for the next Fall, Spring, and Summer semesters. Forms are available from the MTSU Financial Aid Office and most high school guidance counselors.

STEP 2: The FAFSA can be mailed to the processing center in the envelope provided in the application or by completing the FAFSA online on the Internet at the current address http://www.fafsa.ed.gov/. You must use Netscape 3.1 or higher to process your application electronically. Please follow the instructions carefully. The federal processor will not process your application until they receive the "signature page." It generally takes 6-8 weeks for the federal processor to process your application manually and two weeks using the Internet.

STEP 3: When the MTSU Financial Aid Office receives a complete and valid Student Aid Report (SAR), students will receive an award letter stating the tentative financial aid they will be awarded. Please follow instructions carefully. The award letter will show both grants and loans for which the student is eligible. Please remember to write Accept or Reject beside each award, sign the form, and return it to the Financial Aid Office, Cope Building 218. Students wanting a Stafford Loan must submit a Loan Request Sheet (LRS) to the Financial Aid Office.

Scholarship Applications

University scholarship applications are available starting each January for the following school year. Applications are available on the MTSU Financial Aid web page at www.mtsu.edu/~fin_aid, in the Financial Aid Office, or from most Tennessee high school guidance counselors. Awards are based upon ACT scores, GPA as of the seventh semester, and financial need. Please see the Financial Aid web page for a listing of University scholarships.

Students are encouraged to use the Internet for outside scholarship searches. A free scholarship search—www.fastweb.com—is available. Students can also connect to the free scholarship search through the MTSU Financial Aid web home page at www.mtsu.edu/~fin_aid/.

Deadline for Financial Aid Applications

The deadline to apply for federal financial aid is printed on the FAFSA application. MTSU processes these applications as they are received from the U.S. Department of Education. Therefore, all students are encouraged to complete their applications immediately after completing their federal tax forms.

Generally, all campus-based federal aid—SEOG, College Work Study, and Perkins—is awarded for the academic year by May 15. Federal campus-based awards are based upon need, GPA, and the availability of funds. The Tennessee Student Assistance award is determined by the Tennessee Student Assistance Corporation (TSAC). This award is also based upon the availability of funds and the student's need. Tennessee residents are automatically considered for the TSAC grant when they complete the FAFSA application.

Students who apply after all campus-based aid has been awarded are still eligible for the Pell grant. Pell grant amounts are determined by the student's need and the number of hours enrolled.

Federal loans are also available for students to borrow based upon their grade level. All students must have a completed FAFSA on file and have completed a loan request sheet before a loan can be approved by the Financial Aid Office.

Loan eligibility is limited by a student's classification and a lifetime loan limit. The lifetime limit is $23,000 for dependent undergraduates, $46,000 for independent undergraduates, and $138,500 for graduate students. Classification limits for a two-semester loan period are $2,625 for freshmen, $3,500 for sophomores, $5,500 for juniors and seniors, and $8,500 for graduates. Independent students may be eligible for additional unsubsidized loans. Please check the back of the Loan Request Sheet for more information. All loans are based on cost of attendance, EFC, other aid received, and the above loan limits. Students may not be qualified for the full amount listed above. Students must complete the entrance interview requirement on TRAM and be registered at least half-time (6 undergraduate or 5 graduate hours) before a loan can be disbursed.

MTSU Loans

MTSU loans and MTSU Foundation loans are also available. Financial aid, need, GPA, and availability of funds will be considered in awarding these loans. Contact the Financial Aid Office for applications for these loans.

General Financial Aid Information

1. Scholarship application deadline is March 15 for the next school year.
2. Students should have applied for Federal financial aid by completing the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) by March 15. State aid is based on availability of funds which are often depleted by April 15.
3. The priority deadline for awarding campus-based (SEOG, Campus Work Study, or Perkins Loans) is May 15. Students must have a valid FAFSA and have completed the verification process if chosen by the Federal government. This process can take several weeks to complete. The earlier in the year the FAFSA is completed the better the chance of meeting this deadline.
4. All financial aid will be adjusted for class attendance based on the 4th day of classes. Financial aid is based on full-time attendance except for loans which are based on half-time attendance. The student's financial aid will be adjusted accordingly. If a student receives a refund check based on full-time and drops below full-time before the 4th day of classes, the student will have his/her Pell and TSAC award reduced.
5. Class attendance will be verified for disbursements that occur during the semester. If a student is reported as not attending classes on at least a half-time (6 hours) basis, no funds will be disbursed.
6. Financial aid cannot pay for remedial and developmental classes attempted in excess of 30 hours.
7. Students receiving financial aid must declare a major by the time they have earned 60 hours.
8. Any scholarships and grants received in excess of tuition, fees, and books are considered taxable income. Consult your tax preparer for tax filing information.
9. All financial aid is subject to the Financial Aid Satisfactory Progress Policy (below).
10. Graduate students have 12 months after entering graduate school in which to complete prerequisites and receive aid at the undergraduate loan limits.

Financial Aid Satisfactory Academic Progress Policy

Middle Tennessee State University requires students receiving financial aid to make satisfactory academic progress toward completion of their degrees. Federal and state assistance programs also have similar satisfactory academic progress requirements. The current policy is under review and is subject to change.

Satisfactory academic progress will be determined by the following criteria:

1. Students must pass sixty-six (66) percent of their attempted cumulative MTSU credit hours to remain eligible for financial aid. Attempted hours include all courses for academic credit. A withdrawal from a course is considered as hours attempted if a student falls below full-time status.
2. Students who withdraw from the University or who do not earn any credits during a semester will have their financial aid suspended immediately.
3. Students are required to meet the following GPA standards:
   00-29.99 hours attempted .... 1.5 GPA
   30.00-49.99 hours attempted .... 1.8 GPA
   50.00 or more hours attempted .... 2.0 GPA
   Graduate students must maintain at least a 3.0 GPA.

4. Maximum hour limitation on aid:
   a. Students may continue to receive aid through the attempting of 150 percent of the hours required for a degree. For undergraduates this is 198 and for graduate students normally 45 hours. Students returning for a second bachelors degree must notify the Financial Aid Office of the hours required for the degree they seek. Students who attempt over 150 hours must complete a satisfactory progress appeals form each semester letting the office know of their progress toward graduation.
   b. Credits transferred from other institutions will be included in the maximum hours attempted for a degree.
   c. MTSU will comply with all limitations on aid in the programs it administers.
5. Appeals. Students who do not meet the satisfactory progress criteria are either suspended or placed on financial aid probation. During a probationary period, a student is eligible to receive financial aid, but future financial aid will be held until all grades are posted for the probation semester. If satisfactory progress is not made while on probation, future financial aid will be denied. However, an appeal can be made to the Financial Aid Office for extenuating circumstances. Appeal forms are available in the Financial Aid Office. Students who return after being suspended from financial aid are placed on probation for subsequent semesters until they meet satisfactory progress requirements. When students fail to meet the requirements, they are again suspended from future financial aid. Students may appeal by filing a satisfactory progress appeals form. The student is required to explain why satisfactory progress has not been maintained and what has changed to enable progress to be met. The form along with any documentation will be reviewed by the financial aid academic progress committee. Students who are suspended from financial aid will be sent a letter with the committee's decision.

Returned Checks

Returned checks are subject to a $20.00 fine per check returned. Registration checks returned may result in a late registration fee of $25.00. The University does not redeposit returned checks. Any student who pays registration fees with a check which is subsequently dishonored by a bank will be administratively withdrawn and dropped from all classes if that check is not redeemed immediately with cash, money order, cashier's check, or certified check.

"NO MORE CHECKS"-"CASH ONLY" STATUS

The privilege of making payments for fees and charges by personal check and check-cashing privileges at Phillips Bookstore will be revoked for any student who has had more than one returned check within a twelve-month period for a period of one (1) year from the date the last check is redeemed.

Any student who was previously coded "NO MORE CHECKS" and has another check returned will have all check writing privileges at the University permanently revoked.

If your Statement of Account/Class Schedule says "CASH ONLY," send payment only with a certified check, money order, or credit card authorization. Do not pay your fees with a personal check. Your personal check will be returned to your post office box or permanent address, and your schedule will be deleted unless proper payment is received before the fee payment deadline.

A student paying in person will not be permitted to pay registration fees by check if any previous check in payment of registration fees has been returned. Students on a "NO MORE CHECKS"-"CASH ONLY" status should be prepared to pay registration fees with cash, cashier's check, certified check, money order, credit card, or check card.

Registration and Other Fees

Charges for all course work will be assessed by course level. The maximum fee will be the graduate full-time maximum if a student is enrolled for any graduate hours. The University reserves the right to correct errors in student fee assessments and charges which are discovered subsequent to initial billings or fee statements.

NOTICE: The registration fee amounts listed below are the 1998-99 academic year fees. An increase is expected for the 1999-2000 academic year. The new fee amounts will be published when approved by the Tennessee Board of Regents (usually around July 1). The updated rates will be available in July on the web at http://www.mtsu.edu/~bursarmt. The bill you receive will reflect the new 1999-2000 fees.

A validated class schedule and fee payment receipt indicating that you are a student must be presented in order to obtain a box.

Refunds on Course Work
The amount refunded is determined by the date complete withdrawals or drop/adds are processed.

The amount of refund students will receive is as follows:

1. A 100% refund to students who pay fees, but then drop all classes on TRAM or WebMT by 11:00 p.m. on Sunday, August 22, 1999.
2. A 75% refund to students who withdraw from school or drop classes by Tuesday, September 7, 1999.
3. A 25% refund to students who withdraw from school or drop classes by Monday, September 20, 1999.

Refunds will be processed beginning approximately two weeks after the end of each refund period. It takes several weeks to process all the refunds. The University will deduct from proposed refunds any amount owed by the student to the University.

The refund for students who receive financial aid will be returned to the financial aid program up to the amount of the aid awarded.

Withdrawals and drops must be processed on or before the dates given above to be eligible for refunds. See the current undergraduate or graduate catalog for additional information.

Withdrawals
If you decide not to attend MTSU this term and wish to drop your classes, access TRAM at 898-2000 or WebMT at www.mtsu.edu. This can be done through Sunday, August 22, 1999, in order to receive a 100% refund. Once classes begin, from August 23-December 3, withdrawals may be processed on TRAM or WebMT and are subject to the refund deadlines listed above and in the calendar.

Adding Classes
If you add a class to your schedule after your initial registration payment or confirmation, additional fees are due August 26. Any unpaid fees after this date will be processed as a deferred payment. The $10 Deferred Payment Plan service fee and an applicable $25 late payment fee will be charged. If you add a class and decide not to attend the class, you must access TRAM or WebMT to drop the class. You will not be automatically dropped from that class by the Business Office. Your fees will be adjusted based on the refund policy in effect on the date of your drop. See page 5 for additional information on dropping and adding classes.

General Information

Auditing

Students desiring to audit a class must designate Non-Credit when selecting classes. Otherwise enrollment will be for credit. Any request to change from audit to credit or credit to audit must be processed by the last day to add a class. Graduate students who request to change after the deadline must receive approval by the department chair and the dean, College of Graduate Studies.

2. The last day to receive a full refund for textbooks purchased for the Fall Semester is Monday, September 13, 1999.

Change of Name or Address

Students are responsible for keeping their names and addresses current on University records. Changes in address may be made in the Records Office, Cope Administration Building 106, by calling 898-2315, or on WebMT at www.mtsu.edu. A forwarding address should be left with the U.S. Post Office in addition to a change of address with the University. Important: All name and/or address changes should be made early in the term to ensure they are processed in time to receive mail on a timely basis.

Class Cancellations and Changes

The University reserves the right to cancel any lower-division class enrolling fewer than fifteen, any upper-division or 500-level class enrolling fewer than ten, any 600-level class enrolling fewer than eight, and any 700-level class enrolling fewer than four students. It may be necessary for modifications to be made in times, locations, and listed teachers of courses.

Class Cancellations Due to Weather

To determine if classes are cancelled, students should listen to area radio and television stations; access the News and Public Affairs home page at http://www.mtsu.edu/~proffice (or click on "Events and News" from the MTSU home page at http://www.mtsu.edu); or call the news line at 904-8215. A limited number of phone lines may make reaching the news line difficult. Offices will be presumed open unless the announcement specifically states otherwise.

Community Standards of Civil Behavior, Statement of

Middle Tennessee State University is committed to sustaining an environment of tolerance for diversity among its students, staff, and faculty. In addition, the University acknowledges a responsibility for encouraging all members of the community to observe certain standards of civility in their interactions with one another. The choice to associate one's self with this fellowship of scholars is freely made by each participant, but obligates those who do join to observe the following expectations for civilized conduct within the MTSU community:

- the practice of personal honesty in all matters;
- a positive regard for the dignity and value of each citizen in the community;
- respect for the individual rights and possession of community members;
- disdain for bigotry and hatred expressed in any form or medium and directed toward identifiable groups or individuals in the community;
- tolerance for the convictions and opinions of others, even when not in agreement with one's own beliefs;
- a recognition of community members' mutual needs and concerns, and acceptance of a responsibility held in common to support the personal growth and efforts of each individual in furtherance of the well-being of the entire community.

Confidentiality of Student Records

Middle Tennessee State University regards a student's academic record as confidential. The release of information contained in the record is governed by Federal Law, known as the "Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act." Directory information such as the student's name, address, e-mail address, telephone listing, major fields of study, hours enrolled, participation in officially recognized activities and sports, weight and height of members of athletic teams, classification such as freshman or junior, dates of attendance, degrees, and awards received, and the most recent previous educational agency or institution attended by the student will be released unless the student has asked MTSU to withhold such information. If you do not wish directory information released, you must notify the Records Office in writing.

The law does provide for the release of information to authorized university personnel, other institutions engaged in research (provided information is not revealed to any other parties), and certain federal and state government officials.

If you have any questions concerning the provisions of this act, please feel free to contact the director of Records.

Counseling and Testing Center

Courses Required

All students who took the Academic Assessment Placement Program (AAPP) test (or any portion of it) and who were placed into courses in the Developmental Studies Program must enroll in and complete the designated courses in sequence. Failure to enroll in the designated courses will result in the student's immediate withdrawal from the University. All full-time degree-seeking students should be enrolled in the appropriate general studies English course and either six hours in general studies or three hours in general studies and three hours in their major until they have satisfied the University's general studies requirement. Juniors or seniors must have on file and follow a plan for major and minors. Students are permitted to take only one physical education activity course per term.

Drop Policy

Academic Deadlines for Adding and Dropping Courses
Students who wish to add a class after the deadline to add must process a drop/add form through the Scheduling Center. Both the instructor and chairperson's signatures are required on the drop/add form. Students who cease attendance but do not officially drop or withdraw receive a grade of 'F.' Students will be allowed to drop or add courses provided it is within the course drop/add period. See pages 2-3 for specific deadlines.

Students having a hold on their records may drop courses but may not add a course until the hold is cleared.

1. During the first four weeks of a term, no grade is assigned.
2. During the fifth through the eighth week of a term, a grade of "W" will be assigned.
3. After the eighth week of a term, courses cannot be dropped.

The drop dates for courses which meet for a shorter time period than the normal term beginning and ending dates will be prorated based upon the course drop dates for the full term. Upon instructor's or department chair's notification to the Records Office, the drop date for courses which meet for a shorter time period than the normal term beginning and ending dates will be prorated based upon the course drop dates for the full term.

Tennessee Board of Regents policy prohibits students from withdrawing or dropping from courses in the Developmental Studies Program. Under extenuating circumstances a course may be dropped with the approval of the Developmental Studies chair. No student may drop a basic/developmental course without written approval of the Developmental Studies department chairperson. A student desiring to drop a course must contact his/her Developmental Studies counselor at 898-2339 (Peck Hall 101) to begin the process. Failure to comply will result in an automatic grade of "F."

Grades by Phone or WebMT

You do not have to wait for the mail to know your grades at MTSU. Call 898-2000 (9-898-2000 on campus) (TRAM) and select the grade inquiry option to hear your grades for the current term and previous two terms provided money is not owed to the University. If you owe a student account balance which prevents release of your grades, TRAM will provide an option to allow you to pay your student account balance by credit card or check card (VISA or MasterCard) so that you can hear your grades.

Access WebMT at http://www.mtsu.edu and select Grade Inquiry from the main menu.

Grade reports are mailed only upon request. A printed copy of the current term grade report may be requested by selecting the appropriate option on TRAM. This option is available for approximately ten days after final exams each term. Once the option to request a grade report is no longer available, instructions will be given for requesting a complete transcript. Also, you may view your unofficial transcript on WebMT. If a printed grade report is requested, it will be mailed to the permanent address unless a different address has been designated for mailing grade reports.

Graduate Courses

Ordinarily only graduate students should register for courses numbered 500 or above. However, any MTSU undergraduate student having completed 98 semester hours of undergraduate credit is eligible to take graduate courses. Students in Business Administration, Accounting, and Information Systems are not eligible.

Undergraduate students wishing to take graduate courses must obtain permission from the graduate program and the Office of Graduate Studies, CAB 114. Permission is not guaranteed. Not all graduate courses are offered to undergraduate students.

Students may not enroll in 700-level courses in the departments of Elementary and Special Education and Educational Leadership unless they are seeking an Education Specialist or Doctor of Arts degree. Non-degree seeking students are not permitted to enroll in 700-level courses.

Graduation Requirement

Notice to all Prospective December 1999 Graduates
Applications for graduation on December 18, 1999, must be submitted no later than September 7, 1999. The graduation list will be closed, checked, and posted soon thereafter. Any or all undergraduate students may be required, as a prerequisite to graduation, to take one or more tests designed to measure general education achievement and achievement in major areas for the purpose of evaluating academic programs. Unless otherwise provided for any individual program, no minimum score or level of achievement is required for graduation. Participation in testing may be required of all students, of students in selected programs, and of students selected on a sample basis.

In order to comply with guidelines of the Tennessee Education Commission, the University requires all graduating seniors to take a general education skills test, the ACT COMP. The test is designed to measure a student's abilities in areas such as communicating, problem solving, and functioning within social institutions. It is not designed to assess knowledge of a student's major field.

The ACT COMP test will be given on November 2, 3, and 4, 1999, in the Tennessee Room of the James Union Building. On each of these dates, the test will be given three times: 8:30 a.m., 1:00 p.m., and 6:00 p.m. Students are permitted to choose the date and time which is most convenient. No pre-registration is necessary and pencils and test materials will be provided.

ID Cards

All students should have a permanent ID card with a magnetic strip on the back. The card is required to receive a variety of services on campus including cashing checks, admission to athletic and special events, admittance to the Rec Center, checking out library materials, obtaining meal tickets, and using RAIDER FUND$. Students must have their MTSU ID card to pick up a refund check or student payroll check. The ID card will be validated automatically when all fees are paid. All students must have an ID card.

The first card is issued at no charge; however, there is a $10 charge for replacing lost or stolen IDs. If your card breaks or is damaged, please return it to the ID office and a new card will be issued to you at no charge.

ID cards are made Monday-Friday from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. The ID Office is located on the track level of Murphy Center in the northwest corner (closest to Tennessee Blvd. and the tennis courts). Evening students may have IDs made in Peck Hall 101D after 4:30 p.m. Call 898-5611 for office hours.

Measles Immunization

Effective July 1, 1998, the State of Tennessee requires students entering colleges, universities, and technical institutes with enrollment of greater than 200 students to provide proof of two (2) doses of measles, mumps, and rubella (MMR) vaccine on or after the first birthday, or proof of immunity to measles if date of birth is 1957 or after.

You will not be allowed to register for classes until an acceptable form is on file in the Student Health Services Office.

For more information, contact McFarland Health Services, 898-2988.

Parking Permits

All motor vehicles operated on the campus of MTSU must be registered annually with the Parking Services Office. Any vehicle parked on campus must have a current valid parking permit displayed in the vehicle. Parking permits for the 1999-2000 academic year may be purchased August 2-20 at the Parking Services Office located in the Tennessee Livestock Center parking lot off Greenland Drive, 7:30 a.m.-4:30 p.m. Permits will be sold on August 23-24 at KUC 322 and 324 and at the Parking Services Office, 7:30 a.m.-5:30 p.m. Beginning August 25, permits will be sold and vehicles will be registered at the Parking Services Office. Parking permits are also available after 4:30 p.m. in the Adult Services Office, KUC 320, or in the Evening School Office, Peck Hall 101D. To purchase your parking permit, you must know your vehicle license tag number. For more information or clarification, refer to the Parking and Traffic Regulations. All permits will be valid through August 2000.

Placement and Student Employment

Seniors and graduate students should establish permanent files with the Placement Center prior to graduation. Students seeking part-time employment should apply at the Center. Information and application forms are available in Keathley University Center 328.

RAIDER FUND$—One Card That Does It All!

A personal RAIDER FUND$ account, which is accessed through the student's ID card, is available to all MTSU students. RAIDER FUND$ is a declining balance, money management program that allows students a convenient way to make campus purchases without the need to carry cash or the inconvenience of paying by check or credit card.

The RAIDER FUND$ account can be activated by making a minimum deposit of $10.00 at the Business Office cashier windows. Additional information on the advantages and convenience of having a RAIDER FUND$ account may be obtained at the Business Office cashier window 11 in the Cope Administration Building, by calling (615) 898-5443, or on the web at http://www.mtsu.edu/~bursarmt/raidreg.html. RAIDER FUND$ can be used to pay registration and other fees, buy meals directly or purchase meal plans, make copies in the library, use the washers and dryers in the residence hall laundries, and purchase books and supplies at Phillips Bookstore. Many of the campus Coke machines will accept RAIDER FUND$.

What if I lose my RAIDER FUND$ card? LOST or STOLEN RAIDER FUND$ cards should be reported immediately to (615) 898-5523. At night or on weekends, call Public Safety at 898-2424.

Retention Standards—Suspension of Students

Undergraduate

The minimum quality point average required to achieve the baccalaureate or associate degree is 2.00 on all degree credit courses.

A student failing to meet one of the following standards during any term will be placed on academic probation for the subsequent term:

1. attain a 2.00 GPA for current term, or
2. meet one of the following retention standards:

00-29.99 hours attempted	1.50
30-49.99 hours attempted	1.80
50 or more hours attempted	2.00

See current catalog for additional information regarding Developmental Studies courses.

Graduate

The minimum grade point average (GPA) required to be eligible to receive a graduate degree is 3.00 for master's and specialist in education students and 3.25 for doctoral students. A graduate student failing to meet the applicable minimum cumulative GPA retention standard as listed on the retention scale in the Graduate Catalog or whose cumulative graduate GPA is less than 3.00 for three consecutive semesters will be placed on academic probation for the subsequent term. Probation in itself has no serious consequences other than to alert the student of potential academic problems and the requirement to (re)establish satisfactory academic status. Conversely, however, suspension is quite serious. Should a suspended student not be readmitted, it would result in termination of the student's graduate status.

In addition to minimum GPA standards, degree-seeking students are expected to take appropriate graduate courses towards their degree objective, as determined by the graduate program. Non-degree seeking graduate students are expected to take graduate courses. In addition to the retention guidelines, the two-course repeat policy may result in a dramatically increased GPA.

Six semester hours of C grade course work may be applied toward a master's or specialist's degree, but no courses with a C grade are acceptable toward the doctorate. Courses with a grade lower than C will not be applied toward any graduate degree requirements.

Selective Service

All male citizens of the United States of America born in 1960 or thereafter must have completed Selective Service registration prior to registering for classes at MTSU.

Student Load and Enrollment Status

A student's enrollment status is determined by the number of credit hours taken per term according to the following:

Undergraduate
- Full-time - 12 hours
- Three-quarter time - 9 hours
- One-half time - 6 hours

Graduate
- Full-time - 9 graduate hours
- Three-quarter time - 7 graduate hours
- One-half time - 5 graduate hours

Undergraduates may not register for more than 18 semester hours. Any exception must be approved by the dean of the college of student's major or Counseling and Testing for undeclared majors prior to registration. Graduate students are limited to a maximum of 12 graduate hours per semester. If an exception is requested, overload forms must be signed by the graduate advisor and the dean of the college of Graduate Studies. Full-time status for students holding graduate assistantships is six (6) semester graduate hours.

Thesis/Dissertation Requirement

Students enrolled in Thesis Research (664) and Dissertation Research (764) must sign up for at least one hour each semester (summer excluded) until the thesis/dissertation is complete. For master's students, a minimum of three hours is required for graduation. (The Department of Sociology and Anthropology requires six hours.) For doctoral students, a minimum of six hours is required for graduation. These courses are graded Satisfactory/Unsatisfactory (S/U). Satisfactory/Unsatisfactory grades are not used in determining the grade point average. However, they do count toward graduation requirements and are treated in every other respect as being equivalent to traditionally graded courses.

Withdrawal from School

April 5 through August 22, all students who register for fall classes and decide not to attend MTSU should access TRAM or WebMT to drop all classes from their records.

Procedure to withdraw from the University beginning August 23:

1. During the first four weeks of a term, the student may withdraw from all classes on TRAM or WebMT. All courses are dropped without grades and no courses are listed on the academic record for that term.
2. During the fifth through the eighth week, the student may withdraw on TRAM or WebMT and all courses are assigned a grade of "W."
3. After the eighth week of a term, the student may withdraw on TRAM or WebMT and the instructor assigns the appropriate grade of "W" if the student is passing or "F"* if the student is failing.
4. The deadline to withdraw from the University, i.e., from all classes, and receive a grade of "W" or "F," as determined by the instructor, is December 3. For assistance, contact the Associate Dean of Student Life Office, 898-2808.

If extreme extenuating circumstances necessitate a student's withdrawal from the University after the eighth week of the term, exception may be made. A grade of "W" may be recorded with written concurrence of the faculty member, but only if the extenuating circumstances are identified by and originate with the University physician or clinicians at the Counseling and Testing Center and/or the Office of the Associate Dean of Student Life.*

1999-2000 TELEPHONE DIRECTORY PLANNED!!

Plans are underway for fall publication of the campus telephone directory which includes students' phone numbers and local addresses. The student listing includes only full-time students—undergraduate students taking 12 hours or more and graduate students taking 9 hours or more. The phone number listed is the campus phone number for residential students, the local number for others. If you provided some other telephone number when you applied for admission, you can correct that information as well as your address or make any other needed changes by contacting the Records Office.

If you do not wish to be listed in such a directory, please notify the Records Office, Room 106, Cope Administration Building, in writing no later than September 13, 1999.

What if...

...I forget my Personal Access Code (PAC)?
...my PAC number is not accepted?
...I receive a message that "an error has occurred?" or "there is no matriculation for this record?"

Contact the Scheduling Center at 898-5094.

...a course is closed?

Choose the course status option (4) on TRAM or access WebMT or CWIS (frank users) for open sections. If a section is closed, TRAM will indicate other sections of that course with the meeting time. If none exist, TRAM will indicate sections meeting at other times.

...a course is restricted?

Some course sections require departmental permission before registration. Contact the academic department for permission; then access TRAM or WebMT to register. Some courses require specific course prerequisites or have other registration controls which require that students have specific majors, classification, candidacy, etc. before registration can occur. Check the current catalog for prerequisite or other requirements. If you have met the requirements and still have problems during registration, please contact the academic department of the course.

...I need a call number for a course added after the schedule book was printed?

View added sections on the web at http://www.mtsu.edu/~records/clasched.html under "Changes" or contact the academic department (phone numbers are with class listings in this schedule book).

...I can't find an alternate course?

Contact your academic advisor or the department of your major.

...I choose courses with conflicting times?

Normally, TRAM and WebMT will not allow registration for courses with time conflicts. To be allowed to register with a time conflict, bring written permission from the instructor of the conflicting class to the Scheduling Center to process the registration.

...I enter an incorrect call number?

Drop the incorrect course if you are enrolled and then enter the correct call number.

...I need a printout of my schedule?

Your schedule will be printed on your bill. You may verify your schedule on TRAM or WebMT; also, you can access the InfoMT kiosks in the library, KUC, BAS, and the Rec Center.

...I get a continuous ring using TRAM? Or get disconnected?

For constant rings, hang up and call again or contact the Scheduling Center at 898-5094. Do not use redial. For accidental or unexpected disconnections, try your call again. Courses you selected will not be lost unless you are a student taking Developmental Studies classes and you did not register for all required courses. Drops are not processed on TRAM if you hang up prior to TRAM listing the courses that have been dropped.

...I need to register for an overload of classes?

Undergraduates - Obtain permission from the dean of the college of your major. After the dean's office updates your record, resume registration on TRAM or WebMT. Graduates - Obtain signed overload form from your advisor and deliver to the dean of the College of Graduate Studies. After the Graduate office updates your record, resume registration on TRAM or WebMT. Overloads will not allow entry into closed classes.

...I have a hold preventing registration?

Holds must be resolved before registration. TRAM/WebMT will indicate which department has a hold on your record. After clearing the hold, resume registration.

...I have problems using WebMT?

Call the registration help line at 898-5094 or report the problem via e-mail on the WebMT Support Request Form at the following web address:
http://www.mtsu.edu/~webepos/webmtfrm.html
WebMT Help Suggestions are located at the end of the WebMT Support Request Form. Remember to click on "Continue" or "Submit Request" buttons to navigate through WebMT; do not hit "Enter" on the keyboard. Remember to "Sign Off and Exit" when finished on WebMT.

...I need to change sections of the same course?

When changing sections of the same course number, drop the current class on your schedule before attempting to enroll in the new section.

Dr. Earl F. Pearson, Davis Science Building 239, 898-2956

NOTE: Cooperative Education courses offered for Pass/Fail only.

The Area IV General Studies Requirement SCI 100 can be satisfied by taking Topics in Physical Science 100.

Students enrolling in Intro General Chemistry 0111 and 0112 and General Chemistry 0121 and 0122 must enroll in a lecture and lab section concurrently.

Please contact department chair for permission to enroll in the following class(es).

Dr. Carol Bader, Peck Hall 217, 898-2568

NOTE: All students who took the AAPP test (or any portion of it) and who were placed into courses in the Developmental Studies program must enroll in and complete the designated courses in sequence. Failure to enroll in designated courses will result in the student's immediate withdrawal from the University.

Developmental courses cannot be used for graduation.

Tennessee Board of Regents policy prohibits students from withdrawing from courses in the Developmental Studies program. Under extenuating circumstances a course may be dropped with the approval of the director of Developmental Studies.

Please contact department chair for permission to enroll in the following class(es).

Schedule of Distance Learning, Evening, Off-Campus, and Saturday Classes

Distance Learning Classes

Dr. Rosemary Owens, Cope Administration Building 113, 898-2177

NOTE: Register for distance learning classes by TRAM or WebMT.
A $25 late fee will be charged if registration is on or after the first day of class.

Students must present their valid photo student ID before they will be allowed to take an exam.

Distance learning occurs when there is a physical separation of the teacher and learner and when communication and instruction take place through, or are supported by, any technological means such as telephone, radio, television, computer, satellite delivery, or interactive video, or any combination of present and future telecommunication technologies. Distance learning allows MTSU to make more courses available and more easily accessible to a larger number of students.

Exam Proctoring Information for Telecourse, Correspondence, and On-line Students

(students who cannot meet at appointed exam dates)

Please refer to the telecourse, correspondence, and on-line sections for appointed mid-term and final exam dates. With approval of instructor, Continuing Studies can proctor mid-term and final exams for students who cannot meet at the appointed test date. Students must call (615) 898-5374 for an appointment since the Test Center is not manned continuously. The Test Center will be open the week of mid-term and final exams. Students must bring a MTSU student ID to the exam.

Compressed Video Courses

Dennis Bain, Kirksey Old Main 122, 898-5426

Compressed video is a technology that condenses auditory and visual signals so they can be sent over fiber optic T1or other telephone lines (in this case T1 lines) to sites that have specialized equipment. The equipment allows the MTSU instructor to communicate with various remote sites and interact visually and verbally through a television monitor. Compressed video courses are offered for credit.

Compressed video classes in Columbia are held at Columbia State Community College, Warff Building, Room 107.
Classes in Tullahoma are held at Motlow State Community College, Simon Hall, Room S234.
Classes in Lawrenceburg are held at the CSCC Lawrence County Center.

Correspondence Courses

Mary Jane Peters, Business and Aerospace Building N102, 898-5060

Correspondence courses involve individual, independent instruction of a student by an instructor on a one-to-one basis. Typically, this will entail study at home, as well as the exchange of materials and evaluations through a mail/courier service. Interaction and feedback between correspondence course faculty and students take the forms of written assignments, testing, evaluations, guidance, and assistance via such media as print/written word, telephone, fax, e-mail, and other electronic technologies.

After registration, students will receive a packet of information from the correspondence course coordinator. For full-time students, the packet of information will be sent to their campus post office box. Part-time students will receive the packet of information at their home address. If the packet of information is not received within two weeks after the first day of class, please contact the coordinator at the phone number above.

On-Line Courses

Liz Johnson, Kirksey Old Main 126, 898-5374
www.mtsu.edu/~netcours

On-line courses are taught primarily over the Internet through e-mail, newsgroups, distribution lists, and the World Wide Web. All on-line course students must request permission to register from the instructor. Details on how to do this are located on the web page above. Students must have access to a computer and the Internet. MTSU students are eligible for an account on frank; however, this account provides only e-mail, a news reader, and a text-only browser. For access to a graphical Web browser such as Netscape, students may want to subscribe to a commercial Internet Service Provider (ISP) such as MTSU On-line. Since a frank account allows students access to Todd Library's Expanded Academic Index/ASAP, students should apply for a frank account in addition to an ISP.

Each semester the Office of Information Technology (OIT) offers free short courses to students on how to use the Internet. Call OIT at 898-5345 for information on these short courses or to sign up for frank or MTSU On-line.

Telecourses

Liz Johnson, Kirksey Old Main 126, 898-5374
www.mtsu.edu/~tlcourse

Telecourses are courses offered for credit and delivered via cable television or videotape instead of through on-campus lectures. Students are required to attend an orientation on campus, then view the videos and complete the assignments at home. Instructors provide a detailed syllabus, prepare and grade assignments and tests, and consult with students by telephone or e-mail. Students meet again on campus for exams.

MTSU does not loan out sets of telecourse tapes to students, but MTSU offers several ways for students to view the telecourses. All telecourses will be shown on MTSU-9 (Channel 9 on Intermedia cable in Rutherford County). All telecourses can be viewed at the Ned McWherter Learning Resources Center on MTSU's campus. All telecourses may be rented from MTSU for $35 per set. These will be available at the telecourse office on orientation day. Telecourses which are not licensed for duplication may be rented from a rental agency for $55 plus shipping. Information on these agencies is available at the orientation and at the telecourse office. It is the student's responsibility to ensure access to the telecourses.

NOTE: Students enrolling in telecourses are REQUIRED to attend orientation on Friday, August 20, from 6:00-8:00 p.m OR Saturday, August 21, from 10:00 a.m.-12:00 noon in Room 227 of Peck Hall.

The telecourse orientation is considered the FIRST CLASS. Because attendance is REQUIRED, it is important that another class is not scheduled at the same time. It is requested that children not attend the orientation.

Video/Data Conference Courses

Dennis Bain, Kirksey Old Main 122, 898-5426

Video/data conferencing (VDC) is a technology that compresses audio, video, and data signals sending them over ISDN telephone lines from a VDC classroom on the MTSU campus to another VDC classroom in another location. From these sites, teachers and students interact through a video camera and speakerphone. They can also share data and applications through a specially equipped computer.

1999-2000 TELEPHONE DIRECTORY PLANNED!!

Plans are underway for fall publication of the campus telephone directory which includes students' phone numbers and local addresses. The student listing includes only full-time students—undergraduate students taking 12 hours or more and graduate students taking 9 hours or more. The phone number listed is the campus phone number for residential students, the local number for others. If you provided some other telephone number when you applied for admission, you can correct that information as well as your address or make any other needed changes by contacting the Records Office.

If you do not wish to be listed in such a directory, please notify the Records Office, Room 106, Cope Administration Building, in writing no later than September 13, 1999.

Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act

The following information is presented in compliance with the Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act Amendment of 1989.

1. Middle Tennessee State University prohibits the possession, use, or distribution of illegal drugs and alcohol on the campus proper or on institutionally-owned, leased, or otherwise controlled property.

2. Various federal and state statutes make it unlawful to manufacture, distribute, dispense, deliver or sell, or possess with intent to manufacture, distribute, dispense, deliver or sell, controlled substances. The penalty imposed depends upon many factors which include the type and amount of controlled substance involved, the number of prior offenses, if any, and whether any other crimes were committed in connection with the use of the controlled substance. Possible sanctions include incarceration up to and including life imprisonment and imposition of substantial monetary fines.

   Tennessee statutes provide that it is unlawful for any person under the age of twenty-one (21) to buy, possess, transport (unless in the course of employment), or consume alcoholic beverages, wine, or beer, such offense being classified a Class A misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment for not more than 11 months, 29 days, or a fine of not more than $2500, or both. The receipt, possession, or transportation of alcoholic beverages without the required revenue stamp is also a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment of not more than thirty (30) days or a fine of not more than $50, or both.

3. The use of alcohol can lead to serious health risks:

   - loss of muscle control, poor coordination, slurred speech;
   - fatigue, nausea, headache;
   - increased likelihood of accidents;
   - impaired judgment;
   - possible respiratory paralysis and death.

   Heavy drinking can lead to:

   - alcoholism;
   - damage to brain cells;
   - increased risk of cirrhosis, ulcers, heart disease, heart attack, and cancers of liver, mouth, throat, and stomach;
   - hallucinations;
   - personality disorders.

   Health risks associated with the use of illegal drugs include:

   - increased susceptibility to disease due to a less efficient immune system;
   - increased likelihood of accidents;
   - personality disorders;
   - addiction;
   - death by overdose;
   - anemia;
   - poor concentration.

   Additional information about how use of drugs and/or alcohol affect your health is available at McFarland Health Services Center and in the Alcohol Information Center in Keathley University Center.

4. Middle Tennessee State University does not currently provide drug/alcohol counseling, treatment, or rehabilitation programs for students. Referral to community treatment facilities may be made in appropriate cases.

5. Middle Tennessee State University will impose sanctions against individuals who are determined to have violated rules prohibiting the use, possession, or distribution of illegal drugs or alcohol.

   Sanctions for students using or possessing illegal drugs or alcohol include disciplinary probation, and in appropriate cases, suspension from the University. In addition, residence hall students will be removed from the housing system for the use or possession of illegal drugs. Referral for criminal prosecution may be made in appropriate cases.

   Individuals involved in the sale or distribution of illegal drugs will be suspended from the University and referred to the appropriate authorities for criminal prosecution.

   All employees, including students, agree as a condition of employment to abide by this policy. Sanctions against employees for use or possession of illegal drugs or alcohol in the workplace include termination of employment. Additionally, employees are required to notify the institution of any drug convictions resulting from a violation in the workplace no later than five days after the conviction.

MTSU Public Safety

In Compliance with the College and University Information Act

The following information is designed to provide a greater understanding of the facts and figures related to campus security operations. The information presented is not designed to serve as any agreement or contractual arrangement for providing security services to members of the campus community, nor to guarantee an individual's personal safety when utilizing the campus facilities or grounds. Public Safety urges all members of the University community to follow personal safety guidelines as the best method for preventing crime. The information presented is designed to meet the guidelines of the Tennessee 1989 "College and University Security Act," and the Federal 1990 "Student Right-to-Know and Campus Security Act."

Public Safety is an independent police agency recognized as such by the FBI and State of Tennessee. The department currently employs 27 full-time officers and operates 24 hours a day. Officers of Public Safety determine the appropriate response for all requests for assistance. Also utilized when requested are officers from the Murfreesboro Police Department and the Rutherford County Sheriff's Department, as well as numerous other full-time and student personnel in auxiliary roles.

Additional departmental support consists of one secretary, one microcomputer specialist, three telecommunications specialists, and approximately 25 part-time student employees. Students assist with the office operations, dispatch, and student patrol security services.

All full-time officers are commissioned and fully certified with the State of Tennessee. All officers have graduated from a fully-accredited law enforcement training academy and are required to meet all minimum standards set forth for police officers by the State of Tennessee. The department also provides continuing education for its officers in excess of what is required by these minimum standards.

Crime on Campus

MTSU is an open campus located in an area rapidly growing in population. A campus environment can foster a fake feeling of safety among its community. This is a potentially dangerous illusion. Each year over 100,000 crimes are reported on college campuses. Included at the end of this section are the latest crime statistics for MTSU. A comparison with other universities will show that we are among the safest universities in the nation and the state. We attribute this record to the aggressive performance of duties by Public Safety and also to the awareness of the MTSU community Despite our safety record, don't take chances or be careless with regard to your personal safety and property. MTSU has always been open about the fact that crime does occur here. We hope that increased awareness on the part of the community will help keep our campus safe.

MTSU and Public Safety are active supporters of Crimestoppers of Murfreesboro and Rutherford County. You are urged to contact Crimestoppers at 893-STOP (7867) if you have information about a crime that has occurred and wish to remain anonymous. If the information leads to an arrest and prosecution, you may receive a cash reward up to $1,000.00. All members of the University community are urged to report crime and suspicious activity to Public Safety as soon as possible. The department may be reached 24 hours a day at 898-2424 (2424 from campus telephones). All emergency calls for fire, medical, or police assistance should be made to this number. All "911 Emergency" calls will be rerouted to Public Safety by 911 personnel, so what may be a critical loss of time is eliminated with calls directly to 2424. Emergency phones are installed at various locations around campus to make it easier to contact the department.

A Crime Alert Notice will be distributed campus-wide by Public Safety when it could be reasonably believed that a reported violent crime may endanger additional campus citizens, i.e., employees, students, and guests.

Personal Safety

The most effective means of dealing with an attack on your person is to avoid it in the first place. The following are some common sense rules for your personal safety:

Walking at Night

1. Never walk alone at night on campus or anywhere in the city. Walk in groups of two or more people. If you are ever stranded on campus, call Public Safety at 2424 for an escort to your dorm or car.
2. Stay away from dark, poorly-lighted areas, especially buildings, parking lots, and alleys.
3. Always walk away from bushes and hedges.
4. Avoid short-cuts. Use designated sidewalks and lighted walking malls that run north to south and east to west on campus.
5. Never talk to strangers. Never accept rides from a stranger or mere acquaintance.
6. Always inform another person about your destination and expected time of return. This could save your life.
7. Maintain a tight grip on your purse or belongings. Never leave your belongings unattended.
8. If you think you are being followed by a vehicle, try to get its description and license number. Reverse and walk in another direction (the car will have to turn around to follow). Run to a lighted residence or public area and notify the police.
9. Do not walk with your head down. Walk confidently and watch around you at all times.

Driving at Night

1. After parking, always lock your car and remove the keys.
2. Park in well-lighted areas.
3. Always check the back seat of your vehicle before entering.
4. Keep windows up and doors locked while driving.
5. Never pick up hitchhikers.
6. If you are being followed, do not park and get out of your car. Drive to Public Safety or another police station or an open business for help. Do not drive to your home or dorm.
7. Look around for loiterers before leaving your vehicle.
8. Never stop to aid a disabled motorist. Notify a service station or the police.
9. If you have car trouble, raise your hood and wait inside with the doors locked. If strangers stop, ask them to report your predicament to the police or a service station.

If You Are Held Up

1. Do not resist if you think or know that the person is armed.
2. Quickly turn over your wallet or purse.
3. As soon as you are safe, turn and run away people are nearby, scream.
4. Take no chances, because many felons carry weapons.

If You Are Attacked

1. Every emergency situation is different. Only you can be the judge of what course of action is appropriate. There is no magic technique or weapon which can be used and guaranteed to work on every attacker.

2. Be realistic about your ability to defend yourself. An immediate reaction to resist physically or by yelling may give you a chance to escape, but it also may lead to further harm.
3. If your life is endangered, passive resistance such as vomiting, urinating, or telling your attacker that you are diseased may be your best defense.

Sexual Assault

Any student who has experienced sexual assault or attempted assault is well aware of the trauma associated with such an act. Sexual assault can range from stranger rape to being emotionally coerced for sex by someone the victim knows. Statistics estimate that approximately one in every four women will be a victim of date or acquaintance rape during her college career. Students should be aware that any sexual intercourse without the consent of their partner is rape. Further, sexual intercourse with a partner who is unconscious or unable to consent for any reason is rape.

If you are the victim of sexual assault, you are encouraged to report the assault and seek medical treatment. You may report this crime by calling Public Safety at 898-2424 (if you are on-campus, dial 2424) or the Murfreesboro Police Department. You may request assistance in reporting the crime by contacting any of the offices in the Unit of Student Life or contacting your resident assistant, hall director, or area coordinator. It is important to report the assault so that evidence may be preserved to provide proof of criminal sexual assault if and when the victim chooses to make a criminal complaint.

Complaints of alleged sexual assault should also be lodged with the Office of the Assistant Dean of Students located in Keathley University Center 122. MTSU will investigate all reported sexual assaults or attempted assaults and, where appropriate, will hold disciplinary hearings to adjudicate these assaults according to the procedures outlined in the MTSU Student Handbook. Both the accused and the accuser are entitled to the same opportunities to have others present during a disciplinary hearing. Any student found guilty of a sexual assault whether by MTSU or a criminal court shall be appropriately punished. A range of sanctions up to and including suspension or expulsion from the University are possible, depending upon individual circumstances. Both the accuser and the accused shall be informed of the outcome of any on-campus disciplinary proceeding.

Victims of sexual assault should recognize the importance of obtaining and/or receiving help in dealing with the crime. Existing counseling, mental health, or student services for victims of sexual assault include:

MTSU Counseling and Testing Center - 898-2670
MTSU June Anderson's Women Center - 898-2193
Crisis Pregnancy Support Center - 893-0228
Rape Crisis Line - 327-1110
The Guidance Center - 893-0770

Assistance is available in changing academic and living situations after an alleged sexual assault if requested by the victim and if such changes are reasonably available. The assistant dean of students will assist the victim in making these changes. Continuing education programs to promote the awareness of rape, acquaintance rape, and other sexual offenses take place during CUSTOMS Orientation and Sexual Assault Awareness Week. Further educational programs take place within the residence halls and for student organizations upon request.

Property Crime

The most serious ongoing risk of crime at MTSU concerns the theft of both private and public property. Once again, a university campus is not a haven from crime. Theft of property is the single greatest source of income for the purchase of illicit drugs and there is a vast marketplace in today's society for stolen property. There are many suggestions for protecting your property.

Burglary

1. Be careful to lock the doors and windows of your residence. The more time it takes a burglar to gain entry, the less likely he or she will be to burglarize your residence.
2. Do not leave valuables or money laying around unattended in your dorm room or apartment. Consider leaving items of great value at your permanent residence.
3. If you do have expensive or hard-to-replace items in your college residence, be sure to make a note of manufacturers' serial numbers for identification purposes. You may also consider applying your driver's license number to expensive items.
4. You may want to check into the coverage of the homeowner's insurance policy on your permanent residence to see if thefts while away at school are covered. You may also wish to investigate "Renter's Insurance."
5. In the dormitory, never leave your room unlocked and unattended. While taking a shower or making a short trip down the hall, lock your room and take the key with you.

Theft

1. Do not leave your books unattended at any time. They can easily be sold for quick money. If your books are stolen, file a report with Public Safety and file a lost or stolen book report promptly in Room 122, Keathley University Center.
2. Do not leave your purse unattended. Don't leave it in an unlocked desk drawer. Avoid carrying large amounts of cash.
3. Be careful to secure bicycles to the bicycle racks provided around campus. Lock them through the frame with a sturdy lock and chain. There are locks available that, if properly utilized and defeated, provide insurance coverage for the loss of your bike. Keep a record of the serial number of your bicycle.
4. When using lockers which are provided on campus, be sure to use a sturdy padlock to safeguard your property.

If You Lose Your Purse or Wallet

1. File a report with Public Safety.
2. Report the loss of credit cards to the issuing companies to avoid liability for unauthorized charges. Your maximum liability is $50 per card if you report the loss within 60 days, but you will save yourself and the company a great deal of trouble if you report it immediately.
3. Be especially prompt in reporting a loss of your ATM (automatic teller machine) cards. To limit your liability to $50, you must report the loss within two business days. Your liability increases to $500 per card if you wait up to 60 days, after which your liability is unlimited. Report this loss even though you are sure that your secret code was not written in your purse or wallet.
4. Inform the bank immediately upon the loss of your checkbook. Close your account and open a new one to avoid liability for forged checks.
5. Apply for a new driver's license. You can usually get a temporary one immediately.
6. Call the Social Security Administration for a new card. It takes about three weeks to get a new one if you know your number.
7. Change the locks on your residence if your keys were also lost or stolen. You are particularly vulnerable because your address is on your driver's license and other things.
8. If you had any receipts for dry cleaning or repairs on valuable merchandise, call the business and explain what happened. They may let you pick up the items if you describe them, the work to be done, and the date they were brought in.
9. If you lost a video rental card, call the business and advise them to make your card invalid. This will prevent any loss from the business and any inconvenience to you.
10. You may obtain a replacement MTSU identification card through the Department of Information Technology.

Motor Vehicles

1. Never leave your keys inside your vehicle. That makes stealing your car easy, and you may be liable for negligence if a thief uses your vehicle in the commission of a crime. A car is stolen every 15 seconds in the United States.
2. Always lock your car and roll up the windows.

3. Avoid leaving anything of value inside a parked and unattended vehicle. A radar detector or purse is just a broken window away from being stolen.
4. If you want to install expensive stereo equipment in your car, seriously consider an automobile burglar alarm.
5. Park in well-lighted areas.

Alcohol and Dangerous Drugs

The possession, sale, or transportation of alcohol and illicit drugs is strictly prohibited at MTSU by both Tennessee law and by MTSU regulation. It is also strictly enforced.

Drinking and Driving

1. About 25,000 people die in alcohol-related automobile accidents on U.S. highways each year. Alcohol-related injuries exceed 500,000 each year.
2. Alcohol is absorbed quickly by your bloodstream but is slowly collected and processed out of your system.
3. Alcohol slows your thought processes, affects your concentration and vision, slows your reaction time, and seriously affects your judgment.
4. A .10% or higher blood-alcohol concentration (BAC) is legal evidence of driving under the influence in most states, including Tennessee. Some states have lowered the standard to .08%.
5. Your BAC increases depending on many variables:
   - bodyweight
   - type of drink consumed
   - how fast you drink
   - your mood
   - the amount of food in your stomach.
6. There are many misconceptions about how long it takes a person to "sober up." Your liver processes the alcohol in your system at the same rate regardless of what "cures" you use. Black coffee, a cold shower, exercise, or fresh air will do nothing at all to lower your BAC. Nothing but time will sober you up.
7. Most states now have mandatory sentencing for conviction of DUI. In Tennessee, first offenders receive no less than 48 hours in jail, $250 fine, revocation of driver's licenses for one year, and mandatory attendance of a traffic safety instruction course. The mandatory minimum sentencing increases dramatically for repeat offenders. Tennessee drivers may soon have their vehicles confiscated upon repeat offenses. Public Safety does enforce the offense of driving under the influence.
8. Alternatives to drinking and driving:
   - Don't drink alcohol.
   - Drink alternative beverages such as juice or soda.
   - Utilize a designated driver who does not drink. Take turns among your friends.
   - Sip drinks, don't gulp them.
   - Eat before or as you drink to help slow down the absorption of alcohol in your system.
   - Stop drinking well before you plan to drive.
   - Know what and how much is in each drink. Don't let someone surprise you.
   - Set a limit for yourself and stick to it. If you have been drinking, get a ride from a sober friend, use public transportation, or stay overnight.
   - Take care of friends who have been drinking. Arrange other transportation or a place for them to sleep. Take their car keys from them if necessary.

Telephone Harassment

If you receive a harassing or obscene telephone call, hang up quickly without saying anything to the caller. Keep a log recording the date and time of the nuisance calls you receive. If the calls you receive are threatening or extremely harassing over a long period of time, contact Public Safety to report it.

Weapons on Campus

Lethal weapons of any kind, most notably firearms and knives, are prohibited on the MTSU campus. The penalty for possession of deadly weapons is enhanced by state law to a felony if that possession takes place on campus.

Traffic Enforcement

CAUTION: Thousands of students are crossing our streets daily; drivers must be extra attentive to these conditions.

Parking can be a problem at MTSU as it is at most major universities. There is adequate parking available on campus, but not at the campus' core. Learn to leave yourself enough time to walk to your destination from one of the parking lots provided. Public Safety enforces all MTSU and state traffic laws. Numerous city streets run through and around the campus, so please be aware of and obey the posted speed limits and traffic control devices. MTSU experiences in excess of 100 traffic accidents a year, some are serious. Wear your seatbelts at all times. BEWARE: You have not arrived safely on campus until you have parked your vehicle.

Other Law Enforcement Agencies

Public Safety has a close working relationship with local, state, and federal law enforcement agencies. Assistance from local, state, and federal agencies is requested as required.

The local law enforcement agencies have been requested to forward Public Safety copies of their reports of all criminal activity occurring on off-campus properties belonging to campus-affiliated organizations recognized by MTSU. These along with crimes occurring on campus are reported monthly to the FBI and TBI by Public Safety. The annual report is prepared each January for the previous year. These results are published and distributed via the (1) Public Safety Calendar, (2) Semester Class Schedule Booklet, (3) Employee Orientation Material, and (4) the annual Employee Security Newsletter.

Rules and Regulations

I. The campus and facilities of the University are restricted to students, faculty, staff, guests, and invitees of the University, except when part or all of the campus, its buildings, or facilities, are open to the general public for an approved and designated time and purpose.

All persons on the campus of the University, including faculty, staff, guests, and invitees, shall be subject to all rules and regulations of the University and the Tennessee Board of Regents which are applicable to the conduct of students on campus, and to all applicable federal and state laws and regulations. All persons on the campus of the University shall provide adequate identification upon request to appropriate officials and security personnel of the University. Personnel and students of the University who refuse to provide such identification may be subject to disciplinary action, and other persons who refuse to provide such identification shall be requested to leave campus and if they refuse, may be subject to lawful removal and prosecution.

II. The use of firearms is strictly prohibited in effecting the apprehension of misdemeanants. Officers are authorized to use necessary force, including deadly force, to protect themselves or other persons from death or serious bodily harm. MTSU officers are specifically not authorized to shoot a fleeing felon unless the above conditions apply. (Officers' duty weapons are issued by Public Safety. All officers meet the firearm proficiency standards required by the Tennessee P.O.S.T. Commission.) Possession of firearms (or other statutorily defined weapons) on campus is prohibited pursuant to TCA 39-17-1309 and subject to the exceptions contained therein and to the affirmative defenses enumerated in TCA 39-17-1310. Similarly, the General Regulations on Student Conduct and Disciplinary sanctions prohibit the possession or use of any unauthorized firearm or dangerous weapons of any kind.

III. MTSU does not collect information on criminal records of applications for admission to the University. The application for employment of all employees except faculty requires that the applicant state whether he/she has been convicted of a misdemeanor or a felony. Acknowledged conviction of any crime results in an evaluation of the applicant's fitness for employment in consultation with legal staff. MTSU requires that employees notify the institution of any drug convictions resulting from a violation in the workplace no later than five days after the conviction.

IV. Public Safety personnel report all hazardous or unsafe campus conditions found to exist on a daily basis. These reports are sent directly to each respective vice president and department chairperson to ensure expeditious corrective measures. A daily security activity report is prepared and provided to the president, the assistant vice president for finance, and the vice president for student affairs. A daily summary of all criminal activity is made available to the general public at the office of Public Safety.

V. Public Safety enjoys a close working relationship with the student newspaper publication staff and the Office of Public Relations. The Department welcomes and encourages media interest concerning security matters.

VI. Public Safety personnel welcome new entering students each semester at the orientation function. A security program is presented and an information packet is distributed to all new students who attend the orientation sessions. This information is also available at Public Safety upon request. Additional Crime Prevention Programs, which include Assault Awareness, i.e. "Date/Stranger Rape," Alcohol Awareness, Individual Security, and Operation ID are presented throughout the academic year upon request.

Housing and Residence Hall Security Information

I. Types of student housing available:

Single student residence hall - accommodations for 1,827 women students in 11 halls and 1,441 men students in 11 halls are available on the campus.

In addition there are 48 one-bedroom apartments and 21 two bedroom apartments for females. Forty-eight one-bedroom and 22 two-bedroom apartments are available for males.

There are 96 one-bedroom apartments in the Family Housing Complex for students with a spouse and/or with dependent children.

II. Policies on housing assignments and requests by students for assignment changes:

Room assignments are prioritized to allow current residents to have preference in assignments for the coming year. New applicants are then assigned to available spaces based upon their date of application. Room changes are on a first-come, first-served basis for as long as University Housing has available space.

III. Policies concerning the identification and admission of visitors in student housing facilities.

Guests of the same sex may visit overnight with a resident after registering with the hall director. Guests for more than two nights must receive written permission from the housing director. Residents must be present during their guests' visit and must accept responsibility for the guests' behavior.

Guests of the opposite sex may only visit during the hours of a designated Open House or during visitation and must adhere to the policies governing those activities.

Other visitors in residence halls are required to enter and exit only by the main entrance to the hall, unless specific permission has been secured from the official in charge of the hall. Staff members are trained to challenge unrecognized individuals in the building.

IV. Measures to secure entrances to student housing facilities:

Hall lobbies (interior corridors) are closed and guests are asked to leave at 2:00 a.m.

Industrial strength locks are utilized on doors and windows and students are encouraged to adopt additional security devices on accessible windows such as the insertion of wooden window stops. These stops are provided by the University Housing Office.

Room or apartment keys are the property of the University and a student may not have duplicate keys made. Violation of this procedure will result in disciplinary action.

V. Standard security features used to secure doors and windows in student rooms:

Some exits from interior buildings are equipped with an alarm system. This alarm system is sounded if the contact is broken on the door seal. Staff check the exits as a part of their regularly scheduled rounds. Industrial framing and locking devices are utilized on the windows and doors and window stops are provided by University Housing.

VI. A description of the type and number of employees, including security personnel, assigned to the student housing facilities which shall include a description of their security training:

Each residence hall is managed by a professional area coordinator who undergoes training prior to the beginning of school. Each area coordinator supervises a resident assistant who resides on each floor of the building. Each resident assistant undergoes a week of intensive training and is required to enroll in a residence hall counseling class. RAs are required periodically to attend scheduled in-service training throughout the year. There are six area coordinators and 78 resident assistants.

Each residence hall complex has at least one reception desk which is open 24 hours. Desk assistance provides information, emergency assistance, and monitors the registration of guests to the building.

VII. The type and frequency of programs designed to inform student housing residents about housing security and enforcement procedures:

All communications with residents prior to their arrival identifies and details security measures. Immediately following check-in, each resident is strongly encouraged to attend a residence hall meeting in which the staff verbally communicates these security procedures. During the semester the security efforts are re-emphasized through programming efforts.

VIII. Policy and special security procedures for housing students during low-occupancy periods such as holidays and vacation periods:

The period between Summer and Fall, Fall and Spring, and Spring Break are officially considered closed periods and students are strongly encouraged to not remain in the residence halls. The housing director must approve an exception for those students who must remain in Housing and each resident is required to sign in on a seasonal roster. These seasonal rosters are provided to Public Safety, area coordinator, and hall guards. Additionally, three roving hall guards are employed during these periods to circulate between and through the residence halls looking for infractions.

All residence halls with interior hallways are secured by locking the exterior doors during breaks. During the Christmas and Spring Break periods, exterior locks are changed and only those students staying are issued a key for entrance. All other keys issued to residents are retrieved between Fall and Spring and Spring and Fall.

IX. Policy on the housing of guests and others not assigned to student housing or not regularly associated with institution of higher education:

Guest housing - all guests are associated with University business. These individuals are housed in Guest Housing and are not in the traditional residence halls with regularly registered students.

Summer camps and workshops - all summer camps and workshops are approved by the director of housing. Each workshop sponsor must sign a contract with the University Housing Office specifying services and rules and regulations. Each workshop is supervised by a summer director and his/her assistants.

MTSU Crime on Campus Annual Report: January-December 1998

MTSU Authorization for Automatic Deposit

Middle Tennessee State University • Murfreesboro, Tennessee

☐ New ☐ Change ☐ Cancel

I hereby authorize:

1) Middle Tennessee State University to deposit my refund via electronic fund transfer (EFT);

2) my financial institution to credit this amount to my account.

This authorization will remain in effect unless canceled in writing. A new authorization must be completed if I change my account, close my account, or change financial institutions. Note: I understand that the University needs ten (10) business days to set up this authorization, and two (2) business days for EFT after funds become available.

In the event that the exercise of this authorization for any reason results in an overpayment of financial aid actually due and payable to me, I hereby authorize the University to either: a) withhold a sum equal to the overpayment from my next disbursement of financial aid, or b) debit my above-identified checking or savings account for an amount not to exceed said overpayment. I understand that I may be subject to a financial aid billing which I must repay to MTSU if I withdraw or do not enroll in a subsequent term and have received financial aid via EFT which is in excess of my financial aid eligibility or if an overaward occurs. If any action taken by me, without adequate notification to the Business Office, results in non-acceptance of the transfer by my financial institution, I understand that the University assumes no responsibility for processing supplemental financial aids until the funds are returned to the University by my financial institution.

Information That Will Help You

Please Read Carefully!

This booklet contains the schedule of courses for Spring 2000 including evening, off-campus, and distance learning courses. It serves both undergraduate and graduate students.

Academic Advising

Don't risk delaying your graduation by taking the wrong classes or in the wrong order—see your academic advisor before you select classes. If you don't know who your advisor is, see page 6 and call the appropriate department or the advisor for your college.

Schedule Book Changes

This course schedule book contains information in existence at the time of publication. The University reserves the right to make necessary changes at any time in costs, policies, administrative procedures, and applicable state and federal laws. It may be necessary for modifications to be made in the meeting times, location, and listed teachers of courses. See current listing of available sections and schedule notes under "Schedule of Classes" at http://www.mtsu.edu/~records/schedule.html or WebMT.

Notes - Specific Course Information

Some courses have special restrictions as noted in the schedule book and/or catalog. Please remember that you are responsible for being aware of these requirements when you register. Also see schedule notes under "Schedule of Classes" at http://www.mtsu.edu/~records/schedule.html.

Violations

Transactions made through TRAM and WebMT are monitored. Access is controlled by a personal access code (PAC) and the student's social security number. Unauthorized use to alter or attempt to alter another student's personal access code or class schedule may result in disciplinary action including suspension or termination. Reserving seats in classes for those who have later registration appointment times is prohibited and may result in suspension or termination for all students involved.

When IS Registration?

Priority Registration is November 1-12. Selection of classes is almost continuous once Priority Registration begins. Remember, the earlier you select your classes, the more likely you are to get the classes you want. If you are a current student, check the top right corner of your personal data form (PDF) for your date and time to register. You may register then or anytime thereafter during registration. Note on the TRAM and WebMT menus that you can do much more than register. If you lose or did not receive your PDF, access TRAM or WebMT for your assigned time.

When ARE Fees Paid?

The deadline for paying fees depends on when you choose your classes. You can pay via TRAM, in person, or by mail. Remember, if you receive any kind of financial aid or if your fees are paid by someone else (for example, your employer, a governmental agency, or through a graduate assistantship), the fee deadline is also your deadline for notifying the Business Office that you plan to attend (Confirmation option on the TRAM and WebMT menus.). If you don't meet the deadline that corresponds to the time you selected classes, your class schedule will be deleted from the computer.

When DO I Register?

Current students are assigned a specific date and time to register during Priority Registration, November 1-12.

New Spring 2000 undergraduate students will register beginning November 13 and should follow the instructions included in the Admissions acceptance letter.

Former students (not enrolled Fall '99) readmitted for Spring 2000 will receive registration clearance from Admissions.

New Spring 2000 graduate students will receive registration clearance from Graduate Studies.

TRAM - 898-2000 (on campus dial 9-898-2000)

WebMT - http://www.mtsu.edu

Registration Help Line (615) 898-5094

Attention: You must be admitted to the University prior to registering for classes.

TRAM and WebMT Availability

Once registration for Spring Term begins, it is anticipated that the telephone and web registration system will be available seven days a week from 7 a.m. until 11 p.m. for students to register, drop/add, inquire about classes, etc. (See calendar on pages 2-3 for specific dates and times.) There will be a few days when the systems are not available due to bill processing, posting of grades, and census reporting. Every effort is made to have them available as indicated. However, unscheduled interruptions may occasionally occur. Scheduled interruptions are published on the MTSU Records webpage under General Information.

Registration Times

Students enrolled or re-enrolled prior to November 13 are assigned a registration time and may register at that time or anytime thereafter. Current students who have not received a PDF may call TRAM for their assigned times. Students who attempt to register on WebMT before their appointment time will be informed of their registration time. New undergraduate students may register beginning November 13 following acceptance from Admissions.

Course Selection Procedures

1. Consult your academic advisor about proper course selection.
2. Complete worksheet found in the back of this book.
3. Access TRAM or WebMT to register. Using a touch-tone telephone, call (615) 898-2000 (or 9-898-2000 if on campus). This is not a toll-free number. (TRAM is unavailable via some on-campus courtesy phones.) Access WebMT at www.mtsu.edu at your assigned time.

Registration Tips

1. Complete the worksheet found in the back of this book before registering. Be prepared with a schedule that includes accurate call numbers and alternate sections/courses. You are responsible for registration fees for all classes added when fee is appropriate.

   NOTE: There is a time-out period if a selection is not made.
2. Please note that when dropping one course or all of your courses from your schedule using TRAM that you should stay on the phone line until TRAM confirms your drop or withdrawal. WebMT will provide written confirmation on the computer screen. Both systems confirm requests for adds, drops, and withdrawals.
3. Students having a hold on their records may drop courses but may not add a course until the hold is cleared. Check the status of courses you wish to add before dropping other courses from your schedule. If possible, add before dropping courses. (This may not be possible in time-conflict or overload situations.)
4. If you do not plan to attend MTSU this term and you wish to drop from ALL classes, call TRAM or use WebMT by January 9.
5. To change sections of the same course number, drop the current section in which you are enrolled before requesting the new section to be added to your schedule.
6. Students required to get a departmental permit or authorization must register for the course after approval is granted by the department.
7. After the term begins on January 10: If you are dropping a class and adding another class, please note the drop and the add must be processed on the same day. The system cannot exchange the fees from the dropped class for the added class unless they are processed on the same day.

   Additional fees for classes added after fee payment are due January 13. Any unpaid fees after this date will be processed as a deferred payment. The $10 Deferred Payment Plan service fee and any applicable $25 late payment fees will be charged.

   After your initial registration is finalized, if you add a class and decide not to attend the class, you must drop it from your schedule. You will not be automatically dropped from that class by the Business Office. Your fees will be adjusted based on the refund policy in effect on the date of your drop. Please refer to the drop/add refund deadlines in the calendar on pages 2-3.
8. Other questions are answered on page 27.

Your PAC (Personal Access Code) is a confidential number that will be used for all future transactions. PACs will not be issued to a third party.*

Notice to All Students Placed on Academic Suspension After Grading

All students suspended at the end of a term who have pre-registered for classes will have their schedules deleted for the pre-registered term(s). Undergraduate suspended students who wish to appeal to attend the spring term must contact the Records Office, Cope Administration Building 106, or access the MTSU website at http://www.mtsu.edu/~records for an appeal application. The completed application must be returned to the Records Office by 4:00 p.m., January 3, 2000; otherwise the appeal will not be accepted.

Graduate students must contact the College of Graduate Studies, Cope Administration Building 114, for an appeal application. The completed application must be returned to the College of Graduate Studies by 4:30 p.m. on January 3, 2000; otherwise, the appeal will not be accepted.

If you choose to attend another institution during your suspension from MTSU, please refer to the "re-enrollee" requirements in the current MTSU catalog. You will need to re-enroll through the Admissions Office.

Graduating Seniors and Graduate Students, Please Note:

To graduate in May 2000, Intention to Graduate forms must be submitted by January 24, 2000.

If you plan to attend MTSU the term following graduation, you must file a re-enrollment form in either the Admissions Office or Graduate Office, depending on your student status.

How Can I Determine Progress Toward Completion of My Degree?

All undergraduate students who enrolled at MTSU in the Fall 1995 term or since are sent a degree audit statement just before priority registration each fall and spring term. The statement is mailed to the campus post office box of those students who have a box and to the permanent address of those without a post office box.

Courses and/or other graduation requirements not yet completed are listed to assist you in planning your class schedule for the upcoming registration. Advisors have access to the degree audit information on their computers. You may also access this information on the Internet from the WebStudent Main Menu (www.mtsu.edu) or from one of the InfoMT kiosks located on campus.

NO SHOTS— NO REGISTRATION

Effective July 1, 1998, the State of Tennessee requires students entering colleges, universities, and technical institutes with enrollment of greater than 200 students to provide proof of two (2) doses of measles, mumps, and rubella (MMR) vaccine on or after the first birthday, or proof of immunity to measles if date of birth is 1957 or after.

Distance Learning

MTSU offers distance learning classes taught by various delivery methods. Distance Learning sections are taught on-line (Internet/e-mail), by compressed video, correspondence, and telecourse. Further details may be found in the Distance Learning section beginning on page 154.

MTSU and TSU Educational Consortium

Middle Tennessee State University and Tennessee State University have joined in an educational consortium to provide cross-registration opportunities for undergraduate students enrolled at each institution. MTSU students desiring to register for TSU courses should follow the procedures below.

1. Obtain an "Agreement for Admission and Registration Form" from MTSU Admissions Office, Cope Administration Building 208.
2. Complete top of form.
3. Have appropriate personnel certify accuracy of data on form.
4. Register for MTSU courses; pay fees.
5. Present form to Admissions and Records personnel at TSU.
6. Register for courses at TSU, and present MTSU receipt; pay additional fees to TSU if any.

The two consortium advisors or appropriate members of their staffs will provide information to ease in the transition and registration between institutions.

Enrolling at MTSU

Becoming a student is a four-step process:

1. Admission or Readmission
2. Academic Advising
3. Class Selection by TRAM or WebMT
4. Pay Fees or Confirm That You Will Attend

1. Admission or Re-admission

Undergraduate

STUDENTS IN RESIDENCE during Fall 1999 will be mailed a PERSONAL DATA FORM (PDF) for registration for the spring academic term.

FORMER STUDENTS who were not in attendance during Fall 1999 must complete a re-enrollment form. Registration information along with specific information concerning selection of classes will be mailed to those students re-entering Spring 2000.

ALL NEW STUDENTS, including part-time students, must complete their admissions credentials and be accepted for admission. General information, registration materials, and new student registration information will be mailed to all accepted students. Applications may be sent during registration, but large numbers of last minute applications will cause processing delays.

To better serve you...

It is important that the Admissions Office personnel have sufficient time to process your application for admission to the University; therefore, persons applying for admission on January 5, 2000, or after may be requested to select classes during the late registration period.

All first-time degree-seeking freshmen under age 21 must present official ACT scores prior to admission. The ACT examination is available on the MTSU campus by contacting the Counseling and Testing Center, Keathley University Center 329, or by calling 898-2670. Additionally, ACT composite and mathematics and English sub-scores will be used to identify students requiring academic assessment testing for purposes of placement. Minimum requirements are that applicants under 21 years of age

1. whose ACT composite score is 18 or lower must complete a reading comprehension test.
2. whose ACT mathematics sub-score is 18 or lower must take the appropriate mathematics tests as determined by level of high school preparation in mathematics.
3. whose ACT English sub-score is 18 or lower must complete a writing exam.

First-time freshmen who are 21 years of age or older on January 10 or transfer students without previous English or math course work will be required to participate in an additional testing program prior to registration. This additional testing program will help in course placement and may result in requiring some students to enroll in developmental courses as additions to their degree programs.

Students admitted with high school unit deficiencies in English and/or math must complete the appropriate assessments tests, be advised by an academic advisor, and register to take appropriate course(s) upon enrollment to remove deficiencies. Developmental Studies courses and courses taken to remove deficiencies do not count toward the required hours to earn a degree.

Questions concerning undergraduate residency should be directed to the Admissions Office in Cope Administration Building 208 prior to registering for classes.

Note to transient students: Registration at MTSU includes prerequisite checking which may require validation of course completion. Students who are prevented from enrolling in a course due to a prerequisite, but have completed the prerequisite at another institution, should present a transcript to the academic department of the requested course.

Graduate

A POST-BACCALAUREATE STUDENT may receive graduate status by completing a graduate admissions application and submitting it to the College of Graduate Studies, 114 Cope Administration Building. Once graduate status is declared (application entered on computer), a student is eligible to enroll in graduate courses at MTSU and registration materials will be mailed (personal data form and schedule book). The granting of graduate status does not necessarily mean that one has been admitted to a graduate program. In most cases, the total number of graduate hours in which a student may register prior to admission into a graduate program is limited to 12 (6 in Elementary and Special Education). Curriculum and Instruction majors in Elementary Education must meet with an advisor prior to enrolling in graduate classes. Students pursuing an M.Ed. in Administration and Supervision or an Ed.S. in Administration and Supervision or in Curriculum and Instruction in the Educational Leadership Department must be admitted to the program prior to registration for course work. Students pursuing an M.Ed. in Curriculum and Instruction in the Educational Leadership Department must be admitted to the program prior to the completion of 6 hours credit. Students applying to degree programs in Business Administration, Accounting, or Information Systems who have not met admissions requirements cannot take graduate courses but may enroll in undergraduate prerequisites.

A student must file a re-enrollment application if he/she breaks continuous enrollment (except summer term). If granted, the student may re-enroll for the identified term.

For non-degree-seeking post-baccalaureate students, readmission is generally routine and is granted by the dean of the College of Graduate Studies. For degree-seeking students, readmission is not guaranteed. Each graduate program may have a specific readmission policy; students should contact the appropriate department for information. Readmission requires the recommendation of a representative of the graduate program and approval by the dean of the College of Graduate Studies. Some graduate programs regularly allow readmission if the "stop-out" period is no more than one year; others are more restrictive.

AN ADVANCEMENT TO CANDIDACY FORM must be filed and approved prior to completion of 24 credit hours or earlier if required by the graduate program (Criminal Justice 16 hours). Business majors must complete this form upon acceptance into the program. The candidacy form must be approved by the graduate advisor and the dean of the College of Graduate Studies.

Graduate residency questions should be directed to the Graduate Office, Cope 114. See page 7 for the phone number of the graduate liaison for your program.

2. Academic Advising

Undergraduate

Students enrolled during the Fall Term 1999 should consult their advisors prior to registration. New students will receive their acceptance notification and a list of advisors who can help them select classes.

Advisors are not required to sign the worksheets; however, all students should obtain their advice before scheduling classes.

Graduate

If you are a degree-seeking student not yet admitted to the graduate program of your choice, upon receiving graduate status you may register for classes. Please contact an advisor prior to registration and submit all admissions materials as soon as possible. If you have not been admitted to a graduate program, registration will not be allowed once you reach the maximum hours allowed by the graduate program. (See above.)

If you are a degree-seeking student admitted to a graduate program, please contact your assigned advisor prior to registration. You must consult with your graduate advisor during your first semester to formulate your curriculum to be assured that the courses you take will apply to your program requirements.

If you are a non-degree-seeking student, not all graduate courses are open to you. Non-degree-seeking students cannot enroll in graduate courses in the College of Business without prior approval by the director of graduate business studies. Non-degree-seeking students are blocked from enrolling in 700-level courses. Consult with the department for specific information.

3. Class Selection by TRAM and WebMT

A Personal Data Form will be mailed to all students enrolled Fall 1999 prior to Spring 2000 registration. The PDF is mailed to the MTSU Post Office box for all full-time students and part-time students who live on campus and have a box or to the permanent address for those who do not have a box. Your date and time to register is printed on the top right corner of your PDF. Current students who do not receive a PDF before Priority Registration should access TRAM or WebMT or contact the Scheduling Center. You cannot select classes if a department has placed a hold on your registration. Be sure to resolve all obligations before registration. Students who owe money to the University must clear debts before registration will be allowed.

Appointment Times

Since all students cannot register at the same time, it is necessary to establish priorities in the assignment of registration times. For currently enrolled students, times are based on the number of cumulative hours earned. Since registration occurs before the end of the term, appointment times do not reflect hours attempted during the current term. If you attempt to register before your assigned time, the registration system will remind you when to register.

Course Availability Information

Open sections of courses and changes and additions are updated periodically on MTSU's web pages and take precedence over information appearing in this schedule of classes. Consult the InfoMT Kiosks and the web at http://www.mtsu.edu/~records/schedule.html or via WebMT.

Evening and Off-Campus Classes

Evening Registration: Please select classes by calling TRAM at (615) 898-2000 on any touch-tone telephone or by accessing WebMT at www.mtsu.edu. Refer to specific instructions for registration on page 4 of this book.

Off-Campus Registration: Students taking MTSU courses that do not meet on the MTSU campus should register by TRAM or WebMT. Fee payment deadlines and late registration fees apply to all students. Off-campus courses can be found on page 176.

4. Pay Fees/Confirm You Will Attend

Fee Payment information is also available at http://www.mtsu.edu/~bursarmt

Spring 2000 Fee Payment and Financial Aid Disbursement

Final Fee Payment

Two options will be available for students to pay fees on December 14-16.

- Business Office Cashier Windows, Cope Administration Building, 8 a.m.-5:30 p.m.
- TRAM payment by credit card or check card, 7 a.m.-11 p.m. (5:30 p.m. December 16)

Schedules will be deleted if fees are not paid by 5:30 p.m. December 16.

Open Registration - December 17-January 9

Students can register or re-register if their schedules are deleted. The fee payment deadline for students who register during open registration is January 13 at 5:30 p.m.

Financial Aid Refunds

- Direct Deposits. Students who sign up to have their financial aid refund direct deposited to their bank checking or saving accounts can have their refunds as early as January 10. (See Direct Deposit on page 15.)
- Refund checks will be disbursed at James Union Building Tennessee Room. Checks will be available on Thursday, January 13, 9 a.m.-5:30 p.m., and Friday, January 14, 9 a.m.-3:30 p.m. (See page 15.)

Financial Aid Deferments

Students can be granted a financial aid deferment only if they have filed their federal application (FAFSA) and have received a student aid report (SAR form) with a valid EFC number. Stafford loans cannot be processed until an SAR is received.

Students who have not received an SAR and submitted a loan application must be prepared to pay their own fees by the fee payment deadline.

All financial aid will be adjusted for class attendance on the 14th day of classes. See page 16.

Employee Fee Waivers

TBR, UT, and State employee (PC 191A) fee waiver students can register beginning December 8. See page 12.

NOTE: Students should retain bills, records of payments, and records of financial aid for income tax purposes. Students who pay their own fees or use loans may be eligible for income tax credits and must retain their records.

For Spring Priority Registrants: Fee Payment Deadline Is December 16, 1999

During the last week of November 1999, the Statement of Accounts/Class Schedules for students who pre-register for Spring 2000 will be mailed to the permanent addresses.

Students who want their bills mailed to an address other than their permanent addresses should come to the Business Office before November 19 to set up a special billing address.

If you have not received your bill by December 3, contact the Bursar's Office at (615) 898-2761 or come by the Business Office, Cope Administration Building 103. Failure to receive a bill does not relieve students of the obligation to pay fees by the due date.

Bills will be mailed daily to students who register November 22-December 10. Students who register after December 10 should be prepared to pay fees on TRAM by credit or check card or come in person to the Business Office by December 16.

The Statement of Account should be reviewed carefully to make sure all information is correct. Any changes after the billing date on the statement will change the balance due. If there are questions about your account balance, use the Determine Account Balance option on the TRAM Fee Payment/Confirmation Menu or access WebMT to determine your current balance before payment is mailed.

Students who pre-registered for Spring 2000 can pay fees by credit card or check card on TRAM December 1-16. Payments can be made in person at the Business Office December 1-16 or by mail December 1-10. Mailed payments must be postmarked no later than December 10, 1999.

If fees are paid in full by cash, check, or credit card, your registration is finalized. It is not necessary to also confirm. Your payment is your confirmation. Students who pay the minimum payment do not need to confirm.

Fees must be paid before 5:30 p.m. on Thursday, December 16, or your schedule will be deleted from the computer. That means that if you want to take classes, you have to start the process of selecting courses all over again. Beginning January 10, you will be charged a $25 late registration fee. Previously selected classes will not be reinstated. (See dates on pages 2-3.)

If your fees are paid in full by financial aid, third party, or other credits, you must complete the registration process by confirming that you will be attending MTSU for Spring 2000. To confirm/complete your registration, access TRAM or WebMT. See the menus on pages 189 and 191. Listening to or reviewing your classes does not complete registration; you MUST select the Confirm You Will Attend option. This will ensure that a code is entered in the computer to hold your classes. If your registration is not completed and a code entered in the computer before 5:30 p.m. on Thursday, December 16, 1999, your schedule will be deleted from the computer.

Fee Payment/Financial Aid Confirmation Options

Fee Payment deadline is December 16, 5:30 p.m.

1. TRAM: December 1-16, 1999
   Credit card or check card payment of registration fees by telephone. You can make credit card or check card payments with Visa or MasterCard on TRAM. Most local banks have check cards available through Visa or MasterCard which can be used on TRAM to pay registration fees. Call TRAM at (615) 898-2000 to pay registration fees by credit card or to use your bank check card to deduct the amount of your fees from your checking account. Try this TRAM feature for the most convenient payment method available.
2. TRAM or WebMT: December 1-16, 1999
   Confirm registration. You must confirm you will attend if fees are paid in full by financial aid, third party, or other credits. Your balance after financial aid is credited must be ZERO or a credit balance to confirm your registration. See the menus on pages 189 and 191. Select the Confirm You Will Attend option. When you select this option, the system will enter a code in the computer to hold your classes and validate your registration. (See How Do I Confirm? on page 13.)
3. Mail-in payment: December 1-10, 1999
   Payment for the exact amount of fees due must be accompanied by the remittance portion of the statement. Payments must be mailed in time to be postmarked on or before December 10, 1999.
4. Campus Mail: December 1-15, 1999
   Payment can be mailed at the Campus Post Office in Keathley University Center or at the blue Campus Mail Drop Box in the parking lot at the west end of the Cope Administration Building. Do not put payments in Campus Mail or the blue Campus Mail Drop Box on December 16.
5. In person: December 1-13, 8 a.m.-4:30 p.m.; December 14-16, 1999, 8 a.m.-5:30 p.m.
   Fees may be paid at the Business Office cashier windows in Cope Administration Building. Students must bring their student IDs and the remittance portion of their bills when they come to pay fees in person. Office hours are 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. weekdays. Hours on December 14-16 are 8 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.
6. Final Fee Payment: December 14-16, 1999
   Students may pay fees on TRAM, 7 a.m.-11 p.m. (7 a.m.-5:30 p.m. December 16) or at the Business Office cashier windows in Cope Administration Building from 8 a.m.-5:30 p.m. TRAM will not be available on December 16 after 5:30 p.m.

   Students must bring their student IDs with them to pay registration fees.

   NOTE: Students are advised to consider one of the early fee payment options, mailing the payment, or paying on TRAM. For those who wait until December 14-16 to pay fees in person, parking will be limited and lines may be long.

Students MUST come to the Business Office by December 16 to pay fees and complete registration IF:

a. Fee payment was not mailed by December 10 and cannot be paid by credit card or check card on TRAM.
b. Credits for third party, scholarship, employee fee discounts, etc. did not appear on the Statement of Account/Class Schedule. Bring authorization form to the third party clerk at the Business Office.
c. They registered late and did not receive a bill or have time to mail in their payment by December 10 or cannot pay by credit card or check card on TRAM.

Fees must be paid or you must confirm that you will attend MTSU for Spring 2000 by 5:30 p.m. on December 16 or your class schedule will be deleted.

Fee Payment for Other Registrations

December 17 - January 9
Fee Payment/Confirmation Deadline - January 13, 5:30 p.m.
Students who register or re-register December 17-January 9 must pay fees at the Business Office cashier windows on January 3-7 from 8:00 a.m.-4:30 p.m. or on January 10-13 from 8:00 a.m.-5:30 p.m. Fees may be paid by credit card or check card on TRAM from December 17-January 13 at 5:30 p.m. Class schedules will be deleted if payment is not made by 5:30 p.m. on January 13.

January 10-13 - Late Registration
Fee Payment/Confirmation Deadline - January 13, 5:30 p.m.
A $25 late fee will be charged beginning January 10.
Fees may be paid at the Business Office cashier windows on January 10-13 from 8:00 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Fees may be paid by credit card or check card on TRAM from January 10-13 at 5:30 p.m. Class schedules will be deleted if payment is not made by 5:30 p.m. on January 13.

Deferred Payment Plan

Although all charges are due and payable in full at the beginning of each term, students in good financial standing at MTSU may defer payment of up to 50 percent of their registration, housing, and freshmen meal plan fees for the fall and spring semesters. To be eligible for the Deferred Payment Plan, each participant must make a minimum down payment of 50 percent of the registration fees, dorm rent, and freshmen meal plan costs. The balance due must be $400 or more after all discounts, waivers, financial aid, and other credits are applied.

A student who fails to make timely payments in a previous term will be denied the right to participate in the deferred payment plan in future enrollment periods. A student who is denied participation may be allowed to participate again only after completion of payment in full for two consecutive terms which allow deferments (fall or spring terms). Any student who makes payment with a check which is subsequently returned will be denied participation in the Deferred Payment Plan in all future terms.

The amount deferred will be payable in two monthly installments. For the spring term, installment payments are due by

March 1 and April 3. The University is not obligated to send reminder notices before the payment is due. Participants in this plan must apply all discounts, waivers, credits, and financial aid, including student loans, toward payment of registration fees before a deferment will be considered. Financial aid and other credits received after the initial payment will be applied to the remaining balance, and future amounts due will be recomputed. No refunds can be made until all fees are paid in full.

Students must select either the Deferred Payment Plan or the Housing Deferment Plan.

Students will not be withdrawn for failure to pay the second or third payments. However, the balance must be paid in full before the student can pre-register for future terms even if preregistration is prior to the due date.

Each participant will be charged a $10.00 service fee each term to defray administrative costs. This fee is payable along with the 50 percent down payment on or before the registration fee payment deadline. An additional late payment charge of $25 will be assessed for each installment not paid on or before the tenth day of the month that a payment is due. Students who make payments with checks that are returned will be charged a $20 return check service fee as well as any applicable late fees.

If a payment is not received in the Business Office by the scheduled payment due date, the University will withhold all services from the student, including grades, transcripts, and future registration until the fees have been paid in full including any assessed late fees.

All existing rules and policies pertaining to returned checks, refunds, withdrawals, dropped classes, and collection costs are applicable to the Deferred Payment Plan.

Payment of the minimum amount due on the Deferred Payment Plan finalizes registration. The class schedule will not be deleted. It is not necessary to confirm on TRAM or WebMT. The minimum payment is your confirmation you will attend. A code will be put in the computer to hold your class schedule when the minimum payment is paid.

If you have any questions regarding the Deferred Payment Plan, please contact the Bursar's Office at (615) 898-2761.

Refunds/Withdrawal from Classes

Students who drop or withdraw from classes will still have a balance due under the deferred payment plan. Fees are adjusted based on the drop or withdrawal date. The refund percentage is NOT applied to the amount of payment, but rather as a percentage adjustment of total fees. A refund would only be issued to the student if the newly adjusted amount of fees is less than the amount that has been paid by the student.

Added Classes After Fee Payment

Additional fees for classes added after fee payment are due before the late registration fee payment deadline, or on the same day the class is added if after late registration. Any unpaid fees after this date will be processed as a deferred payment. The $10 Deferred Payment Plan service fee and any applicable $25 late payment fees will be charged.

Payment Methods

1. Personal check or money order. Checks should be made payable to Middle Tennessee State University and include the student's social security number on the face of the check.
2. Visa or MasterCard. Credit card or check card payments can be made by telephone. Call TRAM at (615) 898-2000 (9-898-2000 on campus) to pay registration fees by credit card or to use your bank Visa or MasterCard check card. Students may pay either the full amount due or the minimum payment on the Deferred Payment Plan by credit card or check card on TRAM.
3. Cash. Cash can be taken only at the Business Office Cashier Windows, Cope Administration Building. Do not mail cash.
4. Deferred Payment Plan. See above for information about an option for deferring a portion of your registration fees. (If you are eligible to participate in the Deferred Payment Plan, your bill will show both the Minimum Amount Due and the Total Amount Due. Students who choose to participate in the Deferred Payment Plan simply pay the minimum amount due. The bill will show the due date and amounts of subsequent payments.)
5. Financial Aid, Stafford Loan Credits, or Estimated (pending) Financial Aid. If your bill shows your fees will be paid in full by financial aid, you must confirm you will attend before the fee payment deadline or your class schedule will be deleted. (See How do I confirm?)
6. Perkins or MTSU loan checks. If you are approved to receive a Perkins or MTSU loan, it will show on your bill as estimated aid. All Perkins or MTSU loan borrowers must come in person and sign promissory notes before Perkins loan funds can be released. Confirm registration as soon as you get your bill, then come to sign notes and endorse checks at the Business Office (Cope 101) on January 10-14.
7. PLUS Loans. PLUS loans will be sent electronically. They will not show as estimated aid and will not be received in time to show as a credit on bills. Your PLUS loan will not be available by the fee payment deadline on December 16. If you are approved to receive a PLUS loan that must be used to pay fees, go to the Financial Aid Office or call (615) 898-2830 by December 14. You will need a deferment to hold your classes until your loan is available.
8. Employee Fee Waivers (PC 191A). If you are a full-time employee of any Tennessee Board of Regents school, the University of Tennessee, or the State of Tennessee (not public school teachers), you are eligible for a fee waiver on the tuition for one (1) class. Fee waiver participants may register beginning December 8. After class selection, completed fee waiver forms should be submitted in person to the Business Office, Cope Administration Building 103, before the fee payment deadline.

Class Selection - December 8-16
Turn in Fee Waiver Forms by December 16, 5:30 p.m.

NOTE: Fee Waiver Forms will not be processed if class selection is made prior to December 8. If your class is dropped, you may re-register December 17-January 9.

Class Selection - December 17 - January 9
Turn in Fee Waiver Form by January 13 at 5:30 p.m.

Class Selection - January 10-13
Turn in Fee Waiver Form by January 13 at 5:30 p.m.
(A $25 late fee will be charged for class selection beginning January 10.)

9. Reduced Rate Registration (Senior Adult/Permanently Disabled). Under T.C.A. Section 49-7-113, a student 60 years of age or older or permanently disabled may audit courses with no tuition charge. A student 65 years of age or older or permanently disabled may take classes for credit at a reduced rate of one-half the semester hour rate up to a maximum of $75.00. Registration under these programs is on a space-available basis. Therefore, senior/adult permanently disabled participants cannot Priority Register. Class selection under these programs should be processed on the first day of class for the session. After class selection, authorization memos should be brought in person to the Business Office, Cope Administration Building 103, before the fee payment deadline below. The late registration fee for these program participants will be waived.

Spring 2000 Financial Aid Applications and Deferments

Financial aid deferments for students who have applied for financial aid will be strictly limited for Spring 2000. The only students who may apply for a financial aid deferment are those who have received a student aid report (SAR form) with a valid EFC number. If you have utilized the financial aid deferment in the past, chances are you will NOT be eligible for such a deferment in the future. If your estimated financial aid is not credited to your account by December 10, bring your SAR form to the Financial Aid Office before December 14. Students who have not received an SAR form must be prepared to pay their own fees or their class schedule will be deleted.

Financial Aid Applications for Fall 2000 - Spring 2001

Application forms will be available in January.

Students should apply for financial aid during February and March, 2000, to ensure that their financial aid process will be completed and funds available for Fall 2000.

Financial Aid information is also available at: http://www.mtsu.edu/~fin_aid/

How Do I Confirm?

STUDENTS MUST EITHER PAY, CONFIRM, GET A DEFERMENT, OR LOSE THEIR CLASSES. If fees are paid by cash, check, or credit card, registration is validated or finalized. It is not necessary to also confirm on TRAM or WebMT. Your payment is your confirmation. This also applies to students who make the minimum payment on the Deferred Payment Plan.

If fees are paid in full by financial aid, Federal Stafford loans, third party, or other credits, you must complete the registration process by confirming that you will attend MTSU for Spring 2000. To confirm you will attend MTSU this term , access TRAM or WebMT December 1-16, 1999, and do the following:

- On TRAM, select 3 for the Fee Payment Confirmation Menu; then select option 1 to Confirm Your Registration.
- On WebMT, select the Account Balance/Confirm Registration menu, select Confirm Registration, then select Confirm Spring 2000.

See the menus on pages 189 and 191. Listening to or reviewing your classes does not complete registration; you MUST select the Confirm Your Registration option. When you select this option, the system will enter a code into the computer to hold your classes. If in doubt, try the process again, and the system will tell you if your registration has been confirmed.

If your registration is not confirmed and a code entered in the computer before 5:30 p.m., December 16 , 1999, your class schedule will be deleted. Financial aid refunds cannot be processed until confirmation is completed.

If you decide not to attend MTSU after confirming, you must withdraw from the University. See withdrawal information on page 24.

Graduate Assistantship Fees

If you are a graduate assistant, your assistantship will pay for maintenance, debt service, and technology fees. You will owe a balance for the recreation fee and student activity fees. An in-state graduate assistant taking 9 graduate hours would owe a minimum of $70.00. Graduate assistantships will not normally pay for undergraduate classes. You must pay your balance due (or confirm you will attend if you have other financial aid) by the fee payment deadline or your class schedule will be deleted. If credit for your assistantship does not show on your bill, contact the Graduate Office at 898-5897.

Third Party Sponsorship of Fees

If you are a sponsored student (fees to be billed to an employer, government agency, or foreign embassy), your account should reflect credits for the fees to be paid by your sponsor. If your statement does not show these credits, contact your sponsor to determine if authorization paperwork has been sent to the Business Office, or bring a fee authorization form to the Business Office during the early fee payment period. Payment, whether by check or by third party authorization, is required by the due date or your class schedule will be deleted.

If your fees are PAID IN FULL BY THIRD PARTY (your balance is ZERO or a CREDIT BALANCE on the statement you will receive), you MUST confirm that you will attend before the fee payment deadline or your class schedule will be deleted. (See How Do I Confirm?)

Financial Aid/Loans

The following Financial Aid disbursement procedures, instructions, and dates for Spring 2000 are subject to change. Updated instructions will be provided with the bill you receive in late November and will be available on the MTSU Web site (http://www.mtsu.edu/~bursarmt/).

Please read the following instructions carefully if you have applied for financial aid for Spring 2000. If your financial aid has been approved, Estimated Aid (or pending aid) will show on your bill. (See detailed explanation below.)

Estimated Aid will show for Federal Stafford loans once the loan has been guaranteed. Estimated Aid will not show for PLUS loans.

If your bill shows your fees will be paid in full by financial aid and/or Estimated Aid, you must confirm you will attend MTSU this term and finalize your registration before December 16, 1999, at 5:30 p.m. or your class schedule will be deleted. (See How Do I Confirm?)

If fees will not be paid in full by the financial aid credits, the balance due on your bill must be paid before December 16, 1999, at 5:30 p.m. Your class schedule will be deleted if the balance due is not paid.

If you expect to receive financial aid for the term, but awards are not on your bill, contact the Financial Aid Office at (615) 898-2830 or bring your SAR to the Financial Aid Office before December 14 so that problems can be resolved before the fee payment deadline.

You may also access TRAM at (615) 898-2000 or WebMT at http://www.mtsu.edu to check your account balance to determine if an award or loan has been credited to your account after your bill was printed. If your balance due is zero or a credit, you should then confirm you will attend on TRAM or WebMT. (See How Do I Confirm?)

What Is Estimated Aid?

If financial aid credits show on your bill under Estimated Aid (pending aid), these are the amounts of Federal Stafford loans guaranteed, Perkins loans, scholarships, grants, or awards that have been approved for Spring 2000. The actual aid will not be credited to your account until immediately prior to the start of classes and/or until all required paperwork is completed. (PLUS loans will not show as Estimated Aid.)

All Perkins and MTSU loan borrowers must come in person and sign promissory notes before loan funds can be released. Confirm registration as soon as you get your bill, then come to sign notes and endorse checks at the Business Office (Cope 101) January 10-14, 2000.

Estimated Aid is for billing and confirmation purposes only. It is not actual aid. It has not been credited to your account. It is pending. If for some reason your actual aid is not processed after you are registered or if you withdraw or otherwise become ineligible before actual aid is applied to your account, you will still be responsible for unpaid fees. Some of the reasons your actual aid may not be credited are that you did not sign your promissory note; you dropped below the required number of hours, you became academically ineligible, you did not make satisfactory academic progress, you did not complete all required paperwork, or you did not have your entrance interview.

If you have applied for a Spring-only Stafford Loan, the estimated aid will include the second disbursement amount. Refund checks for second disbursements will be available beginning March 17.

If you are a freshmen first-time borrower whose Stafford Loan has been approved, the Estimated Aid on your bill will include the amount of your loan disbursement that must be held for 30 days. Refund checks for freshmen first-time borrowers who did not sign up for Direct Deposit will be available beginning February 14.

LOANS—
Federal Stafford, PLUS, Perkins, and MTSU

You must be registered at least half-time to be eligible to receive loan funds (6 undergraduate hours or 5 graduate hours).

First-time borrowers and transfer students must have an entrance interview before Federal Stafford loan funds can be credited to their accounts. A feature available on TRAM will allow first-time loan borrowers and transfer students to complete their loan entrance interview by phone. (See the menus on pages 189 and 191.) If you have not had an entrance interview, be sure to complete this requirement on TRAM to prevent your loan disbursement from being delayed. Do this as soon as possible after you apply for your loan.

If you are a freshmen receiving a Federal Stafford Loan for the first time, your loan funds must be held for 30 days after you begin class. If your loan does not show on your bill as an Estimated Aid credit, you should make arrangements to pay your fees with either a check or credit card until the loan proceeds can be released. Freshmen should be prepared to buy their books with their own funds.

Bank Loans - Electronic Fund Transfer (EFT)

Federal Stafford and PLUS Loans from the EdSouth, First American Bank, First Tennessee Bank, Bank of Murfreesboro, SunTrust, and Union Planters are electronically transferred directly to MTSU.

Stafford Loans - If you have returned your signed promissory note to your bank and your loan has been guaranteed, your approved Stafford loan will show on your bill as Estimated Aid.

PLUS loans - PLUS loans do not show as estimated aid and will not be received in time to show as a credit on bills. Your loan will not be available by the fee payment deadline on December 16. If you are approved to receive a PLUS loan that must be used to pay fees, go to the Financial Aid Office or call (615) 898-2830 by December 14. You will need a deferment to hold your classes until your loan is available.

When Stafford and PLUS loan proceeds are received electronically from your bank (about three days before classes begin), your loan will automatically be transferred to your student account to pay Spring 2000 registration fees, provided you are registered at least half-time, have had your entrance interview, have made satisfactory academic progress, have no financial aid holds, and are otherwise eligible to receive the loan.

How Do I Get My Financial Aid CREDIT BALANCE REFUND?

If you have a credit balance due to financial aid, you must confirm you will attend on TRAM or WebMT before your refund can be direct deposited or your refund check can be processed. Confirm as soon as possible after you receive your bill. (See How Do I Confirm?)

Direct Deposits - Refunds will be deposited in bank accounts on January 10-11 for students who meet all eligibility requirements and whose aid is credited to their student accounts by January 5. See Direct Deposit information below or come by the Business Office, Cope 103, or call (615) 898-5716. You can also obtain a Direct Deposit Authorization Form on page 188 or from http://www.mtsu.edu/~bursarmt/direct.html. For the spring term, the deadline to sign up for direct deposit is December 16 for the refund to be available on January 10-11.

Transfers to RAIDER FUND$ - You also have the option of having all or a portion of your credit balance transferred to your RAIDER FUND$ account (See RAIDER FUND$ information on page 22). Information about transferring funds to your RAIDER FUND$ account is available on the web at http://www.mtsu.edu~bursarmt/raidreg.html or come by the Business Office (cashier window 9 or 11) to request a credit balance transfer to RAIDER FUND$. Students who have a small credit balance (less than $300) may find this a very convenient way to receive their refund and have it immediately available to use to buy books, meals, etc.

Balances transferred to RAIDER FUND$ will be available for use on January 10 for students to buy books or meal plans, provided transfer requests are received by December 16, 1999.

Refund Checks - If you do not sign up to have your refund direct deposited to your checking account or transferred to your RAIDER FUND$ account, you can pick up your refund checks at your scheduled time at the James Union Building Tennessee Room on January 13-14. Refunds will be available at the Business Office cashier windows 9 and 11 in the Cope Administration Building beginning January 18.

NOTE: You must have an MTSU ID card to pick up any refund check. NO EXCEPTIONS. If you do not have an ID, one can be made on the track level of Murphy Center.

James Union Building Tennessee Room Financial Aid Refund Check Disbursement January 13-14

Students who did not sign up for Direct Deposit can pick up refund checks on January 13-14 at the Tennessee Room, according to the sequence below. Students who have a credit balance must call TRAM or access WebMT to confirm their registration before a refund check can be disbursed.

For the Spring term, the deadline to sign up for direct deposit is December 16 for the refund to be available on January 10-11.

Alphabetic Sequence - Tennessee Room Financial Aid Refund Check Disbursement

1:30 p.m. - KL
2:00-5:30 p.m. - Open*

Open for any students who cannot come to pick up refund checks at their assigned times.*

How can I get my refund earlier?

Direct Deposit!

Students who sign up for direct deposit will have their deposit sent two or three days before refund checks will be available to students who pick up checks. If you apply for financial aid early, make satisfactory academic progress, have no financial aid holds, confirm your registration, and meet all other requirements, your refund should be in your checking account two or three days before you can pick up a refund check. If there is a problem with direct deposit, you can still come and pick up your check in person.

If you are not signed up for Direct Deposit by December 16 and need a portion of your refund to buy books on January 10, you have the option of having all or a portion of your refund transferred to your RAIDER FUND$ account. Requests to transfer credits to RAIDER FUND$ must be made at the Business Office (cashier windows 9 or 11) by December 16.

Direct Deposit of Financial Aid Credit Balance Refunds

Avoid the lines! Save time! Get your refund early! Use the form on page 188 to sign up now!

Students who have a credit balance due to financial aid have the option of having the excess aid balance direct deposited into their checking or savings accounts. If financial aid has been credited to the student's account by January 5, the refund will be deposited into the student's bank account and available for use on January 10 (provided the student has met all financial aid eligibility requirements and has completed all required paperwork). Students must confirm they will attend before their refund can be direct deposited.

Students must complete an authorization form at least 10 days prior to the day their first deposit is made. For the spring term the cut off date is December 16 for the refund to be available on January 10. Financial aid proceeds will not be transferred to the student's banking account without authorization. To obtain an authorization form, come by the Business Office in the Cope Administration Building, cashier window 9, or Room 103, or call (615) 898-5716. You can also obtain a Direct Deposit Authorization Form from the web at http://www.mtsu.edu/~bursarmt/direct.html, and a form is provided on page 188 of this book. Forms for spring can be turned in anytime during the fall term prior to December 16.

This authorization will remain in effect until terminated by the student. Students must notify the Business Office immediately if an account is closed.

Sign up for Direct Deposit and try the most convenient way to get your refund.

How to Apply for Financial Aid

Financial Aid information is also available at: http://www.mtsu.edu/~fin_aid/

STEP 1: Prospective students and their parents should complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) following the instructions very carefully. Forms are available beginning in January for the next Fall, Spring, and Summer semesters. Forms are available from the MTSU Financial Aid Office and most high school guidance counselors.

STEP 2: The FAFSA can be mailed to the processing center in the envelope provided in the application or by completing the FAFSA online on the Internet at the current address http://www.fafsa.ed.gov/. Please follow the instructions carefully. The federal processor will not process your application until they receive the "signature page." It generally takes 6-8 weeks for the federal processor to process your application manually and two weeks using the Internet.

STEP 3: When the MTSU Financial Aid Office receives a complete and valid Student Aid Report (SAR), students will receive an award letter stating the tentative financial aid they will be awarded. Please follow instructions carefully. The award letter will show both grants and loans for which the student is eligible. Please remember to write Accept or Reject beside each award, sign the form, and return it to the Financial Aid Office, Cope Building 218. Students wanting a Stafford Loan must submit a Loan Request Sheet (LRS) to the Financial Aid Office.

Scholarship Applications

University scholarship applications are available starting each January for the following school year. Applications are available on the MTSU Financial Aid web page at www.mtsu.edu/~fin_aid, in the Financial Aid Office, or from most Tennessee high school guidance counselors. Awards are based upon ACT scores, GPA as of the seventh semester, and financial need. Please see the Financial Aid web page for a listing of University scholarships.

Students are encouraged to use the Internet for outside scholarship searches. A free scholarship search—www.fastweb.com—is available. Students can also connect to the free scholarship search through the MTSU Financial Aid web home page at www.mtsu.edu/~fin_aid/.

Deadline for Financial Aid Applications

The deadline to apply for federal financial aid is printed on the FAFSA application. MTSU processes these applications as they are received from the U.S. Department of Education. Therefore, all students are encouraged to complete their applications immediately after completing their federal tax forms.

Generally, all campus-based federal aid—SEOG, College Work Study, and Perkins—is awarded for the academic year by May 15. Federal campus-based awards are based upon need, GPA, and the availability of funds. The Tennessee Student Assistance award is determined by the Tennessee Student Assistance Corporation (TSAC). This award is also based upon the availability of funds and the student's need. Tennessee residents are automatically considered for the TSAC grant when they complete the FAFSA application.

Students who apply after all campus-based aid has been awarded are still eligible for the Pell grant. Pell grant amounts are determined by the student's need and the number of hours enrolled.

Federal loans are also available for students to borrow based upon their grade level. All students must have a completed FAFSA on file and have completed a loan request sheet before a loan can be approved by the Financial Aid Office.

Loan eligibility is limited by a student's classification and a lifetime loan limit. The lifetime limit is $23,000 for dependent undergraduates, $46,000 for independent undergraduates, and $138,500 for graduate students. Classification limits for a two-semester loan period are $2,625 for freshmen, $3,500 for sophomores, $5,500 for juniors and seniors, and $8,500 for graduates. Independent students may be eligible for additional unsubsidized loans. Please check the back of the Loan Request Sheet for more information. All loans are based on cost of attendance, EFC, other aid received, and the above loan limits. Students may not be qualified for the full amount listed above. Students must complete the entrance interview requirement on TRAM and be registered at least half-time (6 undergraduate or 5 graduate hours) before a loan can be disbursed.

MTSU Loans

MTSU loans and MTSU Foundation loans are also available. Financial aid, need, GPA, and availability of funds will be considered in awarding these loans. Contact the Financial Aid Office for applications for these loans.

General Financial Aid Information

1. Scholarship application deadline is March 1 for the next school year.
2. Students should have applied for Federal financial aid by completing the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) by March 1. State aid is based on availability of funds which are often depleted by April 15.
3. The priority deadline for awarding campus-based (SEOG, Campus Work Study, or Perkins Loans) is May 15. Students must have a valid FAFSA and have completed the verification process if chosen by the Federal government. This process can take several weeks to complete. The earlier in the year the FAFSA is completed the better the chance of meeting this deadline.
4. All financial aid will be adjusted for class attendance based on the 14th day of classes. Financial aid is based on full-time attendance except for loans which are based on half-time attendance. The student's financial aid will be adjusted accordingly. If a student receives a refund check based on full-time and drops below full-time before the 14th day of classes, the student will have his/her Pell and TSAC award reduced.

5. Class attendance will be verified for disbursements that occur during the semester. If a student is reported as not attending classes on at least a half-time (6 hours) basis, no funds will be disbursed.
6. Financial aid cannot pay for remedial and developmental classes attempted in excess of 30 hours.
7. Students receiving financial aid must declare a major by the time they have earned 60 hours.
8. Any scholarships and grants received in excess of tuition, fees, and books are considered taxable income. Consult your tax preparer for tax filing information.
9. All financial aid is subject to the Financial Aid Satisfactory Progress Policy (below).
10. Graduate students have 12 months after entering graduate school in which to complete prerequisites and receive aid at the undergraduate loan limits.

Satisfactory Academic Progress Policy

Federal regulations require that all federal financial aid recipients be enrolled in a degree-seeking program and maintain satisfactory academic progress toward a degree to maintain eligibility. MTSU complies with this requirement by monitoring each aid recipient's cumulative grade point average (GPA), completion rate, and maximum timeframe for completion of a degree. The following describes MTSU's method for monitoring each of these measures.

Cumulative Grade Point Average

1. Undergraduate students. To be eligible for financial aid, a student's GPA must meet at least the minimum requirements found in the undergraduate catalog. The cumulative GPA includes all transfer credits and hours earned at MTSU.
2. Graduate students. To be eligible for financial aid, a student's GPA must meet at least the minimum requirements found in the graduate catalog or be approved by the College of Graduate Studies for enrollment.

Completion Rate

Students must earn 66 percent of their cumulative credits attempted to remain eligible for financial aid. Grades of A, B, C, D, P, or S, including any "+" or "-" options, count as credits earned. All courses for credit will be counted as hours attempted including withdrawals, incompletes, courses repeated, and courses receiving a grade of N, U, WF, WP, and F.

1. Probation. Students whose completion rate is greater than 50 percent but less than the required 66 percent will be placed on probation.
2. Suspension. Students whose completion rate is less than 50 percent of the credit hours attempted or those previously placed on probation whose completion rate does not improve by the next review will be suspended from eligibility for federal grants, loans, and federal work-study employment. Students may still be eligible for emergency short-term loans and other university funds.

Time Limitations

1. Undergraduates. The maximum time limitation for the completion of a first degree is limited to 150 percent of the program's published length. Most undergraduate programs require 132 hours, so the maximum attempted hours allowed is 198. This time limitation does not include remedial/developmental courses for which the maximum federal limitation is 30 hours. The 198 hours include all transfer hours and all attempted hours. Students who change majors during their junior or senior year will be allowed 24 additional attempted hours to obtain a degree. The change of major must be recorded prior to the student's achieving the 198-hour limitation.
2. Graduates. The maximum time limitation for graduate students will be 150 percent of the standards established by the College of Graduate Studies and published in the graduate catalog.

Review of Progress Standards

1. GPA. The Records Office reviews the GPA at the end of each semester. Students may appeal academic suspension to the undergraduate or graduate academic appeals committee. The decision of the committee is final.
2. Completion rate. The completion rate is reviewed annually at the end of the spring semester by the Financial Aid Office.
3. Time limitation. The maximum time limit is reviewed at the end of each semester by the Financial Aid Office.

Notification/Appeals

1. Over 150 hours. The Financial Aid Office will send a letter of notification regarding the 198-hour limitation on federal financial aid to students who have attempted over 150 credit hours.
2. Probation. The Financial Aid Office will send a letter to students placed on financial aid probation notifying them of their financial aid status and the expected requirements. Each student will be allowed at least one probationary period, during the course of enrollment.
3. Suspension. Students suspended from financial aid will receive a letter from the Financial Aid Office along with a Satisfactory Progress Appeal form. Students are allowed to appeal their suspension if they can document extenuating circumstances beyond their control, which have since been resolved. Examples include death of immediate family member and extended medical illness and/or disability. Provisions may also be made for students who have been approved to participate in the Academic Fresh Start program or have military credits that cannot be counted toward a degree. Any other circumstances not listed above must be well documented and have the approval of a financial aid administrator and the director of financial aid.
   a. Financial Aid Suspension Appeals. Student appeals are reviewed by an internal committee composed of financial aid staff. Each student will be notified of the appeal decision and if denied what action must be taken to regain financial aid eligibility.
   b. Loan and Scholarship Committee. Students who are suspended a second time or who have been denied by the internal financial aid committee may appeal to the Loan and Scholarship Committee or its designee. The Loan and Scholarship Committee comprises faculty members, students, and administrators. Since faculty and students do not report until the start of school, students appealing to this committee may be personally responsible for paying registration expenses or signing a deferment to confirm they will attend and hold their selected classes.

Reinstatement of Financial Aid if Appeal Denied
Students can attend MTSU and make up deficiencies in credit hours at their personal expense. If a student chooses to do this, a written appeal to the Financial Aid Office must be made when the deficiencies have been completed. This option is not available to students who have reached the maximum time limitation.

No Credit Hours Earned
A student who earns no credit hours for one semester will be placed on probation. A student who earns no credit hours for the last two semesters enrolled will be suspended from federal financial aid. However, the student may appeal the suspension. Please see the suspension guidelines above.

Teacher Licensure
Students who have completed an undergraduate degree and are enrolled for the sole purpose of attaining teacher licensure are eligible for loans at the undergraduate level. To receive aid, students must be accepted into the teacher education program. Students are eligible for aid one semester prior to being accepted provided they have documentation of their application for admission to the program.

Returned Checks

Returned checks are subject to a $20.00 fine per check returned. Registration checks returned may result in a late registration fee of $25.00. The University does not redeposit returned checks. Any student who pays registration fees with a check which is subsequently dishonored by a bank will be administratively withdrawn and dropped from all classes if that check is not redeemed immediately with cash, money order, cashier's check, or certified check.

"NO MORE CHECKS"-"CASH ONLY" STATUS

The privilege of making payments for fees and charges by personal check and check-cashing privileges at Phillips Bookstore will be revoked for any student who has had more than one returned check within a twelve-month period for a period of one (1) year from the date the last check is redeemed.

Any student who was previously coded "NO MORE CHECKS" and has another check returned will have all check writing privileges at the University permanently revoked.

If your Statement of Account/Class Schedule says "CASH ONLY," send payment only with a certified check, money order, or credit card authorization. Do not pay your fees with a personal check. Your personal check will be returned to your post office box or permanent address, and your schedule will be deleted unless proper payment is received before the fee payment deadline.

A student paying in person will not be permitted to pay registration fees by check if any previous check in payment of registration fees has been returned. Students on a "NO MORE CHECKS"-"CASH ONLY" status should be prepared to pay registration fees with cash, cashier's check, certified check, money order, credit card, or check card.

Registration and Other Fees

Charges for all course work will be assessed by course level. The maximum fee will be the graduate full-time maximum if a student is enrolled for any graduate hours. The University reserves the right to correct errors in student fee assessments and charges which are discovered subsequent to initial billings or fee statements.

Student Registration Fees	Per Hr.	Maximum

A validated class schedule and fee payment receipt indicating that you are a student must be presented in order to obtain a box.

Refunds on Course Work
The amount refunded is determined by the date complete withdrawals or drop/adds are processed.

The amount of refund students will receive is as follows:

1. A 100% refund to students who pay fees, but then drop all classes on TRAM or WebMT by 11:00 p.m. on Sunday, January 9, 2000.
2. A 75% refund to students who withdraw from school or drop classes by Monday, January 24, 2000.
3. A 25% refund to students who withdraw from school or drop classes by Wednesday, February 9, 2000.

Refunds will be processed beginning approximately two weeks after the end of each refund period. It takes several weeks to process all the refunds. The University will deduct from proposed refunds any amount owed by the student to the University.

The refund for students who receive financial aid will be returned to the financial aid program up to the amount of the aid awarded.

Withdrawals and drops must be processed on or before the dates given above to be eligible for refunds. See the current undergraduate or graduate catalog for additional information.

Withdrawals
If you decide not to attend MTSU this term and wish to drop your classes, access TRAM at 898-2000 or WebMT at www.mtsu.edu. This can be done through Sunday, January 9, 2000, in order to receive a 100% refund. Once classes begin, from January 10-April 26, withdrawals may be processed on TRAM or WebMT and are subject to the refund deadlines listed above and in the calendar.

Adding Classes
If you add a class to your schedule after your initial registration payment or confirmation, additional fees are due January 13. Any unpaid fees after this date will be processed as a deferred payment. The $10 Deferred Payment Plan service fee and an applicable $25 late payment fee will be charged. If you add a class and decide not to attend the class, you must access TRAM or WebMT to drop the class. You will not be automatically dropped from that class by the Business Office. Your fees will be adjusted based on the refund policy in effect on the date of your drop. See page 5 for additional information on dropping and adding classes.

General Information

Auditing

Students desiring to audit a class must designate Non-Credit when selecting classes. Otherwise enrollment will be for credit. Any request to change from audit to credit or credit to audit must be processed by the last day to add a class. Graduate students who request to change after the deadline must receive approval by the department chair and the dean, College of Graduate Studies.

Change of Name or Address

Students are responsible for keeping their names and addresses current on University records. Changes in address may be made in the Records Office, Cope Administration Building 106, by calling 898-2315, or on WebMT at www.mtsu.edu. A forwarding address should be left with the U.S. Post Office in addition to a change of address with the University. Important: All name and/or address changes should be made early in the term to ensure they are processed in time to receive mail on a timely basis.

Class Cancellations and Changes

The University reserves the right to cancel any lower-division class enrolling fewer than fifteen, any upper-division or 500-level class enrolling fewer than ten, any 600-level class enrolling fewer than eight, and any 700-level class enrolling fewer than four students. It may be necessary for modifications to be made in times, locations, and listed teachers of courses.

Class Cancellations Due to Weather

To determine if classes are cancelled, students should listen to area radio and television stations; access the News and Public Affairs home page at http://www.mtsu.edu/~proffice (or click on "Events and News" from the MTSU home page at http://www.mtsu.edu); or call the news line at 904-8215. A limited number of phone lines may make reaching the news line difficult. Offices will be presumed open unless the announcement specifically states otherwise.

Community Standards of Civil Behavior, Statement of

Middle Tennessee State University is committed to sustaining an environment of tolerance for diversity among its students, staff, and faculty. In addition, the University acknowledges a responsibility for encouraging all members of the community to observe certain standards of civility in their interactions with one another. The choice to associate one's self with this fellowship of scholars is freely made by each participant, but obligates those who do join to observe the following expectations for civilized conduct within the MTSU community:

- the practice of personal honesty in all matters;
- a positive regard for the dignity and value of each citizen in the community;
- respect for the individual rights and possession of community members;
- disdain for bigotry and hatred expressed in any form or medium and directed toward identifiable groups or individuals in the community;
- tolerance for the convictions and opinions of others, even when not in agreement with one's own beliefs;
- a recognition of community members' mutual needs and concerns, and acceptance of a responsibility held in common to support the personal growth and efforts of each individual in furtherance of the well-being of the entire community.

Confidentiality of Student Records

Middle Tennessee State University regards a student's academic record as confidential. The release of information contained in the record is governed by Federal Law, known as the "Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act." Directory information such as the student's name, address, e-mail address, telephone listing, major fields of study, hours enrolled, participation in officially recognized activities and sports, weight and height of members of athletic teams, classification such as freshman or junior, dates of attendance, degrees, and awards received, and the most recent previous educational agency or institution attended by the student will be released unless the student has asked MTSU to withhold such information. If you do not wish directory information released, you must notify the Records Office in writing.

The law does provide for the release of information to authorized university personnel, other institutions engaged in research (provided information is not revealed to any other parties), and certain federal and state government officials.

If you have any questions concerning the provisions of this act, please feel free to contact the director of Records.

Counseling and Testing Center

Courses Required

All students who took the COMPASS Test or the Academic Assessment Placement Program (AAPP) test (or any portion of it) and who were placed into courses in the Developmental Studies Program must enroll in and complete the designated courses in sequence. Failure to enroll in the designated courses will result in the student's immediate withdrawal from the University. All full-time degree-seeking students should be enrolled in the appropriate general studies English course and either six hours in general studies or three hours in general studies and three hours in their major until they have satisfied the University's general studies requirement. Juniors or seniors must have on file and follow a plan for major and minors. Students are permitted to take only one physical education activity course per term.

Drop Policy

Academic Deadlines for Adding and Dropping Courses
Students who wish to add a class after the deadline to add must process a drop/add form through the Scheduling Center. Both the instructor and chairperson's signatures are required on the drop/add form. Students who cease attendance but do not officially drop or withdraw receive a grade of 'F.' Students will be allowed to drop or add courses provided it is within the course drop/add period. See pages 2-3 for specific deadlines.

Students having a hold on their records may drop courses but may not add a course until the hold is cleared.

1. During the first four weeks of a term, no grade is assigned.
2. During the fifth through the eighth week of a term, a grade of "W" will be assigned.
3. After the eighth week of a term, courses cannot be dropped.

The drop dates for courses which meet for a shorter time period than the normal term beginning and ending dates will be prorated based upon the course drop dates for the full term. Upon instructor's or department chair's notification to the Scheduling Center, the drop date for courses which meet for a shorter time period than the normal term beginning and ending dates will be prorated based upon the course drop dates for the full term.

Tennessee Board of Regents policy prohibits students from withdrawing or dropping from courses in the Developmental Studies Program. Under extenuating circumstances a course may be dropped with the approval of the Developmental Studies chair. No student may drop a basic/developmental course without written approval of the Developmental Studies department chairperson. A student desiring to drop a course must contact his/her Developmental Studies counselor at 898-2339 (Peck Hall 101) to begin the process. Failure to comply will result in an automatic grade of "F."

Grades by Phone or WebMT

You do not have to wait for the mail to know your grades at MTSU. Call 898-2000 (9-898-2000 on campus) (TRAM) and select the grade inquiry option to hear your grades for the current term and previous two terms provided money is not owed to the University. If you owe a student account balance which prevents release of your grades, TRAM will provide an option to allow you to pay your student account balance by credit card or check card (VISA or MasterCard) so that you can hear your grades.

Access WebMT at http://www.mtsu.edu and select Grade Inquiry from the main menu.

Grade reports are mailed only upon request. A printed copy of the current term grade report may be requested by selecting the appropriate option on TRAM or WebMT. This option is available for approximately ten days after final exams each term. Once the option to request a grade report is no longer available, instructions will be given for requesting a complete transcript. Also, you may view your unofficial transcript on WebMT. If a printed grade report is requested, it will be mailed to the permanent address unless a different address has been designated for mailing grade reports.

Graduate Courses

Ordinarily only graduate students should register for courses numbered 500 or above. However, any MTSU undergraduate student having completed 98 semester hours of undergraduate credit is eligible to take graduate courses. Students in Business Administration, Accounting, and Information Systems are not eligible.

Undergraduate students wishing to take graduate courses must obtain permission from the graduate program and the Office of Graduate Studies, CAB 114. Permission is not guaranteed. Not all graduate courses are offered to undergraduate students.

Students may not enroll in 700-level courses in the departments of Elementary and Special Education and Educational Leadership unless they are seeking an Education Specialist or Doctor of Arts degree. Non-degree seeking students are not permitted to enroll in 700-level courses.

Graduation Requirement

Notice to all Prospective May 2000 Graduates
Applications for graduation on May 13, 2000, must be submitted no later than January 24, 2000. The graduation list will be closed, checked, and posted soon thereafter. Any or all undergraduate students may be required, as a prerequisite to graduation, to take one or more tests designed to measure general education achievement and achievement in major areas for the purpose of evaluating academic programs. Unless otherwise provided for any individual program, no minimum score or level of achievement is required for graduation. Participation in testing may be required of all students, of students in selected programs, and of students selected on a sample basis.

ACT-Comp Testing

In order to comply with guidelines of the Tennessee Higher Education Commission, the University requires all graduating seniors to take a general education skills test, the ACT-COMP. The test is designed to measure a student's abilities in areas such as communicating, problem solving, and functioning within social institutions. It is not designed to assess knowledge of a student's major field.

The ACT-COMP test will be given on March 7, 8, and 9, 2000, for graduating seniors majoring in programs in the Colleges of Business, Liberal Arts, and Mass Communication. The testing location will be Tennessee Room of the James Union Building. On March 21, 22, and 23, 2000, graduating seniors majoring in programs in the Colleges of Education and Behavioral Science and Basic and Applied Sciences will be tested. The testing location will be the Business and Aerospace Building, Room S204.

On all dates, the test will be given three times: 8:30 a.m., 1:00 p.m., and 6:00 p.m. Students are permitted to choose the date and time which is most convenient. No pre-registration is necessary and pencils and test materials will be provided.

ID Cards

All students should have a permanent ID card with a magnetic strip on the back. The card is required to receive a variety of services on campus including cashing checks, admission to athletic and special events, admittance to the Rec Center, checking out library materials, obtaining meal tickets, and using RAIDER FUND$. Students must have their MTSU ID card to pick up a refund check or student payroll check. The ID card will be validated automatically when all fees are paid. All students must have an ID card.

The first card is issued at no charge; however, there is a $10 charge for replacing lost or stolen IDs. If your card breaks or is damaged, please return it to the ID office and a new card will be issued to you at no charge.

ID cards are made Monday-Friday from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. The ID Office is located on the track level of Murphy Center in the northwest corner (closest to Tennessee Blvd. and the tennis courts). Evening students may have IDs made in Peck Hall 101D after 4:30 p.m. Call 898-5611 for office hours.

Measles Immunization

Effective July 1, 1998, the State of Tennessee requires students entering colleges, universities, and technical institutes with enrollment of greater than 200 students to provide proof of two (2) doses of measles, mumps, and rubella (MMR) vaccine on or after the first birthday, or proof of immunity to measles if date of birth is 1957 or after.

You will not be allowed to register for classes until an acceptable form is on file in the Student Health Services Office.

For more information, call 898-2988.

Parking Permits

All motor vehicles operated on the campus of MTSU must be registered annually with the Parking Services Office. Any vehicle parked on campus must have a current valid parking permit displayed in the vehicle. Parking permits for the 1999-2000 academic year may be purchased at the Parking Services Office located in the Tennessee Livestock Center parking lot off Greenland Drive, 7:30 a.m.-4:30 p.m. Permits will be sold on January 10-13 at the Parking Services Office, 7:30 a.m.-5:30 p.m. Beginning January 14, permits will be sold and vehicles will be registered at the Parking Services Office, 7:30 a.m.-4:30 p.m. Parking permits also are available after 4:30 p.m. in the Adult Services Office, KUC 320, or in the Evening School Office, Peck Hall 101D. To purchase your parking permit, you must know your vehicle license tag number. For more information or clarification, refer to the Parking and Traffic Regulations. All permits will be valid through August 2000.

Placement and Student Employment

Seniors and graduate students should establish permanent files with the Placement Center prior to graduation. Students seeking part-time employment should apply at the Center. Information and application forms are available in Keathley University Center 328.

RAIDER FUND$—One Card That Does It All!

A personal RAIDER FUND$ account, which is accessed through the student's ID card, is available to all MTSU students. RAIDER FUND$ is a declining balance, money management program that allows students a convenient way to make campus purchases without the need to carry cash or the inconvenience of paying by check or credit card.

The RAIDER FUND$ account can be activated by making a minimum deposit of $10.00 at the Business Office cashier windows. Additional information on the advantages and convenience of having a RAIDER FUND$ account may be obtained at the Business Office cashier window 11 in the Cope Administration Building, by calling (615) 898-5443, or on the web at http://www.mtsu.edu/~bursarmt/raidreg.html. RAIDER FUND$ can be used to pay registration and other fees, buy meals directly or purchase meal plans, make copies in the library, use the washers and dryers in the residence hall laundries, and purchase books and supplies at Phillips Bookstore. Most of the campus Coke and vending machines will accept RAIDER FUND$.

What if I lose my RAIDER FUND$ card? LOST or STOLEN RAIDER FUND$ cards should be reported immediately to (615) 898-5523. At night or on weekends, call Public Safety at 898-2424.

Retention Standards—Suspension of Students

Undergraduate

The minimum quality point average required to achieve the baccalaureate or associate degree is 2.00 on all degree credit courses.

A student failing to meet one of the following standards during any term will be placed on academic probation for the subsequent term:

1. attain a 2.00 GPA for current term, or
2. meet one of the following retention standards:

00-29.99 hours attempted	1.50
30-49.99 hours attempted	1.80
50 or more hours attempted	2.00

See current catalog for additional information regarding Developmental Studies courses.

Graduate

The minimum grade point average (GPA) required to be eligible to receive a graduate degree is 3.00 for master's and specialist in education students and 3.25 for doctoral students. A graduate student failing to meet the applicable minimum cumulative GPA retention standard as listed on the retention scale in the Graduate Catalog or whose cumulative graduate GPA is less than 3.00 for three consecutive semesters will be placed on academic probation for the subsequent term. Probation in itself has no serious consequences other than to alert the student of potential academic problems and the requirement to (re)establish satisfactory academic status. Conversely, however, suspension is quite serious. Should a suspended student not be readmitted, it would result in termination of the student's graduate status.

In addition to minimum GPA standards, degree-seeking students are expected to take appropriate graduate courses towards their degree objective, as determined by the graduate program. Nondegree seeking graduate students are expected to take graduate courses. In addition to the retention guidelines, the two-course repeat policy may result in a dramatically increased GPA.

Six semester hours of C grade course work may be applied toward a master's or specialist's degree, but no courses with a C grade are acceptable toward the doctorate. Courses with a grade lower than C will not be applied toward any graduate degree requirements.

Selective Service

All male citizens of the United States of America born in 1960 or thereafter must have completed Selective Service registration prior to registering for classes at MTSU.

Student Load and Enrollment Status

A student's enrollment status is determined by the number of credit hours taken per term according to the following:

Undergraduate
- Full-time - 12 hours
- Three-quarter time - 9 hours
- One-half time - 6 hours

Graduate
- Full-time - 9 graduate hours
- Three-quarter time - 7 graduate hours
- One-half time - 5 graduate hours

Undergraduates may not register for more than 18 semester hours. Any exception must be approved by the dean of the college of student's major or Counseling and Testing for undeclared majors prior to registration. Graduate students are limited to a maximum of 12 graduate hours per semester. If an exception is requested, overload forms must be signed by the graduate advisor and the dean of the college of Graduate Studies. Full-time status for students holding graduate assistantships is six (6) semester graduate hours.

Thesis/Dissertation Requirement

Students enrolled in Thesis Research (664) and Dissertation Research (764) must sign up for at least one hour each semester (summer excluded) until the thesis/dissertation is complete. For master's students, a minimum of three hours is required for graduation. (The Department of Sociology and Anthropology requires six hours.) For doctoral students, a minimum of six hours is required for graduation. These courses are graded Satisfactory/Unsatisfactory (S/U). Satisfactory/Unsatisfactory grades are not used in determining the grade point average. However, they do count toward graduation requirements and are treated in every other respect as being equivalent to traditionally graded courses.

Withdrawal from School

November 1 - January 9, all students who register for spring classes and decide not to attend MTSU should access TRAM or WebMT to drop all classes from their records.

Procedure to withdraw from the University beginning January 10:

1. During the first four weeks of a term, the student may withdraw from all classes on TRAM or WebMT. All courses are dropped without grades and no courses are listed on the academic record for that term.
2. During the fifth through the eighth week, the student may withdraw on TRAM or WebMT and all courses are assigned a grade of "W."
3. After the eighth week of a term, the student may withdraw on TRAM or WebMT and the instructor assigns the appropriate grade of "W" if the student is passing or "F"* if the student is failing.

4. The deadline to withdraw from the University, i.e., from all classes, and receive a grade of "W" or "F," as determined by the instructor, is April 26. For assistance, contact the Associate Dean of Student Life Office, 898-2808.

If extreme extenuating circumstances necessitate a student's withdrawal from the University after the eighth week of the term, exception may be made. A grade of "W" may be recorded with written concurrence of the faculty member, but only if the extenuating circumstances are identified by and originate with the University physician or clinicians at the Counseling and Testing Center and/or the Office of the Associate Dean of Student Life.*

Note: See pages 2-3 for specific calendar dates.

What if...

...I forget my Personal Access Code (PAC)?
...my PAC number is not accepted?
...I receive a message that "an error has occurred?" or "there is no matriculation for this record?"

Contact the Scheduling Center at 898-5094.

...a course is closed?

Choose the course status option (4) on TRAM or access WebMT or CWIS (frank users) for open sections. If a section is closed, TRAM will indicate other sections of that course with the meeting time. If none exist, TRAM will indicate sections meeting at other times.

...a course is restricted?

Some course sections require departmental permission before registration. Contact the academic department for permission; then access TRAM or WebMT to register. Some courses require specific course prerequisites or have other registration controls which require that students have specific majors, classification, candidacy, etc. before registration can occur. Check the current catalog for prerequisite or other requirements. If you have met the requirements and still have problems during registration, please contact the academic department of the course.

...I need a call number for a course added after the schedule book was printed?

View added sections on the web under "Schedule of Classes" at http://www.mtsu.edu/~records/schedule.html under "Changes After Publication" or contact the academic department (phone numbers are with class listings in this schedule book).

...I can't find an alternate course?

Contact your academic advisor or the department of your major.

...I choose courses with conflicting times?

Normally, TRAM and WebMT will not allow registration for courses with time conflicts. To be allowed to register with a time conflict, bring written permission from the instructor of the conflicting class to the Scheduling Center to process the registration.

...I enter an incorrect call number?

Drop the incorrect course if you are enrolled and then enter the correct call number.

...I need a printout of my schedule?

Your schedule will be printed on your bill. You may verify your schedule on TRAM or WebMT; also, you can access the InfoMT kiosks in the KOM, KUC, BAS, and the Rec Center.

...I get a continuous ring using TRAM? Or get disconnected?

For constant rings, hang up and call again or contact the Scheduling Center at 898-5094. Do not use redial. For accidental or unexpected disconnections, try your call again. Courses you selected will not be lost unless you are a student taking Developmental Studies classes and you did not register for all required courses. Drops are not processed on TRAM if you hang up prior to TRAM listing the courses that have been dropped.

...I need to register for an overload of classes?

Undergraduates - Obtain permission from the dean of the college of your major. After the dean's office updates your record, resume registration on TRAM or WebMT.
Graduates - Obtain signed overload form from your advisor and deliver to the dean of the College of Graduate Studies. After the Graduate office updates your record, resume registration on TRAM or WebMT. Overloads will not allow entry into closed classes.

...I have a hold preventing registration?

Holds must be resolved before registration. TRAM/WebMT will indicate which department has a hold on your record. After clearing the hold, resume registration.

...I have problems using WebMT?

Call the registration help line at 898-5094 or report the problem via e-mail on the WebMT Support Request Form at the following web address:
http://www.mtsu.edu/~webepos/webmtfrm.html
WebMT Help Suggestions are located at the end of the WebMT Support Request Form. Remember to click on "Continue" or "Submit Request" buttons to navigate through WebMT; do not hit "Enter" on the keyboard. Remember to "Sign Off and Exit" when finished on WebMT.

...I need to change sections of the same course?

When changing sections of the same course number, drop the current class on your schedule before attempting to enroll in the new section.

Chemistry

Dr. Earl F. Pearson, Davis Science Building 239, 898-2956

NOTE: Cooperative Education courses offered for Pass/Fail only.

The Area IV General Studies Requirement SCI 100 can be satisfied by taking Topics in Physical Science 100.

Students enrolling in Intro General Chemistry 0111 and 0112 and General Chemistry 0121 and 0122 must enroll in a lecture and lab section concurrently.

Please contact department chair for permission to enroll in the following class(es).

Dr. Carol Bader, Peck Hall 217, 898-2568

NOTE: All students who took the AAPP test (or any portion of it) and who were placed into courses in the Developmental Studies program must enroll in and complete the designated courses in sequence. Failure to enroll in designated courses will result in the student's immediate withdrawal from the University.

Developmental courses cannot be used for graduation.

Tennessee Board of Regents policy prohibits students from withdrawing from courses in the Developmental Studies program. Under extenuating circumstances a course may be dropped with the approval of the director of Developmental Studies.

Please contact department chair for permission to enroll in the following class(es).

Distance Learning Classes

Dr. Rosemary Owens, Cope Administration Building 113, 898-2177

NOTE: Register for distance learning classes by TRAM or WebMT.
A $25 late fee will be charged if registration is on or after the first day of class.

Students must present their valid photo student ID before they will be allowed to take an exam.

Distance learning occurs when there is a physical separation of the teacher and learner and when communication and instruction take place through, or are supported by, any technological means such as telephone, radio, television, computer, satellite delivery, or interactive video, or any combination of present and future telecommunication technologies. Distance learning allows MTSU to make more courses available and more easily accessible to a larger number of students.

Exam Proctoring Information for Telecourse, Correspondence, and On-line Students
(students who cannot meet at appointed exam dates)

Please refer to the telecourse, correspondence, and on-line sections for appointed mid-term and final exam dates. With approval of instructor, Continuing Studies can proctor mid-term and final exams for students who cannot meet at the appointed test date. Students must call (615) 898-5374 for an appointment since the Test Center is not manned continuously. The Test Center will be open the week of mid-term and final exams. Students must bring a MTSU student ID to the exam.

Correspondence Courses

Mary Jane Peters, Business and Aerospace Building N102, 898-5060

Correspondence courses involve individual, independent instruction of a student by an instructor on a one-to-one basis. Typically, this will entail study at home, as well as the exchange of materials and evaluations through a mail/courier service. Interaction and feedback between correspondence course faculty and students take the forms of written assignments, testing, evaluations, guidance, and assistance via such media as print/written word, telephone, fax, e-mail, and other electronic technologies. Students will meet on the MTSU campus for mid-term and final exams per the schedule below.

After registration, students will receive a packet of information from the correspondence course coordinator. For full-time students, the packet of information will be sent to their campus post office box. Part-time students will receive the packet of information at their home address. If the packet of information is not received within two weeks after the first day of class, please contact the coordinator at the phone number above.

On-Line Courses

Liz Johnson, Kirksey Old Main 126, 898-5374
www.mtsu.edu/~netcours

On-line courses are taught primarily over the Internet through e-mail, distribution lists, and the World Wide Web. Many on-line courses require permission of the department to register. Most courses require students to be proficient at e-mail, Web browsing, and distribution lists before enrolling in the course. Details on which courses require permission and/or proficiency are located on the web page above. Students must have access to a computer and the Internet. MTSU students are eligible for an account on frank, MTSU's primary academic server; however, this account provides only e-mail, a news reader, and a text-only browser. For access to a graphical Web browser such as Netscape, students may want to subscribe to a commercial Internet Service Provider (ISP) such as America On-Line. Since a frank account allows students access to the Library's Expanded Academic Index/ASAP and other online library resources, students should apply for a frank account in addition to an ISP.

Each semester the Office of Information Technology (OIT) offers free short courses to students on how to use the Internet. Call OIT at 898-5345 for information on these short courses or to sign up for a frank account.

Telecourses

Liz Johnson, Kirksey Old Main 126, 898-5374
www.mtsu.edu/~tlcourse

Telecourses are delivered by cable television or videotape instead of by classroom lectures. Students are required to attend an orientation on campus, then view the videos and complete the assignments at home. Instructors provide a detailed syllabus, prepare and grade assignments and tests, and consult with students by telephone or e-mail. Students meet again on campus for exams.

MTSU does not loan out sets of telecourse tapes to students, but students are offered several options for viewing the telecourses. All telecourses will be shown on MTSU-9 (Channel 9 on Intermedia cable in Rutherford County). All telecourses can be viewed at the Ned McWherter Learning Resources Center on MTSU's campus. All telecourses may be rented from MTSU for $35 per set. These will be available at the telecourse office after orientation. It is the student's responsibility to ensure access to the telecourses.

NOTE: Students enrolling in telecourses are REQUIRED to attend orientation on Friday, January 7, from 6:00-8:00 p.m. OR Saturday, January 8, from 10:00 a.m.-12:00 noon in Room 227 of Peck Hall. Students enrolling in three or more telecourses must attend BOTH orientations.

Orientation is considered the FIRST CLASS. Because it is also the ONLY class, it is important not to schedule another class to conflict with the orientation. Please do not bring children to the orientation.

Video Conferencing (Compressed Video) Courses

Dennis Bain, Kirksey Old Main 122, 898-5426

Compressed video is a technology that condenses auditory and visual signals so they can be sent over fiber optic, T1, or other telephone lines (in this case ISDN and T1 lines) to sites that have specialized equipment. The equipment allows the MTSU instructor to communicate with various remote sites and interact visually and verbally through a television monitor. Compressed video courses are offered for credit.

Compressed video classes in Columbia are held at Columbia State Community College, Warff Building, Room 107.
Classes in Giles County are held at the Giles County Vocational High School in the Health and Occupation Room.
Classes in Tullahoma are held at Motlow State Community College, Simon Hall, Room S234.
Classes in Shelbyville are held at the Tennessee Technology Center, Room 2.
Classes in Lawrenceburg are held at the CSCC Lawrence County Center.
Classes at Franklin are held at Centennial High, Room 116.

Alma Mater

We sing thy praises, faithful guide of youth,
Through all the ages affirmed and strong in truth.
Alma Mater, Middle Tennessee,
We proudly offer our hearts in loyalty.
Founded 1911.

Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act

The following information is presented in compliance with the Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act Amendment of 1989.

1. Middle Tennessee State University prohibits the possession, use, or distribution of illegal drugs and alcohol on the campus proper or on institutionally-owned, leased, or otherwise controlled property.

2. Various federal and state statutes make it unlawful to manufacture, distribute, dispense, deliver or sell, or possess with intent to manufacture, distribute, dispense, deliver or sell, controlled substances. The penalty imposed depends upon many factors which include the type and amount of controlled substance involved, the number of prior offenses, if any, and whether any other crimes were committed in connection with the use of the controlled substance. Possible sanctions include incarceration up to and including life imprisonment and imposition of substantial monetary fines.

   Tennessee statutes provide that it is unlawful for any person under the age of twenty-one (21) to buy, possess, transport (unless in the course of employment), or consume alcoholic beverages, wine, or beer, such offense being classified a Class A misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment for not more than 11 months, 29 days, or a fine of not more than $2500, or both. The receipt, possession, or transportation of alcoholic beverages without the required revenue stamp is also a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment of not more than thirty (30) days or a fine of not more than $50, or both.

3. The use of alcohol can lead to serious health risks:

   - loss of muscle control, poor coordination, slurred speech;
   - fatigue, nausea, headache;
   - increased likelihood of accidents;
   - impaired judgment;
   - possible respiratory paralysis and death.

   Heavy drinking can lead to:

   - alcoholism;
   - damage to brain cells;
   - increased risk of cirrhosis, ulcers, heart disease, heart attack, and cancers of liver, mouth, throat, and stomach;
   - hallucinations;
   - personality disorders.

   Health risks associated with the use of illegal drugs include:

   - increased susceptibility to disease due to a less efficient immune system;
   - increased likelihood of accidents;
   - personality disorders;
   - addiction;
   - death by overdose;
   - anemia;
   - poor concentration.

   Additional information about how use of drugs and/or alcohol affect your health is available at McFarland Health Services Center and in the Alcohol Information Center in Keathley University Center.

4. Middle Tennessee State University does not currently provide drug/alcohol counseling, treatment, or rehabilitation programs for students. Referral to community treatment facilities may be made in appropriate cases.

5. Middle Tennessee State University will impose sanctions against individuals who are determined to have violated rules prohibiting the use, possession, or distribution of illegal drugs or alcohol.

   Sanctions for students using or possessing illegal drugs or alcohol include disciplinary probation, and in appropriate cases, suspension from the University. In addition, residence hall students will be removed from the housing system for the use or possession of illegal drugs. Referral for criminal prosecution may be made in appropriate cases.

   Individuals involved in the sale or distribution of illegal drugs will be suspended from the University and referred to the appropriate authorities for criminal prosecution.

   All employees, including students, agree as a condition of employment to abide by this policy. Sanctions against employees for use or possession of illegal drugs or alcohol in the workplace include termination of employment. Additionally, employees are required to notify the institution of any drug convictions resulting from a violation in the workplace no later than five days after the conviction.

MTSU Public Safety

In Compliance with the College and University Information Act

The following information is designed to provide a greater understanding of the facts and figures related to campus security operations. The information presented is not designed to serve as any agreement or contractual arrangement for providing security services to members of the campus community, nor to guarantee an individual's personal safety when utilizing the campus facilities or grounds. Public Safety urges all members of the University community to follow personal safety guidelines as the best method for preventing crime. The information presented is designed to meet the guidelines of the Tennessee 1989 "College and University Security Act," and the Federal 1990 "Student Right-to-Know and Campus Security Act."

Public Safety is an independent police agency recognized as such by the FBI and State of Tennessee. The department currently employs 27 full-time officers and operates 24 hours a day. Officers of Public Safety determine the appropriate response for all requests for assistance. Also utilized when requested are officers from the Murfreesboro Police Department and the Rutherford County Sheriff's Department, as well as numerous other full-time and student personnel in auxiliary roles.

Additional departmental support consists of one secretary, one microcomputer specialist, three telecommunications specialists, and approximately 25 part-time student employees. Students assist with the office operations, dispatch, and student patrol security services.

All full-time officers are commissioned and fully certified with the State of Tennessee. All officers have graduated from a fully-accredited law enforcement training academy and are required to meet all minimum standards set forth for police officers by the State of Tennessee. The department also provides continuing education for its officers in excess of what is required by these minimum standards.

Crime on Campus

MTSU is an open campus located in an area rapidly growing in population. A campus environment can foster a fake feeling of safety among its community. This is a potentially dangerous illusion. Each year over l00,000 crimes are reported on college campuses. Included at the end of this section are the latest crime statistics for MTSU. A comparison with other universities will show that we are among the safest universities in the nation and the state. We attribute this record to the aggressive performance of duties by Public Safety and also to the awareness of the MTSU community Despite our safety record, don't take chances or be careless with regard to your personal safety and property. MTSU has always been open about the fact that crime does occur here. We hope that increased awareness on the part of the community will help keep our campus safe.

MTSU and Public Safety are active supporters of Crimestoppers of Murfreesboro and Rutherford County. You are urged to contact Crimestoppers at 893-STOP (7867) if you have information about a crime that has occurred and wish to remain anonymous. If the information leads to an arrest and prosecution, you may receive a cash reward up to $1,000.00. All members of the University community are urged to report crime and suspicious activity to Public Safety as soon as possible. The department may be reached 24 hours a day at 898-2424 (2424 from campus telephones). All emergency calls for fire, medical, or police assistance should be made to this number. All "911 Emergency" calls will be rerouted to Public Safety by 911 personnel, so what may be a critical loss of time is eliminated with calls directly to 2424. Emergency phones are installed at various locations around campus to make it easier to contact the department.

A Crime Alert Notice will be distributed campus-wide by Public Safety when it could be reasonably believed that a reported violent crime may endanger additional campus citizens, i.e., employees, students, and guests.

Personal Safety

The most effective means of dealing with an attack on your person is to avoid it in the first place. The following are some common sense rules for your personal safety:

Walking at Night

1. Never walk alone at night on campus or anywhere in the city. Walk in groups of two or more people. If you are ever stranded on campus, call Public Safety at 2424 for an escort to your dorm or car.
2. Stay away from dark, poorly-lighted areas, especially buildings, parking lots, and alleys.
3. Always walk away from bushes and hedges.
4. Avoid short-cuts. Use designated sidewalks and lighted walking malls that run north to south and east to west on campus.
5. Never talk to strangers. Never accept rides from a stranger or mere acquaintance.
6. Always inform another person about your destination and expected time of return. This could save your life.
7. Maintain a tight grip on your purse or belongings. Never leave your belongings unattended.
8. If you think you are being followed by a vehicle, try to get its description and license number. Reverse and walk in another direction (the car will have to turn around to follow). Run to a lighted residence or public area and notify the police.
9. Do not walk with your head down. Walk confidently and watch around you at all times.

Driving at Night

1. After parking, always lock your car and remove the keys.
2. Park in well-lighted areas.
3. Always check the back seat of your vehicle before entering.
4. Keep windows up and doors locked while driving.
5. Never pick up hitchhikers.
6. If you are being followed, do not park and get out of your car. Drive to Public Safety or another police station or an open business for help. Do not drive to your home or dorm.
7. Look around for loiterers before leaving your vehicle.
8. Never stop to aid a disabled motorist. Notify a service station or the police.
9. If you have car trouble, raise your hood and wait inside with the doors locked. If strangers stop, ask them to report your predicament to the police or a service station.

If You Are Held Up

1. Do not resist if you think or know that the person is armed.
2. Quickly turn over your wallet or purse.
3. As soon as you are safe, turn and run away people are nearby, scream.
4. Take no chances, because many felons carry weapons.

If You Are Attacked

1. Every emergency situation is different. Only you can be the judge of what course of action is appropriate. There is no magic technique or weapon which can be used and guaranteed to work on every attacker.

2. Be realistic about your ability to defend yourself. An immediate reaction to resist physically or by yelling may give you a chance to escape, but it also may lead to further harm.
3. If your life is endangered, passive resistance such as vomiting, urinating, or telling your attacker that you are diseased may be your best defense.

Sexual Assault

Any student who has experienced sexual assault or attempted assault is well aware of the trauma associated with such an act. Sexual assault can range from stranger rape to being emotionally coerced for sex by someone the victim knows. Statistics estimate that approximately one in every four women will be a victim of date or acquaintance rape during her college career. Students should be aware that any sexual intercourse without the consent of their partner is rape. Further, sexual intercourse with a partner who is unconscious or unable to consent for any reason is rape.

If you are the victim of sexual assault, you are encouraged to report the assault and seek medical treatment. You may report this crime by calling Public Safety at 898-2424 (if you are on-campus, dial 2424) or the Murfreesboro Police Department. You may request assistance in reporting the crime by contacting any of the offices in the Unit of Student Life or contacting your resident assistant, hall director, or area coordinator. It is important to report the assault so that evidence may be preserved to provide proof of criminal sexual assault if and when the victim chooses to make a criminal complaint.

Complaints of alleged sexual assault should also be lodged with the Office of the Assistant Dean of Students located in Keathley University Center 122. MTSU will investigate all reported sexual assaults or attempted assaults and, where appropriate, will hold disciplinary hearings to adjudicate these assaults according to the procedures outlined in the MTSU Student Handbook. Both the accused and the accuser are entitled to the same opportunities to have others present during a disciplinary hearing. Any student found guilty of a sexual assault whether by MTSU or a criminal court shall be appropriately punished. A range of sanctions up to and including suspension or expulsion from the University are possible, depending upon individual circumstances. Both the accuser and the accused shall be informed of the outcome of any on-campus disciplinary proceeding.

Victims of sexual assault should recognize the importance of obtaining and/or receiving help in dealing with the crime. Existing counseling, mental health, or student services for victims of sexual assault include:

MTSU Counseling and Testing Center - 898-2670
MTSU June Anderson's Women Center - 898-2193
Crisis Pregnancy Support Center - 893-0228
Rape Crisis Line - 327-1110
The Guidance Center - 893-0770

Assistance is available in changing academic and living situations after an alleged sexual assault if requested by the victim and if such changes are reasonably available. The assistant dean of students will assist the victim in making these changes. Continuing education programs to promote the awareness of rape, acquaintance rape, and other sexual offenses take place during CUSTOMS Orientation and Sexual Assault Awareness Week. Further educational programs take place within the residence halls and for student organizations upon request.

Property Crime

The most serious ongoing risk of crime at MTSU concerns the theft of both private and public property. Once again, a university campus is not a haven from crime. Theft of property is the single greatest source of income for the purchase of illicit drugs and there is a vast marketplace in today's society for stolen property. There are many suggestions for protecting your property.

Burglary

1. Be careful to lock the doors and windows of your residence. The more time it takes a burglar to gain entry, the less likely he or she will be to burglarize your residence.
2. Do not leave valuables or money laying around unattended in your dorm room or apartment. Consider leaving items of great value at your permanent residence.
3. If you do have expensive or hard-to-replace items in your college residence, be sure to make a note of manufacturers' serial numbers for identification purposes. You may also consider applying your driver's license number to expensive items.
4. You may want to check into the coverage of the homeowner's insurance policy on your permanent residence to see if thefts while away at school are covered. You may also wish to investigate "Renter's Insurance."
5. In the dormitory, never leave your room unlocked and unattended. While taking a shower or making a short trip down the hall, lock your room and take the key with you.

Theft

1. Do not leave your books unattended at any time. They can easily be sold for quick money. If your books are stolen, file a report with Public Safety and file a lost or stolen book report promptly in Room 122, Keathley University Center.
2. Do not leave your purse unattended. Don't leave it in an unlocked desk drawer. Avoid carrying large amounts of cash.
3. Be careful to secure bicycles to the bicycle racks provided around campus. Lock them through the frame with a sturdy lock and chain. There are locks available that, if properly utilized and defeated, provide insurance coverage for the loss of your bike. Keep a record of the serial number of your bicycle.
4. When using lockers which are provided on campus, be sure to use a sturdy padlock to safeguard your property.

If You Lose Your Purse or Wallet

1. File a report with Public Safety.
2. Report the loss of credit cards to the issuing companies to avoid liability for unauthorized charges. Your maximum liability is $50 per card if you report the loss within 60 days, but you will save yourself and the company a great deal of trouble if you report it immediately.
3. Be especially prompt in reporting a loss of your ATM (automatic teller machine) cards. To limit your liability to $50, you must report the loss within two business days. Your liability increases to $500 per card if you wait up to 60 days, after which your liability is unlimited. Report this loss even though you are sure that your secret code was not written in your purse or wallet.
4. Inform the bank immediately upon the loss of your checkbook. Close your account and open a new one to avoid liability for forged checks.
5. Apply for a new driver's license. You can usually get a temporary one immediately.
6. Call the Social Security Administration for a new card. It takes about three weeks to get a new one if you know your number.
7. Change the locks on your residence if your keys were also lost or stolen. You are particularly vulnerable because your address is on your driver's license and other things.
8. If you had any receipts for dry cleaning or repairs on valuable merchandise, call the business and explain what happened. They may let you pick up the items if you describe them, the work to be done, and the date they were brought in.
9. If you lost a video rental card, call the business and advise them to make your card invalid. This will prevent any loss from the business and any inconvenience to you.
10. You may obtain a replacement MTSU identification card through the Department of Information Technology.

Motor Vehicles

1. Never leave your keys inside your vehicle. That makes stealing your car easy, and you may be liable for negligence if a thief uses your vehicle in the commission of a crime. A car is stolen every 15 seconds in the United States.
2. Always lock your car and roll up the windows.

3. Avoid leaving anything of value inside a parked and unattended vehicle. A radar detector or purse is just a broken window away from being stolen.
4. If you want to install expensive stereo equipment in your car, seriously consider an automobile burglar alarm.
5. Park in well-lighted areas.

Alcohol and Dangerous Drugs

The possession, sale, or transportation of alcohol and illicit drugs is strictly prohibited at MTSU by both Tennessee law and by MTSU regulation. It is also strictly enforced.

Drinking and Driving

1. About 25,000 people die in alcohol-related automobile accidents on U.S. highways each year. Alcohol-related injuries exceed 500,000 each year.
2. Alcohol is absorbed quickly by your bloodstream but is slowly collected and processed out of your system.
3. Alcohol slows your thought processes, affects your concentration and vision, slows your reaction time, and seriously affects your judgment.
4. A .10% or higher blood-alcohol concentration (BAC) is legal evidence of driving under the influence in most states, including Tennessee. Some states have lowered the standard to .08%.
5. Your BAC increases depending on many variables:
   - bodyweight
   - type of drink consumed
   - how fast you drink
   - your mood
   - the amount of food in your stomach.
6. There are many misconceptions about how long it takes a person to "sober up." Your liver processes the alcohol in your system at the same rate regardless of what "cures" you use. Black coffee, a cold shower, exercise, or fresh air will do nothing at all to lower your BAC. Nothing but time will sober you up.
7. Most states now have mandatory sentencing for conviction of DUI. In Tennessee, first offenders receive no less than 48 hours in jail, $250 fine, revocation of driver's licenses for one year, and mandatory attendance of a traffic safety instruction course. The mandatory minimum sentencing increases dramatically for repeat offenders. Tennessee drivers may soon have their vehicles confiscated upon repeat offenses. Public Safety does enforce the offense of driving under the influence.
8. Alternatives to drinking and driving:
   - Don't drink alcohol.
   - Drink alternative beverages such as juice or soda.
   - Utilize a designated driver who does not drink. Take turns among your friends.
   - Sip drinks, don't gulp them.
   - Eat before or as you drink to help slow down the absorption of alcohol in your system.
   - Stop drinking well before you plan to drive.
   - Know what and how much is in each drink. Don't let someone surprise you.
   - Set a limit for yourself and stick to it. If you have been drinking, get a ride from a sober friend, use public transportation, or stay overnight.
   - Take care of friends who have been drinking. Arrange other transportation or a place for them to sleep. Take their car keys from them if necessary.

Telephone Harassment

If you receive a harassing or obscene telephone call, hang up quickly without saying anything to the caller. Keep a log recording the date and time of the nuisance calls you receive. If the calls you receive are threatening or extremely harassing over a long period of time, contact Public Safety to report it.

Weapons on Campus

Lethal weapons of any kind, most notably firearms and knives, are prohibited on the MTSU campus. The penalty for possession of deadly weapons is enhanced by state law to a felony if that possession takes place on campus.

Traffic Enforcement

CAUTION: Thousands of students are crossing our streets daily; drivers must be extra attentive to these conditions.

Parking can be a problem at MTSU as it is at most major universities. There is adequate parking available on campus, but not at the campus' core. Learn to leave yourself enough time to walk to your destination from one of the parking lots provided. Public Safety enforces all MTSU and state traffic laws. Numerous city streets run through and around the campus, so please be aware of and obey the posted speed limits and traffic control devices. MTSU experiences in excess of 100 traffic accidents a year, some are serious. Wear your seatbelts at all times. BEWARE: You have not arrived safely on campus until you have parked your vehicle.

Other Law Enforcement Agencies

Public Safety has a close working relationship with local, state, and federal law enforcement agencies. Assistance from local, state, and federal agencies is requested as required.

The local law enforcement agencies have been requested to forward Public Safety copies of their reports of all criminal activity occurring on off-campus properties belonging to campus-affiliated organizations recognized by MTSU. These along with crimes occurring on campus are reported monthly to the FBI and TBI by Public Safety. The annual report is prepared each January for the previous year. These results are published and distributed via the (1) Public Safety Calendar, (2) Semester Class Schedule Booklet, (3) Employee Orientation Material, and (4) the annual Employee Security Newsletter.

Rules and Regulations

I. The campus and facilities of the University are restricted to students, faculty, staff, guests, and invitees of the University, except when part or all of the campus, its buildings, or facilities, are open to the general public for an approved and designated time and purpose.

All persons on the campus of the University, including faculty, staff, guests, and invitees, shall be subject to all rules and regulations of the University and the Tennessee Board of Regents which are applicable to the conduct of students on campus, and to all applicable federal and state laws and regulations. All persons on the campus of the University shall provide adequate identification upon request to appropriate officials and security personnel of the University. Personnel and students of the University who refuse to provide such identification may be subject to disciplinary action, and other persons who refuse to provide such identification shall be requested to leave campus and if they refuse, may be subject to lawful removal and prosecution.

II. The use of firearms is strictly prohibited in effecting the apprehension of misdemeanants. Officers are authorized to use necessary force, including deadly force, to protect themselves or other persons from death or serious bodily harm. MTSU officers are specifically not authorized to shoot a fleeing felon unless the above conditions apply. (Officers' duty weapons are issued by Public Safety. All officers meet the firearm proficiency standards required by the Tennessee P.O.S.T. Commission.) Possession of firearms (or other statutorily defined weapons) on campus is prohibited pursuant to TCA 39-17-1309 and subject to the exceptions contained therein and to the affirmative defenses enumerated in TCA 39-17-1310. Similarly, the General Regulations on Student Conduct and Disciplinary sanctions prohibit the possession or use of any unauthorized firearm or dangerous weapons of any kind.

III. MTSU does not collect information on criminal records of applications for admission to the University. The application for employment of all employees except faculty requires that the applicant state whether he/she has been convicted of a misdemeanor or a felony. Acknowledged conviction of any crime results in an evaluation of the applicant's fitness for employment in consultation with legal staff. MTSU requires that employees notify the institution of any drug convictions resulting from a violation in the workplace no later than five days after the conviction.

IV. Public Safety personnel report all hazardous or unsafe campus conditions found to exist on a daily basis. These reports are sent directly to each respective vice president and department chairperson to ensure expeditious corrective measures. A daily security activity report is prepared and provided to the president, the assistant vice president for finance, and the vice president for student affairs. A daily summary of all criminal activity is made available to the general public at the office of Public Safety.

V. Public Safety enjoys a close working relationship with the student newspaper publication staff and the Office of Public Relations. The Department welcomes and encourages media interest concerning security matters.

VI. Public Safety personnel welcome new entering students each semester at the orientation function. A security program is presented and an information packet is distributed to all new students who attend the orientation sessions. This information is also available at Public Safety upon request. Additional Crime Prevention Programs, which include Assault Awareness, i.e. "Date/Stranger Rape," Alcohol Awareness, Individual Security, and Operation ID are presented throughout the academic year upon request.

Housing and Residence Hall Security Information

I. Types of student housing available:

Single student residence hall - accommodations for 1,827 women students in 11 halls and 1,441 men students in 11 halls are available on the campus.

In addition there are 48 one-bedroom apartments and 21 two bedroom apartments for females. Forty-eight one-bedroom and 22 two-bedroom apartments are available for males.

There are 96 one-bedroom apartments in the Family Housing Complex for students with a spouse and/or with dependent children.

II. Policies on housing assignments and requests by students for assignment changes:

Room assignments are prioritized to allow current residents to have preference in assignments for the coming year. New applicants are then assigned to available spaces based upon their date of application. Room changes are on a first-come, first-served basis for as long as University Housing has available space.

III. Policies concerning the identification and admission of visitors in student housing facilities.

Guests of the same sex may visit overnight with a resident after registering with the hall director. Guests for more than two nights must receive written permission from the housing director. Residents must be present during their guests' visit and must accept responsibility for the guests' behavior.

Guests of the opposite sex may only visit during the hours of a designated Open House or during visitation and must adhere to the policies governing those activities.

Other visitors in residence halls are required to enter and exit only by the main entrance to the hall, unless specific permission has been secured from the official in charge of the hall. Staff members are trained to challenge unrecognized individuals in the building.

IV. Measures to secure entrances to student housing facilities:

Hall lobbies (interior corridors) are closed and guests are asked to leave at 2:00 a.m.

Industrial strength locks are utilized on doors and windows and students are encouraged to adopt additional security devices on accessible windows such as the insertion of wooden window stops. These stops are provided by the University Housing Office.

Room or apartment keys are the property of the University and a student may not have duplicate keys made. Violation of this procedure will result in disciplinary action.

V. Standard security features used to secure doors and windows in student rooms:

Some exits from interior buildings are equipped with an alarm system. This alarm system is sounded if the contact is broken on the door seal. Staff check the exits as a part of their regularly scheduled rounds. Industrial framing and locking devices are utilized on the windows and doors and window stops are provided by University Housing.

VI. A description of the type and number of employees, including security personnel, assigned to the student housing facilities which shall include a description of their security training:

Each residence hall is managed by a professional area coordinator who undergoes training prior to the beginning of school. Each area coordinator supervises a resident assistant who resides on each floor of the building. Each resident assistant undergoes a week of intensive training and is required to enroll in a residence hall counseling class. RAs are required periodically to attend scheduled in-service training throughout the year. There are six area coordinators and 78 resident assistants.

Each residence hall complex has at least one reception desk which is open 24 hours. Desk assistance provides information, emergency assistance, and monitors the registration of guests to the building.

VII. The type and frequency of programs designed to inform student housing residents about housing security and enforcement procedures:

All communications with residents prior to their arrival identifies and details security measures. Immediately following check-in, each resident is strongly encouraged to attend a residence hall meeting in which the staff verbally communicates these security procedures. During the semester the security efforts are re-emphasized through programming efforts.

VIII. Policy and special security procedures for housing students during low-occupancy periods such as holidays and vacation periods:

The period between Summer and Fall, Fall and Spring, and Spring Break are officially considered closed periods and students are strongly encouraged to not remain in the residence halls. The housing director must approve an exception for those students who must remain in Housing and each resident is required to sign in on a seasonal roster. These seasonal rosters are provided to Public Safety, area coordinator, and hall guards. Additionally, three roving hall guards are employed during these periods to circulate between and through the residence halls looking for infractions.

All residence halls with interior hallways are secured by locking the exterior doors during breaks. During the Christmas and Spring Break periods, exterior locks are changed and only those students staying are issued a key for entrance. All other keys issued to residents are retrieved between Fall and Spring and Spring and Fall.

IX. Policy on the housing of guests and others not assigned to student housing or not regularly associated with institution of higher education:

Guest housing - all guests are associated with University business. These individuals are housed in Guest Housing and are not in the traditional residence halls with regularly registered students.

Summer camps and workshops - all summer camps and workshops are approved by the director of housing. Each workshop sponsor must sign a contract with the University Housing Office specifying services and rules and regulations. Each workshop is supervised by a summer director and his/her assistants.

MTSU Crime on Campus Annual Report: January-December 1998

Use this form to sign up for direct deposit of Financial Aid refunds!

Middle Tennessee State University • Murfreesboro, Tennessee

☐ New ☐ Change ☐ Cancel

I hereby authorize:

1) Middle Tennessee State University to deposit my refund via electronic fund transfer (EFT);

2) my financial institution to credit this amount to my account.

This authorization will remain in effect unless canceled in writing. A new authorization must be completed if I change my account, close my account, or change financial institutions. Note: I understand that the University needs ten (10) business days to set up this authorization, and two (2) business days for EFT after funds become available.

In the event that the exercise of this authorization for any reason results in an overpayment of financial aid actually due and payable to me, I hereby authorize the University to either: a) withhold a sum equal to the overpayment from my next disbursement of financial aid, or b) debit my above-identified checking or savings account for an amount not to exceed said overpayment. I understand that I may be subject to a financial aid billing which I must repay to MTSU if I withdraw or do not enroll in a subsequent term and have received financial aid via EFT which is in excess of my financial aid eligibility or if an overaward occurs. If any action taken by me, without adequate notification to the Business Office, results in non-acceptance of the transfer by my financial institution, I understand that the University assumes no responsibility for processing supplemental financial aids until the funds are returned to the University by my financial institution.
